LIBERTY BUILDING TRADED BY PIPES FOR L. A. PROPERTY

Residence and Summer Cabin Also Involved in Transaction; Mr. and Mrs. Pipes to Reside in L. A.

A transaction involving real estate valued at $100,000 was announced today by Alfred W. Pipes, owner of the Liberty building at Main and Grape streets, in which the four-story brick business structure, one of the finest in the city, was exchanged for the 60-apartment Monte Vista Arms in Los Angeles, owned by James T. Hall, a retired attorney. It is one of the largest real estate deals consummated in Medford in years.

In addition to the exchange of business properties, Mr. Pipes stated that he and Mr. Hall had traded their respective homes in Medford and Los Angeles, and that he had sold the California man his summer cabin in Edgewood park on Rogue river.

Mr. Hall, with his wife and two children, will arrive in Medford July 1 to take over ownership and management of the Liberty building. Mr. and Mrs. Pipes will leave for Los Angeles at the same time to make their new home.

Deal Long Pending

Mr. Pipes, who recently returned from Los Angeles where he spent two weeks investigating the property there, said the deal had been pending for about two months, and that both he and Mr. Hall were completely satisfied with the exchange. Mr. Hall was in Medford in May examining the property here.

The Monte Vista Arms, located at Avenue 53 and Monte Vista street in the Highland Park section of Los Angeles, was described by Mr. Pipes as being one of the better apartment

COURT PONDERES PLACING BAN ON SPY RING STORY

Government Would Restrain Former Federal Agent From Writing of Activities While Still Going On

NEW YORK, June 23.—(AP)—Federal Judge Murray Hulbert reserved decision today on the government's application for an order restraining the New York Post from publishing the "inside" story of the espionage investigation.

The articles, which were to have started today, were written by Leon G. Tarron, former special agent of the department of justice who was the chief investigator in the case.

The argument before Judge Hulbert dealt principally with the question of whether the Post was entitled, under the free press provisions of the constitution, to publish the series while the investigation still was in progress.

Tarron declared he had "signed confessions" from four indicted spy suspects now in custody.

"They are self-confessed spies and they have already involved many other," he said. The four defendants pleaded innocent to espionage charges yesterday.

Tarron issued his statement in a corridor of the federal building just before a hearing started on an order to restrain the New York Post from publishing a series of articles written by Tarron.

The articles were advertised as the "authentic inside story behind the 7. S. grand jury indictments of 14 German officials."

United States Attorney Lamar Hardy obtained the order yesterday, on the eve of the scheduled publication of the first of the articles, requiring the Post to show cause why it should not be restrained from printing them.

PILOT ROCK HIT BY CLOUDBURST; MUD CLOGS CITY

$100,000 Damage Estimated—Hotel Complete Loss—Telephoned Warning Enables All to Leave

PILOT ROCK, Ore., June 23.—(AP)—Thankful that no lives were lost and that the town's treasury contains $1200 to finance cleanup work, Pilot Rock today was digging its way out of a sea of mud, the aftermath of the cloudburst which yesterday afternoon hit this town of 300.

Early estimates of $100,000 damage appeared to be adequate. Ten of the business houses on the main street, which bore the brunt of the torrent, today reported total damages of $31,800. Hardest hit was the Carnes Brothers' store, damage being estimated at $10,000.

Hotel Ruined

The Pilot Rock hotel was said to be a complete loss, although no damage estimate was given. The hotel had been taken over only last week by Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Fredenburg, formerly of Pendleton.

Damage to residences is expected to bring the total loss to the $100,000 figure. A whim of the flood waters moved the Byron Crowley residence a block without disarranging furniture inside. Another home was turned around on its foundations without loss.

Mr. and Mrs. William Easley and baby son were rescued from the flood waters by the only rowboat in town. Mrs. William Matthews, confined to a wheelchair, was moved from her home by rescuers.

The city water supply, flooded out yesterday, was back in service today. The reservoir, on a nearby hill, was not damaged and the water was free from contamination.

Warning Clears Town

Yesterday's flood swept off rolling wheat lands in the wake of torrential rains and a cloudburst and smashed homes and bridges.

A telephone warning by Hans Nielson, East Creek rancher, to "Run for your lives, there's a flood on the way," cleared the village and prevented loss of life or injury. Elsie Gilliland, telephone operator, evacuated the town in less than 30 minutes.

Water rushed breast deep through streets and stores.

An eye-witness, Mrs. Richard Richardson, Pendleton, said the townspeople, already enduring two feet of water on the main street from a heavy rain, "rushed up the hill on the west side of town."

