Group Returns From Grand OES Chapter Session

Reames chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will convene Thursday evening. Initiation and the report of grand chapter will be given by the worthy matron, Mrs. Zenda Sanders.

Light refreshments will be served in the recreation parlor. A good attendance is desired as this is the final meeting before the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson, Mrs. Nellie McGowan, Miss Gertrude Weeks and Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Sanders recently returned from Portland, where they were attending the grand chapter of O. E. S. the past week.

Mr. Wilson, past worshipful grand master of Oregon, and Dr. Sanders, worshipful master of Medford lodge No. 103, attended the grand lodge of A. F. and A. M.

Mrs. E. Stanton Visits Robinsons

Mrs. Edwin Stanton of Los Angeles, Calif., arrived in Medford this morning and will spend several weeks vacationing.

Mrs. Stanton is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gain Robinson at their home on South Holly street. She has been a frequent and popular visitor in this city. During her stay she will be the inspiration for numerous social events.

Seattle Guests At Shell Home

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Dawson and daughter of Seattle and Mr. G. E. Dawson of Paisley are guests of Mrs. S. S. Shell at her home on North Oakdale avenue.

Mrs. Shell is the sister of the Dawsons. Mrs. C. M. Dawson, Mrs. Shell's mother of Seattle, and Mr. F. E. Bateman are also visiting here.

Mrs. Shell entertained recently with a dinner party honoring the guests.

Mistletoe Club Meets Tomorrow

Mistletoe club will convene Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pearl Miller on Stewart Lane.

A covered dish luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock.

Hoot, Sandy, sometimes Waste makes Haste

AS WASTE, gasoline ranked with sawdust and the slogans of Bryan's next campaign that day in 1903 when it made possible the airplane flight of the Wright brothers at Kitty Hawk and speed travel through the air began.

Today another lowly product—a stepchild of the refining process—promises to revolutionize airplane possibilities by increasing the pay-load of airplanes approximately 40 per cent.

When fuel oil is "cracked" to make gasoline it gives off several gases—including one called butene. Butene did little good for itself or anybody else until chemists—smart lads—discovered that when processed into something totally different and combined with gasoline it produced a fuel which fairly dripped iso-octane.

Now iso-octane is the "it" of gasoline—the item which makes internal combustion engines get up and go places. It's condensed power.

This new synthetic gasoline means an airplane need not carry so much weight in fuel to develop the same horsepower in its motors. Instead it can carry more passengers—more express—more pay-load. So Standard Oil is spending $2,250,000 at its Richmond, California, plant for elaborate equipment to produce it.

Women's Relief Corps Observes Anniversary Day

A very interesting meeting of the Chester A. Arthur, Women's Relief Corps, was held Thursday afternoon in the armory. The session was in observance of the 46th anniversary of its institution.

Mrs. Sarah Andrus, the only charter member now belonging to the corps, presented an instructive history of its organization. Medford corps was instituted by Ashland corps June 30, 1892, with 10 charter members. Mrs. Nannie Wolf was the first president.

Mrs. Andrus was presented with flowers and a handsome gift. Flowers were also given to the following who have long been members: Mrs. Tedella Woods, Mrs. Margaret Fisher, Mrs. A. Elison and Mrs. Carrie Lyman.

The Rev. J. M. Hamilton showed pictures of the Relief Corps home in Cromwell, Conn., and other pictures of historical interest in New England.

Flag Day was also observed during the session. Mrs. Belle Littrell presented "Flag of My Country," by F. A. Daly. Through the courtesy of Mrs. John White, one of the oldest flags in the valley was on display. The flag was formerly owned by Roger Evan Reames, uncle of Mrs. White and Senator A. Evan Reames, and was carried during the Indian wars in Oregon.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

Former Resident Marries In Reno

A marriage of interest to many local residents is that of Miss Gwen Martin, daughter of Mr. Stanley Martin of Bieber, to Earl Oliver, son of Mrs. Clara Oliver.

The couple were married at a quiet ceremony in Reno, Nev., on June 10. After a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe they will make their home in Nubler.

