

The Weather
Forecast: Partly cloudy today; showers tomorrow; no change in temperature.
Temperature
Highest yesterday 67
Lowest yesterday 49

Extra Dollars
You can easily add extra dollars to your vacation money by selling the discarded articles around the home through advertising in the Classified columns in this newspaper. It's time to begin.

Thirty-Third Year

MEDFORD, OREGON, SUNDAY, JUNE 19, 1938

The Capital Parade
By Joseph Alsop and Robert Kintner
Copyright 1937, by The North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc.

ADMINISTRATION "PURGE" LOOMS FOR SEN. ADAMS
MODERATE NEW DEALER IS FORTIFIED
HAS PRAISE IN WRITING FROM SECRETARY ICKES
FARLEY ADVISES HANDS-OFF POLICY

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The case of Senator Alva B. Adams of Colorado, one of the Democratic heretics condemned to martyrdom in the primaries, unusually illuminates the political trend of the new deal. As yet, it's not entirely certain that Adams is to be included in the auto da fe. But the usual 100 per cent new dealer, Judge Benjamin Hilliard, has announced his candidacy against Adams after the usual happy chat with the president. On his cross-country trip this summer, the president will have the usual opportunity to give a broad hint of his preference. In fact, a stake for Adams has been put up, the fagots have been laid, and all that remains is to set the fire.

As it happens, however, Senator Adams has contrived great protections against martyrdom, of which the first, and funniest, is nothing less than a letter from Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes. On various occasions, notably last winter, when Ebert K. Burelew's nomination to the undersecretaryship caused an investigation of wire tapping and the like in the interior department, Adams has done Ickes favors. And so, this spring, when a testimonial dinner was given the senator, the secretary reciprocated.

"I have a high regard for his capacity and ability in dealing with many matters of extreme importance to the west and to his own state," wrote the secretary. "He puts into his work unflinching energy, intelligence and statesmanship. His grasp of and interest in western affairs, such as reclamation, national parks, the Indians, grazing, mapping, land classification and other activities calls for the highest commendation."

The Ickes letter will be doubly embarrassing to the anti-Adamsites. Not only is it a written proof of the Adams ability to bring back the federal bacon for the folks at home. It also breaks the new deal front, coming from a cabinet officer of the strictest sect, who would now be a member of the purge committee if he were not too busy honeymooning.

JOHN ROOSEVELT AND ANNE CLARK JOIN IN WEDLOCK

Honeymoon Destination of Young Couple Unknown—President And Wife Aid 'Escape.'

NAHANT, Mass., June 18.—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. John Roosevelt, for the moment at least the nation's top-ranking newlyweds, tonight slipped away for an unannounced destination after a society wedding that combined solemnity and smiles, noise and color and pomp.

The president and Mrs. Roosevelt helped their youngest son and the new Anne Clark Roosevelt make good their "escape" from this sea-surrounded island, thronged for the day with thousands of the curious.

The bride and groom started their journey by automobile, with a police escort discouraging pursuit. Heading northward, they hinted by their actions that a private home in New Hampshire, or Campobello, the Roosevelt summer home in New Brunswick, might be their destination. A sea trip, with Canada a point of embarkation, probably will follow.

"Gee, I'm glad it's all over," John breathed to Anne as they rushed for their automobile, shortly after 4:30 p. m. (E. D. T.).

The chief executive and first lady, remaining at the wedding reception, to center the attention of guests until their son and his daughter-in-law had departed, themselves left soon afterward. The president headed for Hyde Park, N. Y., after boarding the yacht Potomac at near-by Salem. Mrs. Roosevelt turned toward the same destination by automobile.

John and Anne could look back tonight on a marriage performed without the slightest slip. In the dusk of the 107-year-old Union church, contrasting with the bright midday sunshine outside, the young couple moved through the solemnities of the Episcopal wedding ceremony in just six minutes.

Outside, a noisy crowd of several thousand pressed against the police lines, cheering the chief executive and first lady and two cabinet officers as they arrived and bustled off to spontaneous applause as the young married couple emerged.

Kynette And Aides Await Jury's Verdict

Charged with an attempt on the life of Harry Raymond, private investigator for an independent group gathering information on vice and graft conditions in Los Angeles, Kynette (center) and two members of the city's "spy" squad, Fred A. Browne (left) and Roy J. Allen, are shown as they appeared in a Los Angeles courtroom, while a jury debated their fate.

COPELAND DEATH MAKES NEW YORK POLITICAL ARENA

Double Senatorial Election This Fall Test Of New Deal Strength in Pivotal State.

