

FRANCE, TURKEY SIGN AGREEMENT

PARIS, July 1.—(AP)—The French government announced today conclusion of a treaty of friendship with Turkey ending long discord over the strategic Sanjak (district) of Alexandretta and a military agreement believed to be of far-reaching importance.

The foreign office announced conclusion of negotiations for the following:

A Franco-Turkish treaty of friendship.

A military agreement by which France and Turkey on a basis of equality jointly guarantee the internal and external security of Alexandretta and by which equal numbers of French and Turkish troops will be stationed in Alexandretta from today.

A six months' collaboration between France, Turkey and Syria pending the negotiation of a three-power treaty of friendship and good neighborhood.

Missionary Spreads At Phoenix Sunday

The Rev. George J. Adams, a young missionary working in Korea under the Presbyterian foreign missionary board, will speak Sunday morning at the worship hour in the Phoenix Presbyterian church on conditions in Korea. In the evening at 7 he will bring a message to the young people and at 8 o'clock will speak and show moving pictures of the work in Korea.

Mr. Adams' father, the late Dr. J. E. Adams, laid the missionary foundations back in the nineties in the field where his son, George, and an elder son, Rev. Edward Adams, now labor. The Adams family has been one of the outstanding missionary families of the Korea mission field for two generations.

IDAHO MAN PURCHASES CREAMERY IN ASHLAND

ASHLAND, July 1.—(Spl.)—O. W. Wray of Pocatello, Idaho, became owner and operator today of the Ashland creamery, following conclusion of a deal with Paul K. Taylor, former owner. O. R. Wray, son of the new owner, will be associated in the enterprise.

The creamery will be operated under the same setup, according to the new owner, with possible future changes by way of development.

Mr. Taylor, who has operated the creamery nine years, stated that he had no definite plans for the future but will remain in Ashland.

Riviera

RIVIERA, July 1.—(Spl.)—George Lance, M. C. Boomsluiter and Lloyd

Miller returned home Wednesday from a week's stay at Clinnabar Springs. All are greatly improved in health.

Mrs. McDonald of Graves Creek was visiting here June 27.

Mr. Harrison of Los Angeles arrived June 26 to visit his wife and son, Howard, for a few days.

The Foothills telephone line is being extended from the Jacobs Delta farm to the Miller home at Foothills Creek. The work will be completed this week.

W. H. Miller and brother-in-law, Frank Bailey, of Portland were Riviera visitors Monday, as also were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bailey of Medford.

Donald Dungey and Bill Betts visited Phyllis Miller, June 22.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Miller were agreeably surprised by a group of friends and relatives Tuesday evening, June 21. The occasion was the 21st wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. They were showered with gifts and refreshments were served, after moving pictures were enjoyed.

DEAD INDIAN SODA SPRINGS, July 1.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Pipes, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Love, Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Paske, Mr. and Mrs. Corney Collins and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Andrews composed a party which spent Sunday here. This was in the nature of a farewell for Mr. and Mrs. Pipes, who are leaving soon for their new home in Los Angeles.

We regret deeply losing Mr. and Mrs. Pipes who have been frequent visitors at the resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bengman of Medford were Sunday visitors as were Mrs. J. A. Nelson, Mrs. Fred Stevens and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Penwell and party of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tyrrell were hosts to the pupils and patrons of the Lake Creek school at the annual picnic at the resort Wednesday. About fifty attended, including the school board, pupils, parents and friends. The day was happily spent in games and swimming, the main attraction being the tank

John Eads, Sr., accompanied by his grandsons, Laverne Johnson and John Eads, Jr., are spending a two-weeks' vacation at the Eads cabin.

Mr. and Mrs. Orab H. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dyer and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Taylor were guests of the resort over the week-end.

G. M. Adcock of Yamhill, Oregon, is the guard at the Post Hill look-out station. He is from Oregon State college where he will be a senior during the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Tofell of Malin, Ore., accompanied by Miss Ende Hildubrand of Medford, were Sunday callers. Mrs. Tofell was the former Miss Mildred Hildubrand.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smylie and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Brinard of Central Point spent Sunday here.

AMERICAN LABOR STRIFE TERMED GROWING PAINS

SEATTLE, July 1.—(AP)—The Right Hon. Margaret Grace Bondfield, J. P. L.D., former labor minister for Great Britain, told interviewers here today America's labor strife is just "the growing pains of youth."

The internationally famous lecturer and former president of the British Trade Union Congress said "These growing pains can easily be lived through with tolerance and a little common sense."

Death On Bicycle

FOREST GROVE, July 1.—(AP)—A ride on the handlebars of his brother's bicycle ended in the death last night of Marvin Dyke, 7, who was fatally injured when the vehicle struck a truck. His brother, Stanley, 10, suffered a fractured leg.

WARSAW, Poland.—(AP)—Young Polish nurses are being trained to jump from airplanes with parachutes in order to prepare them for service in case of war.
