

Mrs. Moody Trounces Helen Jacobs-U. S. Sweeps Wimbledon Titles

INJURY TO ANKLE ERASES CHANCE FOR MISS JACOBS

Game Californian Refuses To Quit After Right Leg Hurt In First Set—11th Victory In Duel.

By Robert Dowson (United Press Staff Correspondent) WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 2.—(AP)—Mrs. Helen Wills Moody of San Francisco unmercifully thrashed an injured Helen Jacobs in the finals of the all-England singles championships today, becoming the first winner of eight titles here and helping the United States win all five Wimbledon titles for the first time in history.

Again the calm, cool killer of the courts, Mrs. Moody blew her sister-Californian to bits in winning 6-4, 6-0. Mrs. Moody lost only three points in the final set which lasted only nine minutes.

Hobbles On Court Miss Jacobs aggravated an old injury of her right ankle in the ninth game of the first set. She hobbled around the court in great pain in the last set, futilely attempting to strike back at her tormenter.

Although her hopes of at last beating her arch-rival in a Wimbledon final were gone, Miss Jacobs refused to quit. With the eyes of 18,000 spectators, including Queen Mary, on her, she stayed out there on the center court and took a game beating.

"I just couldn't quit and walk off," she said later. She apologized to Mrs. Moody because she gave her such a "poor game."

It was Mrs. Moody's 11th victory in 12 renewals of a feud that began when they were little girls in Berkeley, Cal. The only time Miss Jacobs won was in 1923 when Mrs. Moody, losing in the third set, defaulted because of a lame back in the finals of the U. S. championships.

Great Day For U. S. It was a great day for the United States and a sorry one for the British fans, who saw all of their titles leave the country for the first time since the women's and mixed doubles were added to the Wimbledon program in 1913.

Don Budge, from Oakland, Cal., won one title yesterday—the men's singles—and participated in two of today's four American victories. When Budge, paired with Alice Marble of San Francisco, closed the program with victory in the mixed doubles, it marked the second consecutive year he had won every-thing a man can. And he set up a mark that probably will stand for years—six straight all-England titles.

Budge and Gene Mako of Los Angeles, Cal., retained the men's doubles crown with a 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, 6-6 victory over Henner Kanel of Germany and George Metaxas of Austria. Then, without taking a rest, he and Miss Marble retained their mixed doubles crown by defeating Henkel and Mrs. Sarah Paley Fabyan of Brookline, Mass., 6-1, 6-4.

Rivals Shake Hands In the first match of the day, Mrs. Fabyan and Miss Marble won the women's double title by defeating the defending champions, Mrs. E. H. Mathieu of France and Adeline York of England, 6-2, 6-3.

The Moody-Jacobs match lasted only 40 minutes. At the end of the match the two women shook hands at the net. Miss Jacobs smiled but Mrs. Moody turned her face away from Miss Jacobs while waiting for photographers to snap their pictures.

Miss Jacobs entered the match wearing a bandage on her right ankle. She had pulled her Achilles tendon in her semi-final victory over Miss Marble on Thursday. Some time after the match Miss Jacobs apologized to Mrs. Moody, saying she was "very sorry to have given you such a poor game." Miss Jacobs said Mrs. Moody replied, "That's too bad."

Miss Jacobs added: "Helen is a wonderful player. I had entered the match with confidence in myself and my game although I did not feel that a victory was a foregone conclusion."

CORVALLIS, July 2.—(AP)—A light rain here Friday broke the driest early summer period in local history, with May rainfall measured at only .09 of an inch and June precipitation at .01.

72-Hole Medal Play To Be Instituted On July 16—Name Of Winner To Be Inscribed On Trophy.

The memory of the late H. Chandler Egan, former national amateur champion and member of America's Walker cup team, will be kept alive through the years by an annual memorial tournament staged at the Rogue Valley Golf club.

Over the same beautiful 18-hole course designed by Medford's greatest golfer, present and future members of the club will each year meet in a 72-hole, medal play, full-handicap tournament. And each year, the winner's name will be inscribed on a gorgeous silver trophy which has been donated by Mrs. H. Chandler Egan. The trophy, to be the permanent possession of the club, is in the form of a solid cylinder 18 inches tall, with golf clubs encircling it and a golf ball, supported by wings, at the top.

The first annual Chandler Egan Memorial tournament will start Saturday, July 16, and continue 'till Sunday, July 31, giving entrants two weeks in which to play their 72 tournament holes. The final 54 holes may be shot anytime after the starting date. George Robertson, club manager, emphasizes the fact that full handicaps would be allowed, and urged all members to enter. He estimated 150 golfers would compete.

For scoring a birdie and an eagle on the same round, Paul Meyers has received this set of Duke of Dundee air-conditioned briar pipes, Robertson announced.

SHUTE, GULDAHL PLAN NEW DUEL

HINGHAM, Mass., July 2.—(AP)—Denny Shute, two-time champion of the National P. G. A., today proved again he is peer of the nation's match players as he clinched a 2 and 1 victory over Ralph Guldaul, master of medal play, in a 36-hole challenge match for the unofficial championship of the United States.

Guldaul was loath to accept the verdict as conclusive. "Although I putted poorly and have no alibi, I'd like to play him again in the fall over 72 holes and three of the clubs, including one tough and long. This course (South Choke) was too short for me."

Shute immediately accepted the challenge and the date and place will be decided later.

The Grange

Phoenix Grange met in regular session June 28 with an unusual number of visitors from six different Granges. Gold Hill Grange furnished the program, consisting of the following numbers: Community singing, an interesting talk by County Commissioner Ralph Billings of Bellview Grange, solos by Jesse Fish, who was dressed as a woman and sang as a woman. All agreed it was quite marvelous. Three ladies of Gold Hill Grange, who were introduced as Lissy, Lizzy and Dizzy, furnished a great deal of merriment by singing "Please Bring on a Man." Harold Fish completed the program with two beautiful solos.

Next meeting of Phoenix Grange, July 12, will be preceded by a covered dish dinner, in honor of the birthdays occurring during April, May and June. All members and their families are invited. After which the dramatic committee will have charge.

Nationalists Make Appreciable Gains

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier, July 2.—The Spanish nationalists today made their first appreciable gains in 10 days of intense fighting along the Mediterranean coast.

Forces under Gen. Garcia Valino drove the loyalists deep into the Sierra Espadan mountains, the last important natural defense before Sagunto and Valencia. They began to encircle the mountains to reach Segorbe and the Sagunto highway.

SLAYER OF DETECTIVE SUSPECTED IN MURDER MRS. FROME, DAUGHTER

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., July 2.—(UP)—Norman W. Wharton, 28, confessed slayer of a detective at the fashionable Broadmoor hotel, maintained silence in his jail cell tonight as federal agents sought to link him with the brutal murder of a mother and her daughter in Texas last April.

Chief of Police Hugh D. Harper announced he had forwarded to the FBI at Washington, D. C., cartridges from a Spanish-made gun found on Wharton and a lock of hair from the confessed slayer's head.

"That evidence may link this man with the Frome case," Harper said. Mrs. Weston G. Frome, 48, and her daughter, Nancy, 23, were found slain and mutilated on a sun-baked Texas road. The two Berkeley, Calif., women were en route east on a motor trip when death overtook them.

Harper said the peculiar-type gun Wharton admitted he used to shoot down Arthur C. Lating, 66-year-old detective, during a gay costume party at the hotel last Saturday night was of the same size and type as that used to kill the Frome women.

Wharton's hair, Harper said, would be compared with two strands of hair found clutched in the hand of one of the slain women.
