

JACKSON COUNTY RELIEF SITUATION TOLD KIWANIANs

Chairman Carpenter of County Relief Committee Funds Shows Big Growth

In an address before the Medford Kiwanis club at its weekly luncheon yesterday in the Medford hotel, Alfred S. V. Carpenter, chairman of the Jackson county relief committee, presented an enlightening picture of the work of the committee through-out the county.

Mr. Carpenter stated that in spite of the generous assistance of the federal government in connection with the financing of relief, the burden upon local county funds has increased to the point where other county projects, such as road building and maintenance, have had to be curtailed. In proof of this Mr. Carpenter read an extract from a recent news item which stated that the county would be forced to abandon several proposed road improvements and curtail others for lack of funds.

$83,373 Budgeted
According to Mr. Carpenter the Jackson county court budgeted a total of $83,373 for relief in the current fiscal year. This money finances the following programs: General assistance, $31,640; old age assistance, $44,100; blind assistance, $1,100; aid to dependent children, $6,533. In most of these programs either the state or federal government contributes a like amount, which means that the total cost to the taxpayer for relief in this county for the current year would be in the neighborhood of $176,000, Mr. Carpenter said. He pointed out that in addition to these programs and this expenditure, there are still the WPA, the CCC and the blaster rust control programs, the E.R.A. and the farm security administration.

Petition Signing Evil
Mr. Carpenter said he particularly regretted the tendency on the part of the average citizen to sign petitions requesting the county relief committee to grant old age assistance without taking time to investigate whether actual need exists. He cited one case in which about 30 business men had signed a petition requesting the committee to grant assistance to a man who had two relatives legally responsible for his care and entirely willing to assume the burden which would have been doing right along.

Investigation by the case workers of the committee revealed that a number of the signers of the petition knew nothing about the man's condition but had simply signed the petition because they believed that all persons more than 65 years of age are entitled to a pension. Mr. Carpenter related. He pointed out that in Oregon there are no old age pensions at present but only old age assistance and that this is given only to those who are actually in need and have no one legally responsible for their care.

Mr. Carpenter revealed that during May the county relief committee received 239 new applications for assistance.

Jockeys to School.
REDWOOD CITY, Cal.—(UP)—California jockeys are to have a higher educational status hereafter than is usually found in the profession. Pansy Abbott, superintendent of schools, has issued an order that they must attend school the same as others under 18. The order affects 40 jockeys at the Bay Meadows tracks alone. Special classes will be held at the race course.

To Entertain Publishers

Paul Bulkin, catering chef and manager of The Chateau, who will entertain Oregon publishers Saturday night with his musical program. This novelty will be one of the several features of a gridiron extravaganza and dance which will be presented at The Chateau as the climax of the summer convention of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers' association in this city. Due to this gridiron party, The Chateau has been reserved exclusively for the editors Saturday evening.

Skeleton Found.
ASTORIA, June 16.—(P)—A Bradwood woman found the skeleton of an adult human, possibly an Indian, yesterday when she noticed a white object projecting from ground where children had been playing. A coroner's investigation was launched.

INTEREST RATES ON FARM LOANS WILL STAY DOWN

Senate Joins House in Overriding Roosevelt's Veto of Measure to Continue Present Low Charges

WASHINGTON, June 15.—(P)—A bill to continue low interest rates on certain federal farm loans became law today, despite objections by President Roosevelt.

The senate, following similar action in the house yesterday, voted to override Mr. Roosevelt's veto of the legislation. The house vote to override was 244 to 87. The senate vote was 57 to 18. The legislation, sponsored by Senator Gillette and Representative Biermann, both Iowa Democrats, will continue through June 30, 1940, the 3 1/2 percent interest rate on certain land bank loans and the four percent rate on land bank commissioner's loans.

In vetoing the bill, Mr. Roosevelt said it would cost a total of $208,700,000.

The measure would continue until June 30, 1940, a 3 1/2 percent rate of interest on federal land bank loans and a four percent rate on land bank commissioner's loans. The contract rate on the loans is 5 percent or higher, depending on the time they were made.

President Roosevelt said, in vetoing the measure, the land bank interest reductions would cost the treasury $143,500,000 by July, 1939, and that if they were extended until July, 1940, the cost would be $188,900,000. The land bank commissioner loans, he said, would cost $24,800,000 if the low rate was extended to July, 1940.

TOUGHENING DRILLS FOR GUARDS IN CAMP

ASTORIA, June 16.—(AP)—Toughening drills occupied 3600 Oregon national guardsmen at Camp Clatsop yesterday while a 2400 coast artillery regiment advance detail checked equipment, installed radios and telephones in five Fort Stevens coastal defense gun batteries in preparation for firing practice.

The 162nd Infantry, commanded by Colonel Fred M. West, Portland police captain, held the first regimental parade following a 13-gun salute for Major George A. White, commander of the 41st division.
