

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

By OLARA MARY DAVIS

Lucie McCormick Weds Mr. Stoddard In Church Service

At a lovely ceremony solemnized Saturday morning at 11:00 o'clock at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Miss Lucie McCormick, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ford McCormick of this city, became the bride of Guy Hill Stoddard, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Y. Stoddard of Modoc Point, Father E. S. Bartlam officiated in the impressive service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a pure white suit of serge cloth, a white and brown hat and matching accessories. She wore a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. William Spangler, the bridegroom's sister, was matron of honor. She wore a suit of dusky pink with pink and blue accessories and a matching corsage.

The bride's twin sisters, Clarita and Frances McCormick were her bridesmaids. They were dressed in identical suits of light blue, with blue and white accessories and corsages.

The pastel shades of the bridal parties' ensembles were carried out in the decorations of the church. Baskets of blue delphinium, madonna lilies, white snap dragons and ferns were used. White tapers filled the candle holders.

The groom's twin brother, Tom Stoddard acted as best man and Dietrich Peterson and Paul Buck were ushers.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. G. O. Larson sang, "Oh Perfect Love." Miss Jeanette Field presided at the organ.

Following the wedding service a reception was held at 19 Geneva street to which 65 guests were bidden. Here, pastel hues were also carried out in the room decorations. The mantle was banked with madonna lilies, pink canterbury bells and blue delphinium. The refreshment table was beautifully appointed with a fluted and lace cloth, crystal and white glassware and white candles. A bouquet of mock orange blossoms formed the centerpiece.

The bride's mother, Mrs. McCormick, was hostess and was assisted by Mrs. Ben Stafford.

Mrs. Robert Frame cut the large wedding cake and Mrs. Charles Reames served the punch. Miss Peggy Powers and Mrs. C. M. Kidd presided at the table. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Willard Eberhart, Miss Carvel Reames and the Misses Clarita and Frances McCormick.

Following the reception the young couple departed for a wedding trip down the coast. They will make their home in Modoc Point.

Among out of town guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lamn and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kehoe of Modoc Point, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Stoddard, uncle and aunt of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hovy of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Crosby Owens of Eugene and Miss Peggy Powers, the bride's aunt of Glendale, Calif.

A very pleasant surprise to the entire McCormick family was the arrival of Mrs. McCormick's sister, Miss Marie Powers who arrived in Medford late Friday afternoon by plane from Glendale, Calif., especially for the wedding service.

Mrs. Stoddard graduated from Stuart Hall in Staunton, Va., and entered Denison university in Greenville, Ohio. She later graduated from the University of Oregon in Eugene and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She has been the physical education director in the Klamath Falls schools during the past year.

Mrs. Stoddard is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is associated with Lamn Mills at Modoc Point.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Stoddard was feted at a number of enjoyable bridge parties and showers. Among those entertaining for her were Mrs. Wilton White, Mrs. Charles W. Reames, Mr. R. W. Frame and Miss Carvel Reames.

Miss Anne Purucker Writes From Capitol

A letter from Miss Anne Purucker who is spending the year in Washington, D. C., brings a thrilling description of a recent grand party at the White House. Miss Purucker attended as a member of the Walter Reed hospital staff. Nurses and war veterans were received by President Roosevelt "and was it a thrill to shake his hand" writes Miss Purucker. The marine band played and minstrels were sung by a negro chorus. Buses with police escort carried the guests to the White House, "riding merrily through traffic and red lights as if the president were in the procession. Debutantes from all the states passed cigarettes to the veterans. They wore banners, bearing the name of the state each represented."

Mrs. Putnam Feted At Party Tuesday

Mrs. Guy Humphrey entertained with a shower party for Mrs. Lewis Putnam at the home of Mrs. E. Finley on Ross Lane Tuesday evening. An enjoyable time was had playing games.

