RIFT IS RUMORED BETWEEN BARBARA AND DANISH MATE

Countess Granted Court Order to Safeguard Two-Year-Old Son — London Mansion Closely Guarded

LONDON, June 22.—(AP)—A British court's action in granting Countess Barbara Hutton Haugwitz-Reventlow's request for a legal order presumably safeguarding her two-year-old son Lance tonight gave rise to rumors of a rift with her Danish nobleman husband.

The nature of the court order was not revealed, and the rumors were based on the fact that the count had been absent from London since his preceptible departure two weeks ago.

He was reported to be somewhere on the continent, but friends said they did not know his exact whereabouts.

Attorneys for the countess said a statement could not be made at present because of "legal reasons."

Countess In Court Accompanied by Sir Patrick Hastings, one of Britain's best known attorneys, the countess visited the Bow street court to make her application.

The court order was granted in a private sitting with the magistrate, after reports had circulated the countess had received a letter she considered threatening to the safety of her baby.

Silent guards watched the stately mansion of the Haugwitz-Reventlows from behind locked gates. The countess merely said she had taken "certain precautions" to guard the child, two-year-old Count Lance Haugwitz-Reventlow, London's wealthiest baby, against a reported threat.

She was understood to have remained only 2 1/2 hours today.

Ports Guarded Scotland yard was said to have posted guards at all ports and airfields to watch for the arrival from abroad of a "suspected person."

Officials were said to have photographs and a full description of the main gates of the Woolworth heiress' new home were locked. Several plainclothesmen patrolled the grounds and tradesmen were admitted only if they could show credentials.

Despite the precautions, however, a nurse wheeled the 9-month, sandy-haired baby around the grounds in his big, black carriage during the morning.

Scotland yard authorities said they had provided no special guards or other protection and disclaimed knowledge of a kidnap threat. An official said he had no "confirmation" that police had been mobilized but he did not directly deny the report.

Grandparents of Anna Shipley Ross were the Hoffman family who were also pioneers, her mother being the sister of the late Mrs. C. C. Beckman, all well known and highly esteemed in Jackson county.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Peril funeral home Thursday, June 23, at 2 p. m. Reverend Father E. S. Bartram, rector of Saint Mark's Episcopal church officiating. Interment will be in the Jacksonville cemetery.

Pallbearers will be W. H. Norcross, S. Hamilton, John Hessegrave, Henry Laury, Guy Tex. L. Hatfield, Fred Wilkey, W. J. Freeman and Thomas Stanley.

"They will be done—Sweet be the sleep that rests with June."

Griffith, "The Singing Evangelist," when he became pastor of the Nazarene church at Oroville. Her husband was in North Dakota conducting a series of camp meetings at the time of her death.

Besides her husband, she is survived by five children and her sister, Mrs. Larena Robinson of Eagle Point, who attended the funeral.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—(AP)—The public works administration began its 1938 spending-lending program today with allotments of $41,632,717 in grants and $9,021,000 of loans for 291 projects.

Howard A. Fray, assistant administrator, said the 291 projects would involve $92,520,574 of construction. The grants were for 45 per cent of the cost and the loans for 55 per cent. The difference between the total of loans and grants and total of construction cost, Fray said, would be made up by the applications.

Six grants fell in the million dollar class but the vast majority were from a few thousand to as much as a half million.

Allotments included: Albany, Ore., courthouse, $163,000; Corvallis, Ore., chemistry bldg., $135,000 grant, $185,000 loans; Reedsport, Ore., school, $7,413; Vale, Ore., municipal building, $3,400; Marshfield, Ore., bridge $41,171.

The grants had been approved by President Roosevelt even before he signed the $3,750,000,000 spending-lending bill last year at Hyde Park, N. Y. His pen strokes were the signal for PWA and all federal spending agencies to swing into action with their programs, details of which have been ready for weeks.

PWA construction work will be allocated daily until 2,000 projects will have been made public Friday night. The bulk is expected to be non-federal projects on which the government will advance grants for 45 per cent of the cost and the applicants will put up the other 55 per cent.

HYDE PARK, N. Y., June 22.—(AP)—President Roosevelt threw into gear today a $3,750,000,000 machine designed to prime commerce and aid the needy, asserting as he acted that industry and agriculture already are improved.

Business—and he included farming in the term—is not and has not been as bad as a lot of people believed it to be, the president said. He gave these views to the nation at a press conference in the warm, little study of his Hyde Park home. News correspondents, crowding close