SUFFERN, N. J., June 18.—(AP)—The body of U. S. Sen. Royal S. Copeland, who died yesterday in Washington, lay in state tonight in the living room of the rambling white farmhouse that once was his retreat between congressional sessions.

The term of his strongly New Deal colleague, Senator Robert F. Wagner, author of the labor relations act, is ending.

These two seats will be open this fall for a free-for-all fight among Democrats, Republicans and other factions, including the newly-forming American labor party which made an impressive showing in last year's state election.

Early speculation on the Republican possibilities who might give the Democrats a battle to retain their two seats in the senate included Rep. James Wadsworth of Genesee, former State Senator George E. Harold of Cortland, and Rep. E. Harold Clifton of Troy.

BULLETIN

(By The Associated Press)
Sacramento increased its Pacific coast baseball lead to two full games last night over the idle second-place San Francisco Seals. The Solons defeated the fourth-place San Diego team, 3 to 1.

Although outlit six to five, Los Angeles' Angels entrenched themselves firmly in third place by shutting out the cellar-dwelling Oakland A's, 2 to 0, to clinch a current series with the Oaks.

At Seattle, Portland evened the current series with the Rainiers at two-all, winning 6 to 1. The victory put Portland only a game and a half behind San Diego, but still eight and a half games behind the leaders.

The defeat sent Seattle four games behind the Beavers in sixth place. The Beavers scored four runs in the fifth inning when Marcel Serventi blew up and had to be replaced.

Joe Jarro, Portland left-hander, pitched excellent ball, allowing Seattle only seven scattered hits. The Rainiers scored their lone run in the ninth.

The Los Angeles Angels clinched their current baseball series with Oakland by blanking the Oaks, 2 to 0, behind the effective pitching of Ray Thomas.

Score: R. H. E.
Los Angeles 2 5 0
Oakland 0 6 3
Thomas and Collins; Joyce and Rainmond, Conroy.

Score: R. H. E.
Seattle 5 12 0
Darrow and Dickey; Serventi, Pickrel and Fernandes.

Score: R. H. E.
San Diego 1 8 0
Sacramento 3 9 0
Hebert and Hogan; Pipp and Grube.

ROTARIANS PLAN 70 YR. AGE LIMIT
SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—(AP)—A proposal to inject "new blood" into Rotary clubs by retiring all individuals from active membership at 70 years of age will come before the international convention of the organization here next week.

The convention also will vote on a measure to permit the existence of more than one local club in certain cities and trade territories. Heretofore only one club has been allowed in each city.

200,000 CHINESE TROOPS TRAPPED BY YELLOW RIVER

Hankow Saved By Flood From Attack—Refugees Near Million Flee From New Terror In War Zone.

SHANGHAI, June 19.—(Sunday)—China's mighty Yellow river, overflowing its banks with increasing fury, forced the Japanese armies on the north central front to retreat today.

Invading forces which had been almost at the gates of Chengchow, important Honan province railway junction, in a powerful westward drive along the Lunghai railway, were compelled to abandon newly-won territory and head back eastward.

The "no man's land" created by the great flood was widening steadily under continuing rains.

SHANGHAI, June 18.—(AP)—China's overflowing Yellow river, which apparently has saved Hankow, the provincial capital, from danger of a northern attack for many months, was declared by Japanese today to have trapped 200,000 Chinese beyond all hope of rescue.

The flood waters were declared by Japanese military authorities to have extended over an additional area of 600 square miles in the last 24 hours.

The flood zone covered 1,600 square miles. Two thousand villages, and hamlets in the rich agricultural province of Honan were submerged, and 1,400 others invaded by the upsurging currents.

With 700,000 refugees fleeing before the water as it reached out its long arms, perhaps to join China's other great river, the Yangtze, also rising 300 miles to the north, Japanese reports said there was no indication whatsoever of the flood abating.

Japanese said they were caring for 200,000 of the refugees but that the plight of thousands, their homes and fields blanketed in mud and water, was extreme.

Thousands, they said, were eating the bark of trees in desperate efforts to survive.

JOURNALIST SEES WAR WITHIN FIVE YEARS IN EUROPE

Paul Smith, San Francisco Chronicle Executive, Gives Observations At Convention Luncheon.

A European war within the next five years was predicted yesterday by Paul E. Smith, general manager of the San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. Smith addressed a luncheon-meeting of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association in its 81st annual convention here. The luncheon was held in the Hotel Medford.

None of the European nations wants a war but all of them want something that eventually will lead to war, Mr. Smith said. The journalist based his assertions on observations he made during a tour of Europe recently with ex-President Herbert Hoover.

