May Summon Hopkins Before Committee on Use of Relief Money

WASHINGTON, July 1. (AP)—The senate campaign funds committee may call Harry Hopkins, the WPA administrator, to testify about contentions that relief money has been used for political purposes.

In a statement yesterday, Walsh referred to a speech by Aubrey Williams in which the deputy WPA administrator urged unemployed to keep their friends in power.

The speech already has been termed "unfortunate" by the senate committee, which decided late yesterday not to alter that comment.

Walsh, speaking as "a member of

"Josette" Coming to Craterian

The merry escapades resulting from a mix-up in identities brings Don Ameche, Simone Simon and Robert Young to the Craterian theater Sunday for a three-day showing in "Josette" with the official motion picture of the recent Louis-Schmeling heavyweight championship fight as a special added attraction.

When William Collier, Sr., as father of Don and Bob, gets himself all tangled up with a scheming gold-digger, the boys decide to take a hand in the game and then, mistaking Simone as the gold-digger, much merriment ensues to make as it actually happened, and then in slow motion, onlookers get a much