"We could see a torrent of water rushing down the East Birch creek channel," she said. "A three-room house was wrenched from its foundations and torn apart by the water after being carried a block. The roar of the water was augmented by the crashing of debris against other buildings."

HAVRE, Mont., June 23.—(AP)—One man was drowned in cloudburst fed floods that swept over northern Montana yesterday, washing out sections of railroad tracks and highways and damaging homes and crops.

The rain, late yesterday and today, brought floods to Zurich, Laredo, Havre and Fairfield and lesser amounts to the Great Falls area, Shelby, Augusta, Bole and Chook. In southern Montana Butte, Livingston and other points experienced hard rains.

KNOCK OUT PUNCHES SEND SCHMELING TO HOSPITAL

German Easy Mark After Receiving First Right Hand Punch to Body—Was Shortest Title Bout

$2,590 Per Second

NEW YORK, June 23.—(AP)—Counting the $75,000 receipts gained from movie and radio rights, the Joe Louis-Max Schmeling heavyweight championship fight last night totalled just over the million dollar mark.

Total gross receipts were $1,015,096.17. Gross ticket sales totaled $980,096.17 with the net rate at $803,113. Gross attendance was 72,000, paid $8,227. Louis received 40 per cent and Schmeling 20 per cent of the net of $30,113.

The federal tax totaled $89,899.57 as against $47,093.66 received by the state.

Louis received $321,245.20 for his two minutes and four seconds of work or approximately $2,590 per second. Schmeling received $160,822.60 or just half of the champion's share.

BARKLEY BRINGS HOME HEAVY APPROPRIATIONS

RIG BUSINESS, MACHINE BACK CHANDLER LAVISHLY

BETTING NOW 5 TO 4 ON SENATE LEADER

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, majority leader of the United States senate, is an amiable, pompous, rather muddled-headed person, with a taste for barber shop song and an engaging habit of telephoning Jimmy when in doubt. Yet, although his capacities are limited and his record is uninteresting, he has a talent for bringing home the bacon.

In the recent session of congress the senator obtained two prime pieces of pork for Kentucky—a $112,000,000 TVA dam at Gilbertsville and $132,700,000 worth of flood control projects. Under his beneficent influence, the emergency agencies—WPA, PWA, CCC and the U. S. housing authority—plan to spend around $60,000,000 in Kentucky in the next 12 months.

New Kentucky postoffices will come to $1,500,000. Kentucky farm benefits checks are unpredictable but sure to be handsome. And Kentucky's share in the ordinary expenses of government cannot be calculated.

The wildernesses of federal finance are hard to penetrate, but with the important exceptions already noted, a fair sized estimate of the value of federal bacon brought home by the senator is $306,000,000. As that comes to $107 for every man, woman and child in Kentucky, it must be admitted that the senator has done well.

These dry and somewhat forbidding figures are worth recording at the moment, because the senator is now engaged in a primary contest with Gov. A. B. ("Happy") Chandler. As the senator is the hand-picked representative of the White House the whole prestige of the New Deal depends on his victory.

The choice confronting the Kentucky voters is not an appetizing one. On the one hand is the senator—not a man to get excited about at the best of times. And on the other is the governor, a hard-boiled, loud-mouthed, glad-handing politician, in the trash and loquacious tradition of southern demagogues. The voters of Kentucky are not to be blamed if they choose the candidate who bids the highest.

The governor has got his slate marked

NEGROES CELEBRATE LOUIS VICTORY WITH NIGHT OF DISORDER

CLEVELAND, June 23.—(AP)—A melee in Cleveland's negro sector, touched off by Joe Louis' ring victory, left in its wake today scores of injured, including a 15-year old negro boy who was seriously wounded by a police bullet.

Patrolman Edward Wolf, who fired the shot while a jubilant mob stoned a stalled street car, received a possible skull fracture when struck by missiles. Three other officers were injured by flying stones.

A victory-mad crowd estimated by police at 10,000 surged through "dark-towns" shattering street car and store windows until frantic officers released tear gas bombs to restore order.

Two children, aged 15 and 16, were injured when the dusky throng hurled stones into cars on which they were passengers.

FLORENCE, Ariz., June 23.—(AP)—A free-for-all row among white and negro inmates of the Arizona penitentiary following a radio broadcast of the Louis-Schmeling fight, resulted in the possible fatal wounding of one negro and the "terrific beating" of another last night.

Coffey Will Quit As S. P. Surgeon

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—(AP)—Dr. W. B. Coffey of San Francisco, chief surgeon and manager of the Southern Pacific's hospital department, will retire July 1 after more than 42 years of continuous service with the railroad, Southern Pacific headquarters here said today.