The young and personable Mr. Smith related his observations with humorous flair and incisive cynicism. His talk was spiced with anecdotes that emphasized the absurdities of various European regimes. He also related stories revealing the stark terror that exists in the dictator nations.

From the hundred-odd leaders and deposed statesmen he talked with in Europe, he concluded that only Mussolini, Hitler and Stalin professed to know the answers to the problems confronting their countries, Mr. Smith said.

"And I think they're nuts," he added.

The luncheon-meeting was opened by Alton F. Baker, retiring association president. Mr. Baker presented Lars E. Bladine, elected president at a morning business session, and then turned the chairmanship over to the new presiding officer.

The meeting adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, The social security and unemployment taxes are oppressive and unreasonable and an unnecessary handicap to business, and

"Whereas, We are convinced that they are in a large measure responsible for the business depression, and

"Whereas, They definitely discourage business expansion, which would create more employment, and

"Whereas, In the matter of the unemployment tax, it is unjust and discriminatory to require the employer to pay a tax which is for the sole benefit of the employee, and to which the employee contributes nothing.

New President

Lars E. Bladine, publisher of the McMinnville Telephone-Register, who yesterday was elected president of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association at its annual convention here.

Henry N. Fowler, president of the Bend Bulletin, was elected vice president and Herb Grey, advertising manager of the Medford Mail Tribune, was chosen treasurer.

Albany was selected as the 1939 convention city, the board of directors to determine the time of the meeting later.

Directors elected were Merle Chessman, Astorian-Budget; Earle Richardson, Dallas Itemizer-Observer; Harry W. Fredericks, Lebanon Express; Frank Jenkins, Klamath Falls News-Herald; Giles L. French, North Sherman County Journal; Harold Finlay, LaGrande Observer; and ex officio, Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, University of Oregon.

The publishers voted to affiliate with the national editorial association. Through this action each member of the publishers association automatically becomes a member of the editorial association.

Upon recommendation of the board of directors, the association approved the Amos E. Voorhies award for the following: Harvey W. Scott, of the Oregonian; C. S. Jackson, founder of the Oregon Journal; Ashal Bush of the Salem Statesman and Amos E. Voorhies for 47 years of distinguished service in Oregon journalism.

The following resolution was adopted at the morning session of the convention: Through the active and generous support of the city of Medford and the many organizations and individuals who have contributed to making this an unusually profitable and enjoyable convention, adding to the old-established reputation of Medford as a genial and generous host, we wish to express special thanks to the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, Mr. A. H. Banwell, manager, the Crater club of Medford, Rogue River Valley Golf association, the staff of the Medford Mail Tribune, Mr. Robert W. Buhl, Alton F. Baker, Ernest R. Gilstrap, Mayor C. G. Furnas, the speakers on the program and the program, banquet and arrangements committees for the able and successful cooperation resulting in a convention that will be long remembered with gratification.

The two-day convention was brought to a close last night with a dinner, grid-iron and dance at the Chateau. In the afternoon out-of-town delegates and guests were taken on a motor tour of the valley.

Friday night the delegates and convention guests were entertained at a picnic supper by the Crater club, the event being held at the Elks picnic ground on the Rogue river. Several publishers were inducted into honorary membership.

JOBLESS PROBLEM HELD PERMANENT IN W.P.A. SURVEY
WASHINGTON, June 18.—(AP)—The WPA decided today that the unemployment problem is a lasting one and can be coped with by nothing less than a permanent program of economic security.

The relief agency, in a survey, explored the questions of technological unemployment, industrial trends, prices and wages, then concluded:

"No single program will eliminate the distress resulting from unemployment. An integrated and perfected program of insurance, public work and public assistance will be necessary.

"Under such a program unemployment insurance could care for persons who lose their jobs for relatively short periods of time. Persons unemployed for protracted periods would receive incomes through work programs. The most important fact is that unemployment relief can no longer be regarded as a temporary problem to be treated on an emergency basis."

The WPA experts said the "out-moded local relief of the pre-industrial era" was inadequate to meet the shock of a major depression.

They blamed the instability of employment and the presence of some idle labor at all times for the "probable permanence of destitution." The instability of the labor situation, it concluded, "appears to be a normal or expected accompaniment of the highly specialized economic system."

BLADINE CHOSEN O.N.P.A. PRESIDENT FOR COMING YEAR

Albany Selected For 1939 Convention—Voorhies Award Selections Approved—Extend Thanks.

Lars E. Bladine, publisher of the McMinnville Telephone-Register, was elected president of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association at yesterday morning's session of the annual convention. He succeeds Alton F. Baker, publisher of the Eugene Register-Guard who was elected past president.

