

"Josette" And Louis-Schmeling Fight Films On Craterian's Screen Today

SIMONE SIMON WITH ROBERT YOUNG, JOAN DAVIS IN GAY SHOW

A motion picture program that combines thrilling excitement with gay romance and music, opens a three-day showing today at the Craterian theater.

With the official motion picture of the Louis-Schmeling heavyweight championship as a special added attraction, the program has Don Ameche, Simone Simon, Robert Young and Joan Davis in "Josette" as the feature picture.

Showing the devastating power of the Black Bomber as he eliminated Max Schmeling completely from the heavyweight picture, after losing a fight to him two years ago, the fight film not only shows the sensational battle as it actually happened, but, in order to give sport fans a complete picture, it is also shown in slow motion, with every blow, every knockdown followed from the time Joe's dynamiting fists started their lethal work until Maxie was hanging on the ropes, knocked out completely and saved from further punishment by the actions of Referee Arthur Donovan, who stopped the fight to save Schmeling any unnecessary battering.

"Josette," a spicy, tantalizing story of New Orleans, starts gaily on its way when Don and Bob decide their Papa is too ardently "cherishing his femme" — Josette. The fact that Simone is innocent of all guile as regards Papa—and that there is another woman in the cast—only adds to the merry madness. For Don and Bob pack Papa off on a trip and decide to take Josette into their own hands—or arms, as it later develops. The denouement, which would only spoil the fun, winds up things in a merry fashion.

Joan Davis, recently voted No. 1 comedienne of the screen in a nationwide newspaper poll, has an important supporting part, as also have Bert LaHR, Paul Hurst, William Collier, Sr., and Tala Birell.

Three new songs by Hollywood's ace tunesmiths, Gordon and Beyel, are featured in the musical background of the film.

SPANIARDS SMUGGLED ON BASIS OF WEIGHT

PERPIGNAN, France—(AP)—Andorrans who lived by smuggling before the war between Spaniards now have a new item in their list—men.

The price for men is the same as the price for merchandise—four francs per kilogram or six cents a pound.

Smugglers in the little Pyrenees mountain republic reason that fat men in Spain should pay more than thin men to be smuggled across the mountains, for they're more difficult to hide.

Pioneer Structure Razed At Phoenix

JACKSONVILLE, July 2.—(Sp.)—One of the pioneer structures of the valley disappeared recently with the razing of the Engle building in Phoenix. S. M. Wait purchased the land on which the building stood, in March, 1857, from Sampel Colver. The building was erected about 1859. Peter Britt, father of the present owners, Emil and Molly Britt of Jacksonville, obtained possession of the property in 1890.

The old building, used by the Phoenix Thursday club for meeting purposes, was recently condemned, and the Britt's donated the salvaged material to the Phoenix church to be used for additional needed construction.

JAP TRANSPORT GOES OVER BOOM

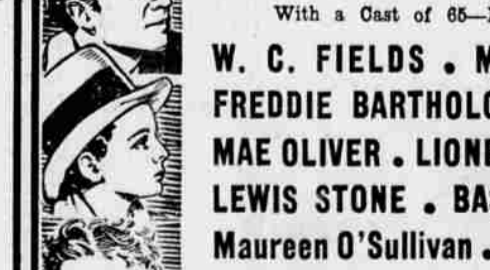

SHANKHAL, July 2.—(AP)—The Japanese land and naval onslaught into the Yangtze river toward the Chinese provisional capital of Hankow spurred into sudden the invaders pinned an ominous veil of secrecy.

The Chinese admitted the Japanese steamed a small transport in high water over the sunken boom at Matowchen, after many days' pounding at this defense, and landed several hundred Japanese shock troops at a village four miles upstream.

This was done by running a gauntlet of steady Chinese machine-gun fire from the banks and as soon as the invaders landed they attacked Chinese positions in sanguinary fighting which continued hours later.

"Kidnapped" Coming Wednesday

"Kidnapped," the story which Robert Young is said to have considered his best, comes to Medford Wednesday, opening a four-day showing at the Craterian theater.

Spectacularly produced, pictorially enriched throughout with the glowing new sepia-tone, it boasts a cast of 5000, headed by Warner Baxter as Alan Breck and Freddie Bartholomew as David Balfour.

Unlike several other Stevenson stories, "Kidnapped" had never before appeared in either silent or sound film—something of a record. In its debut Wednesday, theater-goers will see, for the first time, the adventure that has thrilled thousands of readers for many years.

Romantic interest has been added to the story by the addition of a feminine character, a Highland lass by the name of Jean MacDonald, played by the beautiful newcomer, Arleen Whelan. Also featured in the cast are C. Aubrey Smith, Reginald Owen, John Carradine, Nigel Bruce, Miles Mander, Ralph Forbes and H. B. Warner.

David Copperfield Returns To Rialto For Sunday Showing

Taking its place among the greatest of the revival pictures, Charles Dickens' immortal "David Copperfield," returns to the Rialto theater for today and tomorrow only. The film, voted by critics as being one of the ten best pictures ever made, comes to the Rialto as a result of popular demand of the country over.

With a cast of over sixty-five stars and featured players, "David Copperfield" is a faithful filmization of the Dickens story, carrying all the characters right through in the same manner as did the famous writer of a century ago.

The large cast includes W. C. Fields, who plays the Inevitable and comical Mr. Micawber; Freddie Bartholomew, as David—the boy; Lionel Barrymore, Edna Mae Oliver, Madge Evans, Maureen O'Sullivan, Lewis Stone, Basil Rathbone, Elizabeth Allan, Roland Young, Herbert Mundin, Jessie Ralph and Frank Lawton, as David—the elder.

The picture introduced no less than two bright stars to the world. Freddie Bartholomew was brought from England to play the title role and his success became one of the outstanding juvenile players on the screen today. Another important "find" was Basil Rathbone, who played the heartless stepfather of young Freddie. Rathbone has developed into one of the screen's leading villains.

With a great story, a hand-picked cast of film favorites and a production cost of over two million dollars, "David Copperfield" is expected to please many Rialto fans with its triumphant return showing.

"Blotto," starring the merry kings of hilarity—Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy, will play as the added attraction with the Dickens masterpiece.

F.D.R. WILL DEDICATE SYMBOL OF PEACE AT GETTYSBURG REUNION

GETTYSBURG, Pa., July 2.—(AP) An American symbol of "peace eternal" will be dedicated by President Roosevelt tomorrow on this field where the blood of a divided nation was spilled 75 years ago.

In the presence of 2000 veterans of the Blue and the Gray, feasting together on the scene of the battle of Gettysburg, the chief executive will consecrate to a "united action" a 40-foot shaft of Alabama limestone, topped by a light that will glow "forever."

The aged heroes of the war between the states, for whose "last reunion" Sunday's spectacle is to provide the high point, reviewed a military parade today. Then many retired early, worn out.

Meantime, in a speech for a "veterans night" reunion, Daniel J. Doherty, national commander of the American Legion, said this battlefield "affords the world its greatest object lesson in peace" and the men who fought there afforded America's doughboys an object lesson in courage.

Nab Extortionist CHICO, Calif., July 2.—(AP)—Sheriff Herbert Taylor announced the arrest today of James Allen Ebricht, 54, a laborer, and said the man had confessed he attempted to extort $15,000 from Roy Miller, Chico grocer.
