HAMMOND, PRUITT LOSE MATCHES IN GOLFING TOURNEY

Leland Clark Wins by Default — Westland Maintains Blistering Pace — Three Ex-Champs Survive

PORTLAND, June 23.—(AP)—Jack Westland, Seattle medalist and Walker cup team player, maintained his blistering pace in the Pacific Northwest Golf association tournament yesterday with a par-smashing 67.

Harry Givan, Seattle, defending champion, defaulted his match when an ailing shoulder failed to heal and two former champions, Eddie Hogan, Portland, and Forrest Watson, Seattle, were beaten.

Westland defeated Ed Labbe, Portland, 4 and 3. He will meet Sidney Milligan, Eugene, who downed Hogan 2 and 1, today.

Malcolm MacNaughton, San Francisco, won the Givan default. Watson lost to Seelye Allen, Seattle, 1 up.

Three former northwest champions survived the round yesterday. Dr. O. F. Willing, Portland, Walker cup player, beat Fred Lyman, Seattle, 3 and 1. Rudie Wilhelm, Portland, defeated Ben Hughes, Eugene, 1 up, and Scotty Campbell, Seattle, shot par golf to down Bud Haskell, Olympia, 4 and 3.

Don Moe, Portland Walker cup alternate who has held almost every other northwest title, beat Don Thompson, Portland, 2 up.

Flight results included: Championship—Dale Beiford, Portland, defeated Clifton Smith, Eugene, on the 18th; Chuck Hunter, Tacoma, defeated George Will, Portland, 2 up; Bob Van de Mark, Tacoma, defeated C. E. Haymond, Tacoma, 3 and 2; R. W. Emerson, Portland, defeated Dr. W. Emerson, Tacoma, 2 and 1; Johnny Hogan, Portland, defeated Bob Philip, Tacoma, 4 and 3; R. Werschul, Eugene, defeated F. Stenger, Seattle, 3 and 1.

Second—Leland Mitchell, Seattle.

VERTEBRAE KNOBS KNOCKED OFF BY CHAMPION'S FIST

More the fight was halted, shortest heavyweight title match in history. Taken To Hospital.

In his dressing room after the fight, Schmeling still was suffering severe pains in the back. He was taken by taxi to the hospital, walking in under his own power. After a preliminary examination, however, he was placed in a wheel-chair and then put to bed.

The German was occupying a private room in the hospital but was held incommunicado to all but his doctor, nurses and his managerial staff. Scores of newspapermen and photographers were at the scene but couldn't even get close to Schmeling.

Meanwhile Promoter Mike Jacobs delayed his plans for having Louis again to defend the championship in September against Max Baer, former title-holder. Mike first wants to get Baer under a long-term contract in order to keep his hold on the leading heavyweights.

Under original plans, Louis and Baer were to have signed at a New York state athletic commission meeting today. This meeting now has been called off.

Jacobs said he expected to have Baer in line "in two or three days." Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's American representative, and Max Machon, his trainer and close personal friend, were early visitors at the hospital.

German In Pain. Joe Jacobs said he had taken Schmeling to the hospital shortly after midnight. He said the beaten German challenger had been in constant pain during the long X-ray examination.

Machon revealed that he had called Anny Ondra, Schmeling's actress wife, via trans-Atlantic phone, early this morning to tell her that Max was in the hospital.

Jacobs said that one of Chancellor Adolf Hitler's aides had called Max from Germany, asked him about his condition and told him "not to worry."

There had been considerable advance speculation as to just what attitude official Germany would adopt in the event Schmeling was beaten by a negro.

Although Joe Jacobs intimated his belief that the punch that crippled Schmeling was a foul blow, there was little support for that contention from competent observers.

There was no doubt that the punch landed in the region of the kidneys—a "minor" foul in the New York state commission's rule book—but there likewise was no doubt that a sudden twist of Schmeling's body at the same moment caused the punch to land in the back.

CRESCENT HURLER TAKES LEADERSHIP LEAGUE BATSMEN

Lefty Mike Koll, Crescent City pitcher, hit three times in four trips to the plate against Glendale last Sunday to boost his average to an even 500 and take over the Southern Oregon league batting leadership.

Koll displaced Manager Wally Rickett of Medford, last week's pace-setter, who hit safely only once in four chances against Grants Pass, and dropped to second.

Rickett continues to lead the league in runs scored, with 13, and in base hits, with 14. Parker Hess and Pat Patterson head Ashland hitters with marks of 421. Short leads Yreka batters with 421. Avery tops the Glendale Loggers with 416, and Al Drolette has a 375 mark to lead Grants Pass.

Held to four hits Sunday by Steve Crippen, Grants Pass hurler, Medford lost its team batting leadership to Yreka, which has a combined average of .294.

Average, released by Austin Frailer, secretary, follows:

BATTLE ROYAL BY GIRL GRAPPLERS FIRST ON COAST

Promoter Mack Lillard doesn't doubt for a minute that the quietest of lady grapplers who tangle in a battle royal at the army next Monday night will do their level to render each other among those eliminated. He knows they will.

However, to furnish the nth degree of incentive to the ring full of gals to slap each other around with the ultimate vigor, he has scaled the payoff according to the time they spend in the arena. In other words, the first miss out of the ring will get less money for her activity than will the second lady eliminated, and the third out will receive more "sugar" for her appearance than will the second lassie taking the count. The last two remaining in the ring, naturally, will be paid the lion's share of the purse. And, they will return after the battle royal to meet in personal combat, one fall to a finish.

Mack Lillard believes this financial arrangement will help produce a free-for-all the likes of which has never been seen anywhere. For that matter, it will be the first ladies battle royal ever held on the west coast, of which Lillard is justly proud of having promoted.

Main event of the male program will see Terrible Ted Christy taking his best shots at Cowboy Dude Chick in a one hour, two-out-of-three fall match immediately following the female business. In the six-round opener, Bobby Chick will tangle with Sockeye Jack McDonald.

Ladies who will come out of their corners claxing are Clara Mortenson, champ; Maria Martinez, Mexican challenger; Grace Moore, seen here three months ago; Max Nichols, Spokane, Ariz., and Mildred White, Spokane, Wash.

DON BUDGE LOOKS GOOD IN DEFEATING IRISHMAN

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 23.—(AP)—Don Budge, looking for the first time like the champion he is, moved into the fourth round of the All-England tennis championships today with a 6-0, 7-5, 6-1 victory over G. Lyttleton Rogers, lanky Irish star.

Helen Jacobs, former American and Wimbledon champion who collapsed yesterday, came out looking pale but she managed to defeat Joan Ingram of England after a terrific struggle in the first set. The scores were 9-7, 6-5.

SEABISCUIT'S RIDER FALLS, BREAKS LEG

BOSTON, Mass., June 23.—(AP)—Jockey John ("Red") Pollard, 29, of Butte, Mont., who was to ride C. S. Howard's Seabiscuit next Wednesday in the $50,000 Massachusetts handicap at Suffolk Downs, suffered a fracture leg today while exercising a two-year-old horse for a friend.

Pollard had worked out Seabiscuit and then hopped aboard Modern Youth, owned by Bert Blume. The young horse ran away and threw him. The jockey probably will be laid up for six weeks.