Henry N. Fowler, president of the Bend Bulletin, was elected vice president and Herb Grey, advertising manager of the Medford Mail Tribune, was chosen treasurer.

Albany was selected as the 1939 convention city, the board of directors to determine the time of the meeting later.

Directors elected were Merle Chessman, Astorian-Budget; Earle Richardson, Dallas Itemizer-Observer; Harry W. Fredericks, Lebanon Express; Frank Jenkins, Klamath Falls News-Herald; Giles L. French, North Sherman County Journal; Harold Finlay, LaGrande Observer; and ex officio, Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, University of Oregon.

The publishers voted to affiliate with the national editorial association. Through this action each member of the publishers association automatically becomes a member of the editorial association.

Upon recommendation of the board of directors, the association approved the Amos E. Voorhies award for the following: Harvey W. Scott, of the Oregonian; C. S. Jackson, founder of the Oregon Journal; Ashal Bush of the Salem Statesman and Amos E. Voorhies for 47 years of distinguished service in Oregon journalism.

The following resolution was adopted at the morning session of the convention: Through the active and generous support of the city of Medford and the many organizations and individuals who have contributed to making this an unusually profitable and enjoyable convention, adding to the old-established reputation of Medford as a genial and generous host, we wish to express special thanks to the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, Mr. A. H. Banwell, manager, the Crater club of Medford, Rogue River Valley Golf association, the staff of the Medford Mail Tribune, Mr. Robert W. Buhl, Alton F. Baker, Ernest R. Gilstrap, Mayor C. G. Furnas, the speakers on the program and the program, banquet and arrangements committees for the able and successful cooperation resulting in a convention that will be long remembered with gratification.

The two-day convention was brought to a close last night with a dinner, grid-iron and dance at the Chateau. In the afternoon out-of-town delegates and guests were taken on a motor tour of the valley.

Friday night the delegates and convention guests were entertained at a picnic supper by the Crater club, the event being held at the Elks picnic ground on the Rogue river. Several publishers were inducted into honorary membership.

UNWED MOTHER ABANDONED BABY TO GO TO DANCE
LOS ANGELES, June 18.—(AP)—When red-haired, 24-year old Vivian Green was arrested today for deserting her baby, she naively explained: "I wanted to go to a dance."

And the reason she didn't return to the beer parlor, where she left 10-month old David a week ago, was because "I was afraid the cops would pick me up. . . I got a record."

The record is a previous arrest for child abandonment. And then Vivian told her whole story to Police-woman Marie Dinuzio.

She has four sons, she confessed, each by different fathers. She never has been married. The ages of the others are six, four and three years. The oldest boys have been adopted. The three-year old is "with friends."

Three years ago, when she left little Robert, clothesless, in the rumble seat of an auto, Vivian was arrested in a nearby saloon. She served 180 days in jail.

Vivian cried for her baby today, but she wasn't allowed to see him, David would become a ward of the juvenile court.

YOUTH ADMITS HE SLEW FOSTER KIN

ROYAL OAK, Mich., June 18.—(AP)—An 18-year-old adolescent confessed officers today to the body of his foster father, whom he confessed he shot May 31 because of resentment over a scolding when he failed to mow the lawn.

The boy, Jason Edward Dulsky, after a 130-mile automobile ride to Arenic county, uncovered the decomposed body of Edward J. Dulsky, 50, the man who adopted him as a baby and reared him as his own child.

Then Jason was returned to the Oakland county jail at Pontiac, Pros. Franklin E. Morris said the boy's confession had been corroborated in every detail. He said Jason would be arraigned in justice court here Monday on a murder charge and would be taken at once into district court at Pontiac if he waived examination.

He said the youth had promised to plead guilty.

Jason, a high school junior, confessed today, Asst. Pros. Sherman Mac Donald said, after blood had been found in the trunk of the family automobile by officers investigating the disappearance of the elder Dulsky.

FAIR AND NORMAL WEEK'S PROSPECT

Weather forecast for Sunday: Northern California: Fair Sunday; warm in the interior; moderate northwest wind off coast.

Oregon: Partly cloudy Sunday with showers in northwest portion Sunday; slightly warmer in interior Sunday; light variable wind off coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—(AP)—Weekly outlook, far western states, June 20-25 inclusive: Fair weather, preceded by showers in Pacific northwest first of the week; temperatures slightly below normal in Pacific northwest until end of week but near normal elsewhere.

(Continued on Page Six)

M'Nary Back Soon
SALEM, June 18.—(AP)—Senator C. L. McNary has telegraphed friends that he will arrive here from Washington next week, to spend the summer at his country home five miles north of Salem. He will be accompanied by Mrs. McNary and little daughter.