The announcement said Dr. Coffey would be succeeded by Dr. C. A. Walker, a veteran of 32 years with the line and supervisor of surgical service at the company's general hospital here.

SAMS VALLEY YOUTHS SOUGHT FOR ASSAULT UPON STATE TROOPER

A warrant was issued today for arrest of John Doe Bishop, and Richard Roe Bishop, Sams Valley youths, for alleged assault and battery upon State Policeman Paul E. Williams, late Monday afternoon. The complaint was signed by Williams, who has the warrant for service.

According to the authorities, Trooper Williams was struck in the mouth by one of the youths and suffered a cut on the inner side of the lip. Bishop came to his brother's assistance, and held the trooper. The pair then fled ignoring demands to halt and submit to arrest.

The alleged assault took place while the state policeman was on a tour of the Sams Valley district. One of the accused approached Trooper Williams, and denied he had anything to do with a recent letting of air from auto tires. The blow was allegedly struck, when the officer asked: "How did you know air was let out of any tires?"

State Policeman Williams figured in the chase several months ago of Roy Poole, sought for auto theft, who committed suicide in the Eagle Point district, to avoid arrest.

The Bishops will appear in justice court, when apprehended.

ROOSEVELT TALK ON AIR THURSDAY

HYDE PARK, N. Y., June 23.—(AP)—President Roosevelt arranged things today so he could work long hours on unsigned bills before leaving for Washington.

The chief executive had no appointments prior to his departure for the capital tonight. He will reach the White House tomorrow morning and from the old diplomatic room which has been rigged up for radio broadcasting he will give a fireside talk to the nation.

Writing of that speech may be started before he leaves Hyde Park but the president will have a number of hours to work on it before its delivery at 9:30 p. m. (E.S.T.).

The president's talk will be broadcast by Medford station KMED between 6:30 and 7 p. m., local time.

THUMBED NOSE COSTS WOMAN TERM IN JAIL

CAMDEN, N. J., June 23.—(AP)—The courtroom crowd roared today when a young woman defendant thumbed her nose and stuck out her tongue at the judge.

The young woman fainted when the jurist sent her to jail for six months for contempt of court.

COPCO PAYS JULY 15 ON STOCK ARREARS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—(AP)—California Oregon Power company will pay $1.75 a share on 7 percent stock and $1.50 a share on 6 1/2 percent stock to apply on arrears. Payments will be made to stockholders of record June 30. They will leave the stocks one year in arrears.

Ex-Athletic Champ Dies

KEOKUK, Iowa, June 23.—(AP)—Charles H. Hennema, 72, former world record holder in the discus throw and chief of the Keokuk police department for 12 years, died today.

As a member of the Cherry Circle of Chicago, Hennema established a new world discus mark of 118 feet 9 inches in the national championship in New York in 1897.

SIDE GLANCES

by TRIBUNE REPORTERS

Fire Chief Roy Elliott beaming today on account of drawing Joe Louis for the first round in a little pool, he being unable to give the ticket away before the fight, and Betty Lewis having the last laugh in similar manner.

Countless sportsmen saying "I told you so" albeit they remained silent until after Joe polished off Max.

Russ Adelson arriving home too late to hear the fight broadcast, he expecting to pick up the scrap from the second round on.

Bill Isaacs chasing out to his car every 15 minutes to control a horn short circuit, the racket recurring every time Bill got comfortably settled.

Mail Tribune 'Guess Who' Cash Game Starts Today

If you know who it is, you are off to a good start in the Mail Tribune's "Guess Who" cash prize contest. If you don't know immediately who it is, put on your thinking cap and try to identify this old-time picture of a prominent Medford gentleman. Remember, there is a lot of fun in the game, not to mention the cash awards to the winners.

This is the first of old-time photos to be published in the Mail Tribune. There will be 25 in all, one a day in 25 consecutive issues of the Mail Tribune. The contest is open to everyone excepting Mail Tribune employees and their families.

Get a slip of paper now, write down No. 1 and the name of the person you guess is represented by today's photo on page four. Do this each day for the next 25 days, numbering the names to correspond with the number of the photograph.

On the final day of the contest the Mail Tribune will publish a blank with the total list of numbers, 1 to 25. Fill out this blank, writing the names you have guessed opposite the corresponding numbers. Mail or bring the completed blank to the Mail Tribune, writing thereon your name and address plainly. To guarantee legibility, it is best to typewrite or print your name and address.

It is as simple as that. And to the reader guessing the largest number of correct names will go first prize of $2. The second best guesser will get $1 and the third best $2. In case of ties, the winners will be determined by drawing.

All right now—Guess Who!
