

GIN MARRIAGES BARRED JULY 1 IN YORK STATE

Couples Will Have at Least a Week to Think It Over Under New Desmond-Breitbart Legislation.

By Mary Elizabeth Plummer.

NEW YORK, June 16.—(P)—The dawn Greta Green marriage after a lark in a night club soon will be a thing of the past in New York state. Beginning July 1, every marrying couple will have at least a week to think it over before going to the altar.

On that day, the new Desmond-Breitbart marriage law becomes effective, barring hasty matrimony in the interest of the future health of the race by at least an additional four days. A 72-hour interval now is required between license and ceremony.

Required by the new law: A premarital examination and blood test of both the man and woman, showing them to be free from syphilis in a communicable form.

Instead of going to the marriage clerk first, the prospective bride and groom, must go to their doctor, who makes an examination and arranges for a blood test.

The physician of each sends a blood specimen to an approved laboratory, which sends a confidential report to the physician after analysis. This ordinarily requires four days.

Without the physician's certificate of a clean bill of health and the laboratory statement that the test was conducted, no license will be issued. With their license application, the couple must present to the clerk only one extra paper—a form filled in at the top by the laboratory director and below by the physician, to be filed with the license clerk.

No publicity.

Acting Health Commissioner William H. Best said no publicity of any kind will be possible under the new law. "Persons undergoing the test may rest assured that no persons other than their physician and the department of health would be able to learn if either of them was suffering from syphilis."

"If the examination by the physician indicates that the infection is not at a stage whereby the disease may become communicable, he may properly sign the certificate to be submitted to the marriage license clerk, and a marriage license can be issued."

BRINING MARKET LOST TO CHERRIES

Cherries will not be brined here this year as was done a year ago, an American Fruit Growers bulletin said today. This removes an important outlet for the Rogue valley crop.

Last year practically all surplus cherries of the valley were processed by American Fruit Growers here for canneries and other concerns marketing the fruit as maraschino and in other forms for home, club and hotel use. The deal brought as much as six cents a pound to the growers.

This year, however, large crops of cherries in California and northern districts have provided the canners and briners with all their needs, the company bulletin said. The bounteous crop has depressed prices, the bulletin added.

BIRMINGHAM, Eng. (P)—Summoned for speeding, a motorist here said he had been driving five years without a license and didn't know he needed one. He was fined $17.50.

FARMER DROWNED BY WIFE'S LOVER AUTHORITIES TOLD

Woman Confesses Spurring Younger Man to Hold Husband's Head Under Water; Children Witness

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., June 16.—(AP)—Murder charges alleging a farm woman directed her lover to drown her husband so they could be free to move to a city together was filed against the pair here today.

Neighbors of Benjamin Franklin Matthews, 52, had been told he drowned Sunday while attempting to swim a flooded slough on his farm.

County Attorney R. K. Harris said he had oral statements from Eddie Matthews, 37, the widow, and Leonard Overcast, 37, Oklahoma City, admitting they plotted the death of the middle-aged farmer.

"We talked it over Friday," Harris quoted Mrs. Matthews as saying, "and I told Leonard to drown him. We talked it over every day."

Sunday, "Leonard was standing in the slough," Harris quoted Mrs. Matthews as relating. "Prank (the husband) was on the other side. Later I went out and saw Leonard on this side and Prank in the slough."

"I said: 'Push him under like we said this morning—push him under!' Leonard went back and caught him by the throat, pushed him back and under and held him until he drowned. I stood and watched."

Then, Harris said the widow told him she turned to find that the children, Gene, 9 and Rose Lee, 5, had been witnesses to the drowning. She said she threatened to whip the boy if he told.

Suspicion turned to the couple Harris said, when they came here to sell Matthews' goats. Underheriff J. D. Engle said Overcast was wearing some of Matthews' clothing. The couple told different stories, he said.