Guests included Mesdames Walter Wilson, Don Larson, Floyd Jenkins, George Watson, Marjorie Perra, William Milnes, Dale Flowers, Charles Skeeters, Arnold Bohner, Leo Humphrey, H. Holt, E. Humphrey, Ted Malnes, Adiel Neff, I. B. Barry, E. Finney, and Miss Beverly Watson.

Printed maps were not known until the second half of the 15th century

Card Readings

Madame A. Mueller Honesty and Hellfire with best of references Readings $1.00 723 Sherman Street Phone 965-4-1

Bride of Yesterday

(Photo by Kennell-Elia)

Mrs. Guy Hill Stoddard, formerly Lucie McCormick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ford McCormick, was married in impressive ceremony Saturday morning.

Madge Kunzman Married In Westwood Church

On Friday afternoon, June 10 in the picturesque community church in Westwood village, the marriage of Miss Madge Kunzman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kunzman of this city and Dr. Ewayne Gulbranson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor C. Gulbranson of Hollywood, Calif., was solemnized.

Miss Helen Riggs of Clovis, Calif., was maid of honor and Dr. Winston Chappell, a fraternity brother of the groom, acted as best man.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Riggs played, "I Love You Truly" and "The Bear Dance." The bride, who was accompanied to the altar by her aunt, Mrs. Virginia Carver Young of Los Angeles, Calif., looked lovely in a dress of rosewood crepe romaine and matching accessories.

After a brief wedding trip to San Diego and Mexico, the young couple will be at home at 1247 A. 16th street, Santa Monica, Calif.

Mrs. DeRoos Honors Aunt

Mrs. Louis E. DeRoos entertained Wednesday afternoon with a party at her home on South Oakdale avenue in honor of her aunt, Mrs. George L. Hurd of Portland.

Desert bridge was enjoyed by the following guests: Mrs. Hurd, Mrs. R. N. Carter, Mrs. Richard H. Todd, Jr., Mrs. R. B. Allen, Mrs. A. L. Beck, Mrs. Russell Acheson, and Miss Vera Humphrey.

Miss Kelly Returns From Portland Trip

Miss Marjorie Kelly has returned to the city after spending a vacation in Portland as guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Kelly. She was accompanied to Medford by Bernard and Noreen Kelly, who will be guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kelly, for several weeks.

Inez Oakes Bride Of Mr. Thorndike In Morning Rites

At a simple but impressive ceremony performed Saturday morning at 9 o'clock Miss Inez Oakes was united in marriage to Eugene Thorndike.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Karl L. Janouch on East Main street. The couple spoke their vows in front of the fireplace which was beautifully banked with ferns and flowers of white, blue and pink.

Bouquets of flowers of the same shades were also about the rooms. Pale pink tapers in candelabra on the mantle cast soft rays of light for the setting. The Rev. Joseph Knotts of the Methodist Episcopal church read the service.

The bride was attired in a navy blue crepe afternoon dress with a bolero and wide belt of pale aqua marine crepe. She carried a lovely bouquet of talaman rose, sweetheart roses and baby breath. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Janouch.

Only a few close friends and relatives were present at the service and the wedding breakfast which followed.

The table was attractive with appointments of crystal and silver on a white lace cloth. The centerpiece was a cake surrounded with mock orange blossoms in a stemmed talaria plate. Pink candles were on each side.

Following the breakfast the couple left for a wedding trip to southern California. They will make their home in this city at 617 Dakota avenue.

Prior to their wedding the couple were feted at several enjoyable affairs. Among those entertaining for them were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosenberg, Mrs. T. B. Morris and Mrs. E. W. Simmons.

Mrs. Thorndike is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Oakes of Broken Bow, Nebraska. She has recently resided in Tulsa, Oklahoma, where she held a position with the Mid-Continent Petroleum corporation. She came to Medford last year to make her home with her sister and has been employed with the California Oregon Power company.

Mr. Thorndike is the manager of the Medford branch of the First National Bank of Portland and is very well known in Medford and vicinity. He is president of the chamber of commerce and active in other civic organizations.

Two Visit In Portland Miss Dorothy Haynes and Miss Jewell O'Neal are visiting in Portland over the week-end with relatives and friends.

