CALLS HOUSE FAIR CROSS SECTION OF U. S.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(AP)—At the close of his first term of active service as a congressman, Bruce Barton took a look at his job and found it good. Being an advertising man and an inspirational author, the most celebrated new member of the house has a tendency to look at the stony side. But whether or not the taste is perverse, the fact remains—he enjoys being in congress.

"The house of representatives," he remarked the other day, "is a very creditable cross-section of the United States. By and large, congressmen are just as smart, just as dumb, just as patriotic and just as unselfish, just as courageous and just as cowardly as leaders of industry or any of the professions. They are friendly and engaging. I know more men by their first names in the house than in any club I ever belonged to."

Mr. Barton is a red-haired, blue-eyed, pink-faced, euphonic individual. He has an air of liking people, and he really seemed to like his colleagues. On the hill, the more dis respectful corridor gossips sometimes describe the house as "the wallow," but Mr. Barton saw no excuse for this.

Guldahl Meeting Rivals' Pressure
 WESTWOOD COUNTRY CLUB, St. Louis, June 16. (AP)—Champion Ralph Guldahl met pressure with pressure in the third round of the western open golf tournament today and at the end of 54 holes of the 72-hole competition still was deadlocked for the lead, but not with the same rival who disputed the top rung at the 36-hole mark.

Guldahl came in with 83-37-70, one under par, for a 54-hole total of 214. Meanwhile, long-hitting Sam Snead, tied with Paul Runyan one stroke behind Guldahl and Ray Man gram after 36 holes, boomed his way to a 69 to catch up with the champion.

COMPROMISE ON DEFICIENCY BILL SPEEDS CLIMAX

Action On Spending-Lending Program Near Completion — President Expects to Depart by 7 P. M.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—(AP)—A joint senate-house conference committee agreed today on a compromise deficiency appropriations bill clearing the way for adjournment of congress by tonight.

The conference group worked out the compromise on the $29,000,000 bill in less than four hours shortly after the senate had almost completed action on the administration's $3,753,000,000 spending-lending program.

The latter measure went back to the house for a vote on a minor amendment, however.

Wait Bill Copies.

Both chambers arranged to consider the compromise deficiency measure as soon as copies of it could be compiled by clerks.

Those were the only two major measures awaiting final action.

As prospects for a quick adjournment improved, President Roosevelt moved up to about 7 p. m. the time of his planned departure for New England, where he will attend the wedding on Saturday of his son, John.

Disagreement over provisions of the deficiency bill involving only about $10,000,000 of appropriations were the chief obstacle to adjournment.

The bill as passed by the house carried allotments totaling $279,000,000. The senate added $10,000,000 to that.

When the two branches agree how much of that $10,000,000 shall be left in the bill as finally passed, the weary congressmen can go home.

Kidnaper Is Arraigned

F. P. McGill pleaded guilty to kidnaping and innocent to slaying Jimmy Cash, 5, when he was arraigned in Miami, Fla., for the crime which was committed in Princeton. The prisoner is shown at the right as State Attorney G. A. Worley (left) read the indictment to him.

Death in Chair Is Decreed For Kidnaper of Cash Boy

MIAMI, Fla., June 16.—(AP)—Franklin Pierce McGill, 21, was sentenced today to die in the electric chair for the kidnaping of Jimmy Cash, Jr.

Cautioning the crowded courtroom to keep quiet, Circuit Judge H. F. Atkinson called the minister's son to the bench.

"You plead guilty to the offense as charged of kidnaping and holding James Bailey Cash, Jr., for ransom. What have you to say for yourself?" he demanded.

McGill merely shook his head.

"I find you guilty as charged in the indictment," the judge continued, "the same being a capital offense under the laws of Florida, and I sentence you to be held until such time as you shall be delivered to the superintendent of the state prison at Raiford, there to be held safely until a death sentence shall be carried out."

The judge said the governor would fix the date for the execution, specified the prisoner was to be put to death by electricity and concluded with the customary, "May God have mercy on your soul."

He made no further comment in court on the $10,000 ransom abduction McGill confessed to having perpetrated at Princeton May 28 but remarked privately that "it was the most cold-blooded thing I ever heard of—there were no mitigating circumstances in this case."

McGill heard his doom without flinching. His face was impassive and he looked straight ahead. Afterwards, under heavy guard, he was taken to an elevator and returned to his cell.

STATE PUBLISHERS VANGUARD ARRIVES FOR CONVOCATION

Directors' Dinner Tonight First On Program — Business and Entertainment Friday, Saturday

Editors and publishers began arriving here today for the 51st annual convention of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers' association and it was anticipated that between 100 and 125 would be present for the two-day convocation opening tomorrow morning.

A prelude to the convention was set for 6:30 this evening when directors of the association were to meet at dinner in the Hotel Medford to review problems and policies of the newspaper publishing business. Register Friday.

The convention proper opens at 9:30 tomorrow morning with registration in the Hotel Medford lobby. The convocation continues through Saturday, with a number of social events and sightseeing tours interspersed with the business sessions. Alton F. Baker, publisher of the Eugene Register-Guard and association president, will preside.

With a number of prominent speakers listed on the program, the convention this year is expected to attract widespread interest. Kenneth Youel, former financial editor of the New York Post, now affiliated with the department of public relations of General Motors corporation in New York, will give an address at the first session tomorrow morning. Mr. Youel comes from Molalla and while in Oregon will visit his parents. He was graduated from the University of Oregon school of journalism in 1923.

Sinnott to Speak

Another speaker on tomorrow morning's program is Phillip J. Sinnott, manager of the Pacific coast bureau of the NEA service in San Francisco. He will talk on "Gold Is Where You Find It." The morning session will be completed by an address by Maurice Penter, assistant publisher of the San Francisco Examiner.

