Medal Contest This Evening

At the Sunday evening service in the First M. E. church a W. C. T. U. medal contest will be put on by the Sunday school department of the union under the chairmanship of Mrs. Augusta McCormick.

The girls taking part in the contest are Shirley Pankey, Marjorie Bowman, Virginia and Carol Gifford, Patricia Ballantyne, Irene and Joan Franklin. They have been trained during the Daily Vacation Bible school classes by Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Helen High Pierce, Mrs. Hobart Price, and Mrs. F. Fanger. Musical numbers will be given and a cordial welcome is given to all to attend the meeting.

Pocahontas Lodge Enjoys Social

Pocahontas lodge enjoyed a social evening Friday at the lodge hall. Birthdays were observed by Arline Meredith, Floyd Watkins, Maude Abbott, Mae Anderson, Nell Brock, Nell Melling and Martha Bittle. The attendance prize for the month was received by Theo. Anseth.

Cards were enjoyed with prizes going to Leah Iyle, Esther Hobbs, Willard Dooms, Ed Schackels, Nell Brock, Alice Lewis, Jack Dooms, and Lou Bittle.

Committees in charge were, Myrtle Keady, Bud and Gladys Lawrents, Sarah Tolle and Theo. Anseth.

Next Friday will be installation of officers.

McCullum Home Scene of Meet

Mrs. I. N. McCullum, president of the missionary societies of the First M. E. church, entertained the officers of the societies at her home Thursday afternoon at which time plans were formulated for the ensuing year.

Those present were Mrs. William Brainard, Mrs. Nelson J. Wiley, Mrs. J. W. Smylie, Mrs. Riley D. Henson and Jessie Berry. Refreshments were enjoyed during the afternoon.

P.T.A. Activities

Cub pack No. 8 sponsored by the Washington P.T.A. and under the leadership of Emil C. Tams, held their regular meeting on Friday evening. After a delightful program by den No. 4 and den No. 3 Mr. Irving Beasley presented their 1938-39 charter to Mrs. Curran, representing the Washington P.T.A. It was decided to disband pack meetings during the summer months. Plans, to have a picnic at the beginning of the school year, were completed. Every parent will be notified of the time and place and it is hoped they will turn out 100 percent. This will also be achievement meeting which we think is of vital interest to every parent. Please plan to be there and we assure you a good and entertaining time.

Baptist Group Convenes Here

The planning commission of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Baptist church will meet for covered-dish luncheon at 1 o'clock Thursday, at the home of Mrs. J. D. Shaffer, South Peach street. Members are to bring covered dish and table service.

Salute 4th of July With Party, Not Firecrackers

By Mrs. Alexander George
AP Feature Service Writer

Salute the Fourth this year with a tea or cocktail party. Trays of colorful canapés and baskets of colorful sandwiches will give a sparkle to the serving table from which loaf coffee, tea, punch, or cocktails are dispensed.

Decorations, of course, will go patriotic. Arrange a centerpiece of red, white, and blue flowers in a low basket or bowl, for instance. Or stick silk flags in a flower holder, set in a shallow dish. You might even borrow the children's top cannons and soldiers to make up a fort.

Canapés, usually the "eat-in-one-bite" morsels, give your imagination a chance to run rampant on shapes and flavors. You should make dozens and dozens because guests will like these tid-bits.

If not canapés are on the menu, it's advisable to bake them in installments, so the supply will always be warm. For surprises, wrap one-inch pastry strips around small frankfurters, tiny hamburger balls, or squares of ham. Bake for seven minutes. They are appealing partners for hot or cold beverages.

Another suggestion—spread a half-inch sheet of biscuit dough with savory creamed crab, tuna, or ham mixture. Cover with another thin sheet of dough. Cut into one-inch squares and quickly press the edges together with a fork, giving several pricks to the top. Pop these into a moderate

Calendar

Tuesday
2:00 p.m.—Baptist church ladies auxiliary, home Dr. Eva Carlow, 26 South Laurel street.

Thursday
1:00 p.m.—Building Bridge club, LaTocha Inn.
1:00 p.m.—Planning commission, Baptist church, home Mrs. J. D. Shaffer, South Peach street.

Missionary Group
Meets Tuesday
Missionary society of the Ladies auxiliary of the First Baptist church will meet at the home of Dr. Eva M. Carlow, 26 South Laurel street instead of the home of Mrs. L. J. Knox, Tuesday at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Ruth Batley will present the topic, "The Bridge in Building."

RECIPIES

For a Fourth of July tea or cocktail party the following recipes are suggested for intriguing sandwiches.

Pinwheels
Take a slice of bread lengthwise of the loaf. Spread it with jelly or cream cheese. Roll lengthwise, wrap, chill, and then slice crosswise.

Firecrackers
Use individual slices of bread. Fill with sandwich spread. Roll and insert pimento for fuses.

Stars
Spread individual slices of bread with a mixture of cream cheese and nuts. Cut into star shapes and top with a slice of stuffed olive.

Stripes
Place strips of pimento on bread spread with liverwurst paste.

