BOMB REPRISALS ON FOREIGN FOES OF SPAIN, THREAT

from the British government.

This fact, coupled with a rise in insurance rates on merchant ships of from 15 to 25 per cent, they declared, makes it increasingly difficult for the Spanish government to receive supplies by sea.

Diplomats said they feared the Barcelona government might seek to provoke a general European war in case the situation of its armies became hopeless before the insurgent armies.

Germany, as well as Italy, was reported to have informed both the British and French foreign offices that it would consider Barcelona's threatened air raids an act of war and would feel free to send armies to "clean up" government Spain.

The Spanish embassy in Paris said the threatened bombing would be considered unless the insurgents caused bombing civilian centers behind government Spain's battlelines.

Both France and Britain exerted urgent pressure on the Barcelona government, counselling it to be "calm," but in the face of this appeal the Spanish authorities insisted they could not keep public indignation in check much longer.

METHODISTS BACK BILL TO CONTROL BEVERAGE SALES

THE DALLES, June 25.—(AP)—A mode to put all sales of alcoholic beverages under the state liquor control commission and make possible the collection of damages from the commission for the improper distribution of individual liquor permits was sanctioned today by the 86th annual session of the Oregon conference of Methodist churches.

The conference unanimously accepted a proposed bill, sponsored by Hayward Johnson, after a petition was approved by the temperance committee.

The bill provides that beverages be sold only upon permits and that protests against the issuance of permits may be filed with the commission by anyone having a "direct financial interest," including the wife, husband, son, daughter, father, mother, brother or sister.

The mere filing of such a protest would make it illegal for the commission to issue the permit. The bill provides that the commission would be liable to persons suffering damages from the issuance of a permit after a protest had been filed.

A right of action against the commission also would be upheld in cases in which persons sold or gave liquor to anyone subsequently involved in an accident, providing such accident were the result of liquor.

Four per cent of all license funds would be set aside for the conducting of scientific research into the effects of alcohol, the purchase of school books telling of the evils of narcotics, the promotion of public education against narcotic evils and hospitalization of addicts. The fund would be administered by a liquor commission board.

The conference agreed to take petition for the bill and wage a vigorous campaign for signatures.

STRIKE SPREADS PORTLAND HOTELS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 25.—(AP)—Portland's "struck" hotels jumped to 16 today as union employes left jobs in the Cornelius and Park Avenue hotels. Pickets began patroling in front of the entrances.

Ben C. Grimson, proprietor of both hostelries, said that of his 35 employes, only six maids walked out. They were replaced, he said, by non-union workers. The union board said that other workers not on duty at the time of the strike would not return to work.

In the meantime negotiators representing the culinary unions and restaurant association of Portland will meet again Monday in an effort toward compromising their differences and avoiding arbitration.

SWEDISH PRINCE ILL ABOARD SHIP

WILMINGTON, Del., June 25.—(AP) Woolmar F. Bostrom, Swedish minister to the United States, said tonight he had received word that Crown Prince Gustaf Adolf of Sweden had suffered a second attack of renal colic aboard ship en route to the United States.

The illness, while not serious, may prevent the Crown Prince from participating in the program arranged in his honor here Monday.

"The Crown Prince is in very good general condition," the minister said, "but he suffered some pain. He will do his utmost to fulfill his part of the program, but if he is unable to do so Prince Bertil (the Crown Prince's son) will take his place."

The Crown Prince and his party sailed from Sweden to participate in the tercentennial observance of the first Swedish settlement in the United States.

Smoke Honors Lost

PITTSBURGH, June 25.—(AP)—Smoke-conscious Pittsburgh residents took comfort today in the knowledge that they must yield to St. Louis, Mo., for the dubious honor of being the nation's city most full of sulphur fumes.

SCOTT HITS ROSS ON POWER STAND

PORTLAND, June 25.—(AP)—Industry is being discouraged rather than encouraged to use Bonneville power because of the attitude of the administrator for the dam, J. D. Ross, a statement by Leslie M. Scott, president of the chamber of commerce, asserted today.

"Mr. Ross' attitude today on the Bonneville situation," said Scott, "is in keeping with his conclusions as to the future national policy (a defeatist attitude anticipating permanent relief). Instead of encouraging industry to take Bonneville energy and employ part of the huge army of unemployed in this community, his attitude is that of discouraging the industrial use of power which would give these people employment at living wages."

SEN. M'NARY BACK HOME THIS WEEK

WASHINGTON, June 25.—(AP)—Senator Charles L. McNary, (R.-Ore.), senate majority leader, will arrive at his Salem, Ore., home Tuesday morning. He left here yesterday with plans to attend the celebration at The Dalles July 9 when the first ocean steamer will pass Bonneville dam locks.

Owney Patton

We'll ride home no more together
On our whirling, earthly sphere,
When the nights are wet and stormy,
Or when moonlit skies are clear.

But your ways we will remember,
In your old accustomed place,
By the honor of your bearing
And the look upon your face.
—Delroy Getchell.