Delzell-Savage Wedding Service Read Saturday

Miss Jennie Delzell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Delzell of Portland, became the bride of Harold Savage, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Savage of Fresno, Calif., Saturday at St. Mark's Episcopal church at a beautiful 4 o'clock ceremony. Father E. S. Bartlam officiated with the ring service.

The bride was lovely in an ivory satin gown, fashioned in princess style with Elizabethan sleeves, a collette of seed pearls and a long train. Fastened to a coronet cap of white lace, trimmed in lilies of the valley, was a full length veil of tulle which fell in soft folds over the train.

Her shower bouquet in which orchids formed the nucleus was of rosebuds, lilies of the valley and sweetpeas.

Mrs. James Busch, sorority sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a turquoise blue taffeta gown with bolero jacket, a sash of yellow with braided turquoise velvet turban. She carried a bouquet of varied hues of yellow.

The bride's little niece, Nancy Jean Newbury was prettily gowned in a long yellow organza bouffant dress with sash of turquoise ribbon. She wore a crown of braided turquoise ribbon with tallman rosebuds intermingled. She carried a colonial nosegay of pastel shades.

Miss Caryl Delzell, also a niece of the bride, lighted the altar candles. She wore a long white net dress of princess style and pastel flowers in her hair.

The church was decorated with gladioli of ice blue and coral and delphinium. White flowers and white tapers in candelabra formed the altar decorations.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Virginia West sang "Because."

The bride, escorted by her father, followed the bridal procession slowly down the aisle to the rhythm of Mendelssohn's wedding march played on the organ by Miss Virginia Fick.

While the couple were exchanging their vows, "To a Wild Rose" was played softly by Miss Fick.

Jack Savage acted as his brother's best man. Ushers were the bride's two brothers, John Delzell, Charles Delzell and William Delzell, Jr., her cousin, Russell Davis and James Busch, Dr. Dwight H. Pindley.

Mrs. Delzell, mother of the bride, wore a floor length gown of hyacinth blue lace, navy crepe hat, pink accessories and a corsage predominating in pink.

Mrs. Savage, mother of the bridegroom, was becoming in a gown of beige lace, a leghorn hat with yellow flowers and a matching corsage.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Don Newbury, was dressed in a gown of white lace with cape-sleeved jacket and a semi-train, a powder-blue hat trimmed with a pale pink veil and blue and pink flowers on the crown. Her corsage was of pink and blue.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Newbury on Wood Drive. The table was beautifully appointed with a cluny lace cloth, silver and white service and an all white centerpiece of lilies of the valley, sweetpeas, larkspur and delphinium. White candles were on either side. The traditional tiered wedding cake was on a separate table.

Rooms were decorated in pastel shades of summer flowers.

Presiding alternately at the tea table were Mrs. Oscar Shive and Mrs. C. I. Roberts, the bride's aunts from Klamath Falls, Mrs. Thomas Delzell, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. J. A. Maddox, also an aunt. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Virginia Fick, Mrs. John Delzell, Mrs. Dwight H. Pindley, Mrs. Lawrence Shaw and Mrs. William M. McAllister.

Mr. and Mrs. Savage departed following the reception for a wedding trip down the coast.

Mrs. Savage is a graduate of the University of Oregon, a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She has been teaching school in Klamath Falls the past several years.

Mr. Savage attended the University of California and is affiliated with the Sigma Chi fraternity. The couple will make their home in Pravoct, Arizona, where Mr. Savage is in business.

Among out-of-town guests attending the wedding were the bridegroom's mother and father, his brothers, William and John and his sister, Miss Eleanor Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shive, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Shaw, all of Klamath Falls.

China is roughly divided into a wheat-eating population, north of the Yangtze river, and a rice-eating population south of that great waterway.

"WED-LOK" ensemble

The new diamond engagement ring and wedding ring that FIT EACH OTHER, embrace each other, and INTERLOCK in a manner that holds them BEAUTIFULLY in position... sensational new idea.

