Carpenter Home Scene of Party

At their home on the Old Stage road Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter were hosts for an enjoyable dinner party. The affair was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Edgell of Newport, N. H., and Cambridge, Mass., who are house guests here of Mrs. Corbin Edgell.

Guests included: the G. H. Edgells Mrs. Corbin Edgell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruhl, Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burgess, Mrs. J. J. Emmens, Tom Emmens and E. W. Carlton.

Barbara Sheldon Party Honoree

Miss Alicia Ruhl was hostess this afternoon for a luncheon at the Hotel Medford followed by a theatre party.

Miss Ruhl's guests included a group of Medford debutantes, many of whom are spending the summer months vacationing here with their families.

Guest of honor at the pleasant event was Miss Barbara Sheldon of Los Angeles who is the house guest of Miss Helene Salade, Miss Sheldon formerly resided in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sheldon. Other guests included the Misses Jean and Helene Salade, Deborah Tunny, Charity Hart, Julie Carpenter and her house guest, Polly Scherer of San Francisco, Miss Scherer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scherer, also formerly lived in Medford.

Miss Faulkner Visits Here

Miss Joan Faulkner, a recent visitor in Medford, returned Tuesday to Palo Alto, Calif., where she is attending the summer session at Stanford university.

Miss Faulkner, while in this city was the house guest of Mrs. Bert, Hampson. The two made their acquaintance in Juneau, Alaska several summers ago and this visit marked their first meeting since that time. Miss Faulkner's home is in Juneau.

Walter A. Bacon Guest of Pecks

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Peck have as their house guest, Mr. Walter A. Bacon of Portland.

Mr. Bacon is a well known violin instructor in the northern city. The Pecks entertained for him with a dinner party at the Chateau Monday evening at which time he favored the cafe with several selections on his violin, a rare instrument made in 1900.

Mrs. Prentice On Northern Vacation

Mrs. Harry Prentice left today by motor car for Portland where she will visit friends and relatives for two weeks. Later she will proceed to Seattle for another two weeks' visit.

In both cities, Mrs. Prentice will study advanced accordion courses. On July 4 in Seattle, she will be joined by Mr. Prentice who will visit there a short time.

LAWYERS' SLAYER 'GLAD HE DID IT' HE TELLS OFFICER

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—(AP)—

Pistol shots that shattered the solemnity of a Los Angeles courtroom left two attorneys dead today and their confessed slayer, a former South Dakota farmer, in jail without bail.

"I did it," Arthur Emil Hansen, 38, formerly of Wakarusa, S. D., was quoted as saying by sheriff's Captain William Pennington. "I regret nothing I did; I had nothing to lose. I'm glad they're dead; they can't hurt anyone else."

Slain as they were seated side by side in the Hall of Records courtroom were R. D. McLaughlin and J. Irving Hancock, the latter a cousin of U. S. Attorney General Clegg, multi-millionaire Los Angeles oil man, scientist and philanthropist.

Hansen confessed shortly after his capture in a jury room a few doors from the death scene.

A legal fight between Hansen and Hancock's father, John Hancock, led to the killings, it was indicated.

Hansen won judgment of $7,000 several months ago against J. W. and Katherine Coykendall. Later, the elder Hancock won a judgment against Hansen and levied on the judgment.

The shooting took place a few minutes before Commissioner Kurtz Kauffman was to give his findings in the litigation.

7 Killed in French Army Plane Crash

TOURS, France, June 23.—(AP)—Seven army flyers perished today in the crash of a twin-motored military plane during a night training flight over central France.

Bodies of five officers of the air general staff, a radio operator and mechanic were found in the wreckage.

Farmers in the vicinity said the plane seemed to explode at low altitude, then fell in flames.

The tragedy was the fifth to befall French military aviation in two months and raised the total of deaths to 17.

Two Attorneys Slain in Courtroom

Surrounded by investigators checking over the scene, the bodies of R. D. McLaughlin (on floor) and J. Irving Hancock (in chair), attorneys slain in a Los Angeles courtroom by Arthur Emil Hansen (below), 38-year-old South Dakota farmer, are shown a few minutes after the shooting. The lawyers had opposed Hansen in a civil suit.

PYTHIAN PICNIC SET FOR G. P. PARK SUNDAY

Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters of Medford and Grants Pass will hold a picnic Sunday in city park, Grants Pass. The celebration will be dedicated to Mrs. William Swartz of 40 Berkeley Way for her loyal service to the Pythian Sisters.

The picnic dinner will be served in the park at 1:30 but members are asked to assemble in the park prior to that hour. Members are to bring their own basket lunches and service, the organization to provide coffee, sugar and cream.

COLESTIN SPRINGS LEASED BY GROUP

The Averis Brothers, Gust and George, announce the leasing of their Colestin Mineral Springs to a group of Californians, who expect to incorporate and handle the product both locally and for the wider state and out of state market.

The lessees expect to build cabins, renovate and remodel the hotel and prepare to cater to a tourist trade. The Averis brothers open their quartz mining mill this week, and will devote their time to their other interests on the Siskiyou.

Colestin Springs is less than half hour's ride from the city via the new Pacific highway, and but five miles from the highway over a good road.

A NEW, DELIGHTFUL WAY TO SERVE

Snider's ICE CREAM

SNIDER'S Chocolate Ice Cream Roll

ICE CREAM, long recognized as America's favorite dessert, comes to the table in a scrumptious new dress—a delicious chocolate roll. Served with a pitcher of piping hot fudge sauce, it is guaranteed to take first place in desserts at many a party and social gathering this summer.

Snider's nutritious ice cream is really cream in a most delicious form and the light fluffy sponge cake, with its rich chocolate flavor, is easy to digest. Because of its excellent flavor, everyone likes Snider's ice cream. It is convenient and easy to serve.

The chocolate sponge cake can be made early and let stand to cool thoroughly. A few minutes before dinner is ready it is a simple matter to spread on the ice cream, roll up the cake, wrap in wax paper and pack in the refrigerator until ready to serve.

HERE'S HOW TO MAKE THE ROLL

- 6 tablespoons flour
- 6 tablespoons cocoa
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup sifted sugar
- 4 egg whites
- 4 egg yolks
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift flour, measure, add cocoa, baking powder and sift together three times. Add salt and vanilla to egg whites, then beat to stiff foam. Add sugar in 1 tablespoon portions, heating after each addition. Fold in well-beaten yolks. Fold in flour mixture gradually. Pour into 15"x10" pan which has been buttered, lined with paper to within 1/2 inch of edge, and again buttered. Bake in hot oven (400 deg. F.) 13 minutes. Turn from pan at once onto damp cloth to cool. Remove paper. Trim off crisp edges. When cold, spread with Snider's vanilla ice cream and roll. Wrapping in wax paper and letting stand in refrigerator helps to shape roll. Remove to chilled platter, cut in 1 inch slices and serve with this hot fudge sauce:

- 2 cups sugar
- 2-3 cup milk
- 2 squares chocolate or 1/2 cup cocoa
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons light corn syrup
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Put all ingredients except vanilla in saucepan. Cook until mixture reaches very soft ball stage. Add vanilla. Serve hot.