Helps for Housewives

Make "frosted" grapes for garnishing summer salads and desserts. Select firm grapes, dip them into slightly beaten egg whites, dust them with granulated sugar and then dry them on waxed paper. Use them, for example, as a filling for peach or cantaloupe halves.

To keep sliced peaches from darkening after they are peeled sprinkle a little lemon juice over them. Then cover and store them in the refrigerator until time for serving.

Spicy Ideas: Sprinkle a little cinnamon over the top of cooked fruit or berry sauce. Add a touch of nutmeg to sliced bananas, apple sauce or sliced peaches. Mix a dash of ginger with baked peaches, pears or cherries.

Wash "washable" wall papers carefully. Make a heavy suds, using warm water and a mild soap. Apply the suds to the paper with a soft cloth. Quickly remove with a soft, clean cloth. Do not let the suds remain on the paper too long—it may loosen it.

Girl Scouts Luncheon
PHOENIX, June 25.—(Spl.)—Girl Scouts of Butterfly patrol, troop 8, enjoyed an outdoor luncheon at the home of their leader June 21. Each girl prepared and served a dish as part of her second class homemaking work. Present were Mrs. Marjorie Pena; leaders, Esther Wilson and Mary Loucks, and Scouts Patsy Barnum, Joan Scribner, Marilyn Wright and Phyllis and Rhoda Williams.

PAINTERS UNION AGAINST MAKING ISSUE OF LABEL

Local Union No. 2007, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of Medford went on record at a meeting last night, as being opposed to declaring all producers of the Rogue River valley "unfair" unless they market their products under the union label.

The carpenters local also went on record as opposing the opening of stores on Sunday.

The statement, as authorized at the meeting, follows in full:

"It has been widely reported that Medford union labor has declared all producers of the Rogue River valley 'unfair' unless they market their produce under the union label.

"In view of the above, Local Union No. 1124, Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers of America, an affiliate of the American Federation of Labor, herewith makes clear its stand upon the matter.

"This local will not, at any time, endorse such action.

"Firstly, such a decree is 'unfair,' 'unjust' and 'illogical,' at least until the employees of the producers themselves are organized.

"And secondly, believing that the interests of industry and of labor are ultimately identical, our sole objective is to effect equitable and harmonious relations between them and radical or ill-considered actions will not hasten that desired goal.

TODAY'S 'GUESS WHO' IS MEDFORD LADY IN DAYS OF HIGH SCHOOL

A well-known Medford woman claims the spotlight in today's chapter of the Mail Tribune's "Guess Who" contest. Picture No. 3, in this issue, is that of a young woman prominently identified with the business and social life of the city. The photo was made about high school days.

A surprising amount of interest has developed in the newspaper's contest, readers being offered cash prizes for the best guesses as to identity of a series of portraits which will be published, one each day, for 25 days.

The first picture, which appeared Thursday, was that of a prominent Medford business man. Picture No. 2, on Friday, was that of a well known professional man.

The pictures are among those being removed from the Mail Tribune's photo engraving file because passage of time has rendered them unrecognizable as present-day likenesses.

The contest is open to all. Merely take a slip of paper, jot down the number of each picture and opposite the number write the name of the person they believe depicted. When the 25 pictures have been published, send in the list to the Mail Tribune, with your own name, clearly written. Prizes of $5, $5 and $2 will be given for the most accurate lists.

Picture No. 3 in the Mail Tribune's "Guess Who" contest appears on page 3 today.

SPRAYING ADVISED FOR SPIDER MITES

Spider mite injury has been found in some orchards, therefore growers are advised to be on the lookout for such infestation, stated L. C. Gentry, entomologist of the Southern Oregon Experiment station and C. B. Cordy, assistant county agent.

Sprays for the control of this pest should be applied as soon as the injury begins to show quite generally on the leaves. Spider mite injury causes the parts of the leaves between the veins to turn brown or blackish, the veins remaining green.

Since the mites and eggs are usually found on the under sides of the leaves, trees should be sprayed very carefully. Use 14 gallons of light medium or medium summer oil on pears and 14 gallons of light oil on apples in 100 gallons of water.

LAST RITES HELD FOR SWIM VICTIM

Funeral services for Wayne Elmer Powers, 15-year-old Ashland boy who died early Friday morning of a broken back sustained Tuesday in a diving accident at Helman Baths, were held at the J. P. Dodge and Sons funeral chapel yesterday afternoon. The Rev. James E. Morgan officiating. Burial was in Mountain View cemetery.

Wayne was born March 15, 1922, at Roseville, Cal., and came to Ashland with his family 12 years ago. He had been graduated from Ashland junior high school this spring. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Blanche E. Powers; three brothers, Jules, Gerald and Gene; two sisters, Trilma and Charlee; and his grandmother, Mrs. Wilkins.

Young Powers' fatal injury occurred about 4:30 Tuesday afternoon when he struck the bottom of the swimming pool at Helman Baths after diving head-first into a shallow part of the pool. For two days he fought desperately for life in Ashland Community hospital, a fight that proved futile. Three vertebrae were broken and there was likelihood his spinal cord was severed. He was conscious most of the time.