LARRY SCHADE

B.P.W. President

(Photo by Shangle) Jacquie Lenox, new Business and Professional Women's club president. Installed in office at Tuesday evening banquet.

Brilliant Banquet Marks Installation Of BPW Officers

The Business and Professional Women's club of Medford held its annual installation banquet Tuesday evening at Ernie's Casino on the Rogue river.

A flag day motif was cleverly carried out in the banquet table decorations with a beautiful bowl of red roses forming the centerpiece. Tiny flags in gum drop holders and white place cards completed the appointments.

Joan Garman ably presided as toastmistress and gave a brief talk on the flag after which the 34 members and two guests present saluted the flag.

Reports of the state convention which was held in McMinnville on June 10, 11 and 12, were presented by Maude Snider, Helen Parish, Florence Weisner, Bernice Sears, and Viola Scherrer. Mabel Mack, state program chairman during the past year, was elected to the office of second vice-president for the state at the convention.

Maude Snider was presented with a business and Professional Women's pin by the club in recognition of the splendid work she accomplished during the year as president.

Mabel Mack, who is leaving soon for Cornell university to attend the summer session, was given a handsome bon voyage gift by club members.

Jacquie Lenox was installed as president for the year 1938-1939. Other officers installed for the coming year were: Viola Scherrer, vice-president; Bernice Sears, recording secretary; Rose Huston, corresponding secretary; Geraldine Latham, treasurer; and Eva Judd, auditor. New directors are Maude Snider, Winnie Weishaar, Helen Parish and Mabel Mack.

Retiring officers were presented with beautiful corsages in appreciation of their work the past year.

Mrs. Lenox adjourned the session with the appointment of various committee chairmen for the ensuing C. I. Roberts, the bride's aunts from Klamath Falls, Mrs. Thomas Delzell, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. J. A. Maddox, also an aunt. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Virginia Fick, Mrs. John Delzell, Mrs. Dwight H. Pindley, Mrs. Lawrence Shaw and Mrs. William M. McAllister.

Mr. and Mrs. Savage departed following the reception for a wedding trip down the coast.

Mrs. Savage is a graduate of the University of Oregon, a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She has been teaching school in Klamath Falls the past several years.

Mr. Savage attended the University of California and is affiliated with the Sigma Chi fraternity. The couple will make their home in Pravoct, Arizona, where Mr. Savage is in business.

Among out-of-town guests attending the wedding were the bridegroom's mother and father, his brothers, William and John and his sister, Miss Eleanor Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shive, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Shaw, all of Klamath Falls.

Miss Ruth Hedges Back From School

Miss Ruth Hedges, daughter of Dr. A. R. and Louise Hedges, arrived in Medford recently to spend the summer at her home here.

Miss Hedges has been attending Cortley Junior college at Nevada, Miss., during the past year. She was awarded a scholarship to this college for young women by the Oregon state P. E. O. chapter. Oregon is one of the 31 states represented at the college.

Before returning to Medford, Miss Hedges visited with relatives in Kansas and Missouri.

Christensons Have Golden Wedding Anniversary Party

History relates that the majority of brides pick the month of June for their weddings. Numerous beautiful weddings have taken place already this month and many more will be solemnized before the end of June.

On June 16, 1888 a young couple drove in a horse and buggy twenty miles to be married in Scott City, Kansas, they were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christenson who Wednesday celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home on North Peach street.

Many friends called between the hours of 2:30 to 5 o'clock, for an open house party with Mr. and Mrs. Christenson as honored guests and their daughters, Mrs. Maynard Bush and Mrs. L. E. Ackley as hostesses. Assisting them were Mrs. Harold Larsen and Mrs. Frank Gray.

The bridal couple of fifty years ago were married a second time when the Rev. Joseph Knotts performed the ceremony which united them for another fifty years.

Decorations of white canterbury bells, gold coveopsis and mock orange blossoms formed the attractive table centerpiece. The bride cut the first slice from the large white and gold wedding cake and served the groom, after which guests enjoyed delectable refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Christenson came to Oregon many years ago from Kansas and then returned. Recently they came back to Medford and will continue to make their home here.