At a luncheon in the Hotel Medford tomorrow at 12:30 the convention will be welcomed to Medford by Mayor C. C. Furnas. A response to the welcome will be given by Lars E. Bladine of McMinnville, vice-president of the association.

A luncheon address will be given by Dr. Philip W. Buck, professor of political science at Stanford university, who is teaching at the Oregon system of higher education. Dr. Buck will talk on "American Neutrality and the Far Eastern Crisis."

Tomorrow afternoon will be devoted to a golf tournament and a tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap, 35 Geneva street. Convention attendants will be guests tomorrow night of the Crater club at a picnic supper and entertainment at the Elks picnic grounds on the Rogue river.

Plans have been completed by the Crater club to present the most outstanding entertainment in its history, feature of which will be the staging of a full initiation ritual to induct some of the visitors into honorary membership. With a natural background of scenic charm, the ceremony is expected to be the most impressive ever held by the Crater club.

Numerous other features will be carried out, ranging from the sublimity of the ritual ceremony to the comic absurdity of special stunts. A barbecue supper will be served.

All visiting delegates and their wives and friends are invited to the Crater club function. Club members intending to be present are asked to notify John Snider at the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce without delay.

Session Early Saturday.

General business sessions will be resumed at 9:30 Saturday morning after committee breakfasts at the forenoon agenda including roundtable discussions, reports of committees and officers, election of officers, and nominations for the Amos E. Voorhies award.

At a luncheon in the Hotel Medford at 12:30 Saturday, the principal business sessions will be held.

TOT BROKEN HEARTED AS DUCKY WALKS OFF

Little Margaret Thompson was crying her tender heart out today, grieving over the loss of her four feathered pets. If anyone has seen the pets, the broken-hearted girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson, would like to be notified. They live at 1004 West 4th street.

The pets were Ducky, a domesticated Mallard duck, and her three fuzzy ducklings. Gathering her brood Ducky waddled off on an exploratory journey. The pets failed to return.

Ducky had several other ducklings, but generous little Margaret gave all excepting three of them to friends. Now her remaining pets have disappeared.

Grants Pass Bus Terminal Planned

GRANTS PASS, June 16.—(AP)—Two years of argument between the city council and Pacific Greyhound stage lines appeared near a happy ending today. Construction of a $500,000 terminal will start tomorrow, two days after the latest "dead-end" set by the council for stopping parking on the streets. The old terminal passageway was found too small several years ago for present-day large buses.

Morgenthau Sees Employment Government's Major Problem

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—(AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., said today the federal government's major task is "to get our economy to function on an even keel, so that all who are able and willing to work can find outlets for their creative energies."

"Until we succeed in that task, our liberties will not be safe," he told the Temple university graduating class.

"Failure to defend those liberties in one city, or county, or state strikes at the liberties of all of us," the secretary continued.

In an interview later, Morgenthau said:

"There are a number of places and individuals in the United States that this shoe fits. You can name a considerable number of them."

"When men and women are haunted by the spectre of unemployment," he added, "they may fall prey to anti-democratic movements."

He said the government's large expenditures for public works to provide employment were "a necessary investment to maintain the physical and spiritual health of the people."

"There remains much to be done," he continued. "Millions of decent homes are to be built. Stumps wiped out. Transportation reorganized. The machinery of government administration improved. The excessive power of monopolies must be restricted. "Our taxation system must be revised so as to eliminate cumbersome overlapping of federal, state and local taxes and attain more equitable distribution of tax burdens. These are only some of the tasks."

"The basic reforms carried through under the leadership of President Roosevelt are only a beginning. They prevent a repetition of the 1932 calamity, but the fight to alleviate and end the present recession, to make further recessions impossible and to bring about an order of things better than we have yet seen, is still before us."

STORMTROOPERS PARTICIPATE IN NEW JEW PURGE

Activities Intensified in Anti-Semitic Drive — Jews Forced From Theaters — Arrests Made in Cafe

By Edward W. Beattie (United Press Staff Correspondent)
 BERLIN, June 16.—(UP)—Nazi storm troopers participated for the first time last night in the renewed anti-Semitic activity when they entered two theaters along the Kur-fuerstendamm in Berlin's west end and ordered all Jews in the audience to leave.

The uniformed storm troopers directed the managers of the motion picture houses to switch on the auditorium lights and then ordered any Jews to leave immediately.

Flying squads of police at the same time raided one of the most popular cafes frequented by Jews at the corner of Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial church square along the Kur-fuerstendamm and arrested several Jews. The police raided another cafe around the corner a short time later.

German Jews meanwhile besieged the American and British consulates, seeking escape from the country, as reports spread of 1,000 or more arrests in one of the most intense anti-Jewish drives since the "April Pools day" purge of 1933.

The reason for the new anti-Semitic wave were obscure, but Nazi officials did not deny that activities against Jews in Berlin and the provinces had been intensified and that arrests were being made.

Informed quarters said the government intended to "Aryanize" all Jewish-owned stores and shops in Germany by the end of July.

More than 100,000 persons flocked to the flag-decorated capital for the anniversary and cheered the monarch as he rode in an open carriage this afternoon to Stockholm stadium where he accepted "citizen homage."

18,000 BOXES PEARS REMAIN IN STORAGE

PORTLAND, June 16.—(AP)—Heavy consumption of western apples has reduced the supplies to about 750,000 boxes, indicating there would be virtually no carryover into the new crop.

Northwest shipments totaled 163 cars last week. To date Oregon has shipped 2,886 boxes, Washington 37,993 and Idaho 41,813.

Pear withdrawals were 55,000 boxes last month, leaving about 18,000 boxes on hand. Western holdings on June 1 included 100 boxes of Bartlett's and about 1,000 boxes of other varieties.
