DEATH ROW CELL DOOR OPENS FOR KIDNAPER

RAIFORD, Wis., June 17.—(AP)—Franklin Pierce McCall, 21-year old laborer who confessed he kidnaped Jimmy Cash, Jr., of Princeton, Fla., for a $10,000 ransom, was locked in a "death row" cell at the state prison here today to await execution in the electric chair. Dade county deputies brought him here from Miami in an automobile. McCall was sentenced yesterday following a hearing Wednesday. L. F. Chapman, prison superintendent, said the condemned kidnaper, who insisted he did not kill the five-year old child intentionally, appeared "stunned" during the 15 minutes required for his booking.

Burelson's Staging Jamboree of Values

A real old-fashioned jamboree of values sale is now in progress at Burelson's ladies' ready-to-wear store, according to an announcement by Mrs. E. T. Burelson, owner. Merchandise for this event has been marked down in every department of the store. In some groups the merchandise has been completely repriced for this event. "This sale, coming at this time, offers patrons a wonderful opportunity to select holiday clothes from a wide array of stock at a great savings," Mrs. Burelson said.

Poster Winner

Miss Josephine Bullis (above) of Medford, who has just won the title of state champion for Oregon in the third national meat poster contest for high school students, according to an announcement made by a committee of prominent artists meeting in Chicago. As an award, Miss Bullis, who is a high school senior, receives a cash prize from the National Live Stock and Meat Board, sponsor of the contest. A total of 13,774 students from 866 high schools of 48 states participated in the event. Her winning poster stressed the importance of meat from the standpoint of its food value. According to the judges, it was very well executed and carried out the rules of effective design and striking color.

FIRST RURAL ELECTRIC PROJECT INAUGURATED

ASTORIA, June 17.—(AP)—Electric lights blazed for the first time in Nahalem valley homes when the current was turned into a 22-mile line, Oregon's first rural electrification administration project. About 250 families in the area are served. It is near one of the isolated districts which voted last April to approve the defeated seven-county utilities plan, work on the project took a year.

ROOSEVELTS GATHER IN OLD NAHANT FOR YOUNGESTS WEDDING

NAHANT, Mass., June 17.—(AP)—The entire Roosevelt family, headed by the president and first lady, today took up temporary residence in or not far from Nahant to attend tomorrow's wedding of the family's youngest son, John, and in so doing gave this old town something of the air of a national capital. The chief executive rested aboard the government yacht Potomac, not far from Nahant, after concluding an all-night trip from Washington by debarking at Salem shortly before 9:30 a. m.

The mother of the prospective bridegroom, who will marry Anne Lindsay Clark at noon tomorrow, meanwhile reached Boston by train. Accompanied by her son, Elliott, and her daughter, Mrs. John Boettiger, and their respective mates, she drove by automobile to Framingham and breakfasted at the home of the president's oldest son, James. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., and his wife, the former Ethel DuPont, took up their temporary Massachusetts residence after arriving by plane from New York last night. As the day wore on, the entire family centered more and more upon this picture a quiet, sun-surrounded town, where this afternoon the wedding of John and Anne will go into rehearsal.

PLANT SITE PURCHASED NEAR BONNEVILLE DAM

HOOD RIVER, June 17.—(AP)—Purchase of 120 acres of land at Cascade Locks for construction of a sodium chlorate manufacturing plant, operating with Bonneville dam power, was announced yesterday by Leonard T. Beale, president of the Pennsylvania salt manufacturing company of Philadelphia. Co-purchasers are the Pennsylvania Salt and the Chipman Chemical companies. Beale's message said that he-yond purchase of the land no development plans could be announced at present. Share Pioneer Honors