Music by Price's orchestra added to the festivities of the anniversary observance during the afternoon. Mrs. Effie H. Kurts was heard in several musical numbers and Lawrence Hubert played the violin. Chester Y. Woods played the cello.

Mr. and Mrs. Christenson received many beautiful anniversary gifts and numerous bouquets of flowers from their friends in the valley.

Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Al Piche, the Rev. Knotts, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cully, Dorothy Cully, Margaret Cully, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gile, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hitzler, Mrs. Charles Holloway, Weisner, Bernice Sears, and Viola Scherrer. Mabel Mack, state program chairman during the past year, was elected to the office of second vice-president for the state at the convention.

Maude Snider was presented with a business and Professional Women's pin by the club in recognition of the splendid work she accomplished during the year as president.

Mabel Mack, who is leaving soon for Cornell university to attend the summer session, was given a handsome bon voyage gift by club members.

Jacquie Lenox was installed as president for the year 1938-1939. Other officers installed for the coming year were: Viola Scherrer, vice-president; Bernice Sears, recording secretary; Rose Huston, corresponding secretary; Geraldine Latham, treasurer; and Eva Judd, auditor. New directors are Maude Snider, Winnie Weishaar, Helen Parish and Mabel Mack.

Retiring officers were presented with beautiful corsages in appreciation of their work the past year.

Mrs. Lenox adjourned the session with the appointment of various committee chairmen for the ensuing C. I. Roberts, the bride's aunts from Klamath Falls, Mrs. Thomas Delzell, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. J. A. Maddox, also an aunt. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Virginia Fick, Mrs. John Delzell, Mrs. Dwight H. Pindley, Mrs. Lawrence Shaw and Mrs. William M. McAllister.

Mr. and Mrs. Savage departed following the reception for a wedding trip down the coast.

Mrs. Savage is a graduate of the University of Oregon, a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She has been teaching school in Klamath Falls the past several years.

Mr. Savage attended the University of California and is affiliated with the Sigma Chi fraternity. The couple will make their home in Pravoct, Arizona, where Mr. Savage is in business.

Among out-of-town guests attending the wedding were the bridegroom's mother and father, his brothers, William and John and his sister, Miss Eleanor Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shive, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Shaw, all of Klamath Falls.

Barnes Home Scene Breakfast Series

Mrs. B. L. Lagerson, Mrs. W. H. Fluhrer and Mrs. Ernest Barnes were joint hostesses to a series of delightful parties held at the Barnes home on East Main street.

On Wednesday and Thursday mornings 36 guests were invited for breakfast which was followed by afternoon bridge.

Breakfast was served on small tables which were prettily decorated with garden flowers, as were the rooms.

McMinnville Guests Here

Mrs. James H. Adamson and daughter Jean of McMinnville, Ore., have been visiting this week at the home of Mrs. Adamson's mother, Mrs. George Lawnsbach on South Oakdale avenue.

The visitors plan to return to McMinnville Monday or Tuesday.

The plan of Washington, D. C. was made in 1791 by Pierre Charles L'Enfant, a French engineer, under the direction of George Washington.

Following morning at 10 a. m. a six-lecture series, entitled "Christward - Together" will begin. These lectures will be conducted out of doors. Register at Guild Hall, close of opening lecture.

Free Will Love Offering

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christenson, who Wednesday celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their Peach street home.

Tea At Gilstrap Home Honors Visiting Women

The Geneva street home of the Ernest Gilstraps was the scene of a delightful tea Friday afternoon.

The affair was given in honor of the visiting women attending the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association convention, held here for the past three days.

Guests called between the hours of 3:30 to 5 o'clock. Mrs. Gilstrap was assisted throughout the afternoon by Mrs. Robert Ruhl and Mrs. Willard Eberhart. Mrs. Herb Gray presided at the tea table which was beautifully arranged with a centerpiece of a mixed bouquet of pastel shades.

Mrs. Ralph Bunn Fetes Utah Visitor Wednesday

Mrs. Ralph W. Bunn was hostess Tuesday afternoon at her home on Summit avenue for a luncheon and bridge party honoring Miss Louise Bell, house guest of her cousin, Mrs. Mark Goldy.

Luncheon was served buffet style, the attractive table centerpiece was composed of purple canterbury bells and yellow coveopsis.

Guests included Miss Bell, Mrs. Goldy, Mrs. E. S. Degman, Mrs. R. C. Mulholland, Mrs. F. C. Dillard, Mrs. Charles Wing, Mrs. Ernest Gilstrap and Mrs. George Henselman.

Mrs. Henselman was recipient of the bridge prize.

Miss Bell departed Thursday for her home in Salt Lake City, Utah, after having visited here for several weeks.

On Wednesday evening at Ernie's Casino on the Rogue river, Mr. and Mrs. Goldy honored Miss Bell with a dinner party. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Henselman and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bunn.

Roberts Hosts For Birthday Dinner

The George M. Roberts home on Crown Hill was the scene of a delightful party Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Roberts were hosts for a birthday dinner.

The occasion celebrated the birthday of Mrs. Gain Robinson and Allyn Monroe, house guest of the Roberts from San Francisco.

Twelve guests enjoyed the affair.

Misses Arnspiger Hostesses for Bridge Party

The Misses Frances and Bertha Arnspiger were hostesses last week for a delightful bridge party at their home on Palm street.

The occasion honored a number of the younger set who are leaving soon for various colleges to attend summer sessions.

Miss Mary Jarvie Thompson, Miss Ruth Ottoman and Miss Laura Pasturino are all planning on attending University of California. Miss Marjorie Mulholland will attend the University of Oregon summer school and Miss Betty Paske will go to Portland to enter the University of Oregon Medical school.

Besides the honored guests, those present were: The Misses Marion and Connie Moore, Winnifred Roseborough, Ona De Hendrickson, Virginia Hammond and Harriet Smith of Ashland. Miss Pasturino won first bridge prize.

Refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the evening.

Miss Billings Visits Here Miss Vera Billings of Grants Pass is the guest of Miss Vera Humphrey at her home on Cottage street over the week end.

(Continued on Page Five)

The Island of Anak Krakatau, in the Dutch East Indies, disappeared beneath the sea August 9, 1930, during a volcanic eruption. Previously it had a height of 170 feet.

We Take Charge of all arrangements down to the smallest details; with unprecedented simplicity and which is the result of past experience.

LADY ATTENDANT

PERL Funeral Home John A. & Frank Perl Ambulance Service Phone 47

It makes you feel grand . . .

When tired, in a "low" mood and in need of a lift, reach for your bottle of Quinlan Cologne. The scent of the clean, refreshing cologne soothes tired, taut nerves and the magic of the glorious Flowers of Rain or Rhythm perfume wafts you into an Elysian garden full of delightfully fragrant flowers. Learn to know Quinlan Cologne for, like an old friend, it wears well.

Flowers of Rain Cologne $1.25 - - - - - $2.00 Rhythm Cologne $1.50 - - - - - $2.50

MANN'S TOILETRIES SECTION

Flower and Lawrence Newhouse to conduct CHRISTWARD LECTURE SERIES

Christian Mystic in Public Lecture at Guild Hall, Sunday June 26, 8 p. m.

"New Perspectives and Evaluations"

Following morning at 10 a. m. a six-lecture series, entitled "Christward - Together" will begin. These lectures will be conducted out of doors. Register at Guild Hall, close of opening lecture.

Free Will Love Offering

Father's Day

Sons and Daughters, give Dad a treat. Why not take him to the

La Tosca for Dinner

May we have your reservation for Father's Day? Phone 341-J.S. MARY and AL

Card Readings Madame A. Mueller Honesty and Hellfire with best of references Readings $1.00 723 Sherman Street Phone 965-4-1