Miss Peggy Ginn Weds Mr. DeLara In Thursday Rites

At a quiet wedding Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Christian church, Miss Peggy Ginn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ginn of this city, was united in marriage to C. Allyn DeLara, son of Charles C. DeLara of Medford and Mrs. Marie DeLara of Los Angeles, Calif. The Rev. James Hamilton officiated.

The bride was becomingly attired in a brown ensemble and wore a corsage of gardenias. She was attended by Miss Dorothy Eads, Harry A. Pinneo as the bridegroom's attendant.

Mrs. DeLara graduated from the Billings, Mont., high school and has made her home here with her parents and brother, Tom Ginn for the past 11 years. She has been associated with Montgomery Ward and company in this city for several years.

Mr. DeLara is manager of the Montgomery Ward farm equipment store in San Jose, Calif. The couple, after a wedding trip to southern California, will make their home in San Jose.

Medford Zontas Leaving Today For Banff Resort

Mrs. Margaret Fabrick, Mrs. John Lawrence and Mrs. Effie H. Kurtz are leaving this afternoon by motor car for Seattle where they will board the Canadian Pacific train bound for Banff, Alberta, famous Canadian resort. Here the group will attend the international convention of Zonta, from June 30 to July 2.

Mrs. Fabrick is the outgoing president of Medford Zonta. Mrs. Lawrence is the president-elect and Mrs. Kurtz, secretary-elect. Mrs. Lois Young, member of Zonta, will accompany the party as far as Salem where she will sing on the program of the state convention of Christian churches.

On the Zonta banquet program Friday evening, Mrs. Kurtz will appear in a group of vocal solos. Mrs. Kurtz has received much recognition from the Zonta song which she composed. This will be presented by the Zonta quartet of Spokane.

Post-convention trips are being planned. One of them to Crater Lake, sponsored by the local organization.

The local group will be well fortified with Rogue River valley favors to be distributed at the seasons. Copies of Crater Lake picture which recently appeared in an issue of the Saturday Evening Post, have been secured and individually wrapped in blue cellophane scrolls. Miniature candy pearls in cellophane bags labeled and ribbon tied will also be presented delegates. The Jackson County Chamber of Commerce has cooperated to insure the success of this publicity for southern Oregon.

Miss Estes Back From Convention

Miss Lucille Estes recently returned to her home on Kings highway from a sojourn in Portland. She attended the state convention of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War as a delegate from the local chapter, Eta Deuel Hubbs, tent No. 11.

The convention sessions were held in the Masonic Temple in Portland. Mrs. Roy Guyer, president of the local tent and Miss Inez Kindred, a delegate from this chapter, are expected to return to Medford in a few days.

Miss Ora Cox, national patriotic instructor of the organization also attended the conference after which she continued on to Bushnell, Ill., her former home. Following a visit there, Miss Cox expects to attend the national convention of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, in Des Moines, Iowa.

Lundys Have House Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lundy and children Richard and Linda of Wheeler, Ore., and Mrs. E. R. Wheeler and daughters, Patricia and Kay of Portland, have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lundy at their home on the Jacksonville highway this week.

The visitors departed Saturday morning for Portland, leaving Patricia Wheeler here to visit a month with her grandparents.

Building Bridge Club Luncheon

The Building Bridge club will convene for luncheon Thursday at 1 o'clock at La Tosca Inn.

For transportation members are to call Mrs. F. E. Sigalov, phone 2241; or Mrs. J. W. Young, 3497 or Mrs. Sid Brown, at 737.

Members and their friends are invited to attend the luncheon after which cards will be played.

Martin-Smith Rites Read In Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, June 25.—(Sp.) The wedding of Andra Martin and Andrus Smith was solemnized Wednesday, June 22 at 11 o'clock at the home of the groom's parents, with Rev. Malloy officiating. The bridal couple stood before an improvised altar of baskets of St. Joseph lilies. The single ring service was used. The bride was attired in blue silk crepe and carried a bouquet of old fashioned flowers tied with pink, blue and white ribbons. Following the ceremony, a buffet luncheon was served to 16 guests. The dining room was decorated with lilies and blue bells.

The newlyweds left for a honeymoon trip which will take them up the coast as far as Fort Clatsop. On their return, they will make their home in Jacksonville.

Medford Visitors Feted at Luncheon

Mrs. Maurice Spatz entertained Friday afternoon with a pleasant luncheon and bridge party at her home on West Main street.

The affair honored Mrs. William R. Hunter of Kankakee, Ill., who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Rosenberg and Mrs. John R. Holmes, house guest of her son and his families, Harry and David Rosenberg.

Following luncheon, two tables of bridge were in play with Mrs. Harry Rosenberg recipient of the prize.

Group Leaves On Alaskan Cruise

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Perry left Medford last week for a three-week vacation to be spent on an Alaska cruise.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry were joined here by Mr. Perry's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dillingham of San Diego. The group motored to Vancouver, B.C., where they boarded the ship, Prince Rupert for Alaska.

The Dillinghams will visit in Medford for several days on their return trip and will then go to Lake Tahoe, Reno, Mt. Lassen and other resorts en route to their home in San Diego.

Church Society Enjoys Picnic

A very delightful occasion was the annual picnic of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church which was held Tuesday afternoon on the porch at the home of Mrs. D. W. Luke, Orchard Home Drive. About thirty members were present and an interesting meeting followed the picnic dinner.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames E. C. Knight, Danick, D. W. Luke and Miss Elizabeth Burr. Mrs. Engvald Iverson gave an interesting report on the general assembly of Presbyterian churches held in Philadelphia from which she has just returned. While in the east Mrs. Iverson called on Mrs. Claude Porter in Washington, D.C., who sent greetings to all her friends in Medford.

Mrs. John Grubbs' talk on Missions in the Philippines and West Indies was enjoyed by all. She also gave many interesting facts pertaining to the work as observed by her while she was in the Philippines last year.