Mr. Oliver formerly lived in Medford, where he attended Medford high school and was a popular member of the school set.

Mrs. Clara Oliver of Nubler is the house guest of Mrs. C. H. Davis at her home on South Oakdale avenue. She will visit here some time before continuing east for an extended stay with friends and relatives.

Iversons Home From Assembly

The Rev. and Mrs. Engvid Iverson returned to their home on Ross Court Saturday following a five weeks' vacation.

The couple attended the general assembly of Presbyterian Churches in the United States of America in Philadelphia. They also visited in New York and spent ten days in Wisconsin visiting Mrs. Iverson's two sisters.

Mrs. Iverson's sisters will arrive in Medford next week for a visit.

Guests Visit Elliott Farm

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Elliott of The Dalles were week-end guests of Dr. B. R. Elliott at the Elliott farm.

The visitors were en route home from Klamath Falls, where they were delegates to the state Orange session. Dr. Elliott and Mr. Elliott are brothers.

Warner Home Scene of Meet

Mrs. E. N. Warner and Mrs. M. T. Bobbers entertained the members of the S. O. S. Bible class of the First Baptist church at the home of Mrs. Warner on Palm street.

Devotionals were given by Miss Iris Swartz of the Los Angeles Bible Institute. Twenty-three guests were present. After the meeting, refreshments were served.

Los Angeles Visitor Here

Mrs. Howard Cloyes of Los Angeles, Calif., recently arrived in Medford and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Tucker, at her home on Orchard Home Drive. Mrs. Cloyes is a retouch artist with a studio in Hollywood. She plans to make trips to Crater Lake and other scenic wonders of Oregon during her stay of a week.

Auto Plunge Fatal
MOSIER, June 21.—(AP)—A 75-foot plunge from the narrow Mosier creek road in an automobile brought death yesterday to S. B. Turnbull, 56, of Hood River. Darnel Warner, 17, Turnbull's companion, was only slightly hurt.

FOREST FIRE EVILS VIVIDLY SET FORTH IN COLLIER'S STORY

Roque River national forest headquarters today called the public's attention to an article on forest fires published in the current, June 25, issue of Collier's weekly.

With vivid phrases that crackle like a flaming pine tree, the article was written by Corey Ford and Alastair MacBain. Titled "Hell and High Timber," it dramatically tells the story of forest fires, their wanton destruction of property and life and their suppression by forest service and assisting personnel.

Having read the article last night, Karl L. Janouch, forest supervisor, was so impressed with its importance to the public that he telephoned a message today to Medford headquarters from Lake o' Woods to place six copies of the magazine at the city library for the benefit of readers.

"I cannot urge the public too strongly to read the article," Mr. Janouch said. "Reading it is almost a public duty."

The six extra copies of the magazine were placed in the library this afternoon.

LEGION ACTIVITIES ON AGENDA TONIGHT

Reports of the various youth activities of the local American Legion post will be heard at tonight's meeting at 8 o'clock in the Legion rooms at the Armory. Included on the agenda will be reports of the Junior baseball, junior rifle club, Beaver Boys' state and the Boy Scout committees. Youth activities constitute one of the most important objectives of Medford Post No. 15 this year and every member is urged to be present to hear what excellent progress has been made along these lines.

Nominations for officers to lead the local post during the coming year also will be on the schedule and some interesting developments are looked for. All visiting Legionnaires are cordially invited.

Equestrians Plan Lake O' Woods Trip

Under direction of Mrs. Dodge, riding academy owner, several young people of the valley are planning an excursion to Lake o' Woods. Although a definite date has not been settled, the trip is assured for the near future.

The entire trip will be made on horseback and will require from six to eight days.

There are still a number of horses left and anyone wishing to make the trip may call 836-R to secure further details.

Fears Foreign Ideas
BEND, June 21.—(AP)—The Rev. Perry Smith, wartime aviator and past national chaplain of the disabled American veterans, told delegates to a state convention yesterday that "I'm not afraid of their (European nations) bombing planes or their guns, but I am afraid of their ideas."
