

Greats of Baseball Pour Into Cincinnati for All-Star Contest

SELL-OUT CROWD IS ASSURED FOR DIAMOND CLASSIC

Town Not So Enthusiastic Since Reds Hit Skids—Vander Meer and Feller Expected to Start Game

By GAYLE TALBOT
CINCINNATI, July 5.—(AP)—The greats of baseball have started pouring in on this troubled town for tomorrow's annual all-star game between the two major leagues, and by this nightfall there will be a home run knocker behind every potted palm in the hotel lobby.

Reserved Seats Sold
Still, a sell-out crowd of 20,000, including 2000 standees, is assured when the two star-spangled outfits meet at 1:30 (eastern standard time) tomorrow afternoon at Crosley field.

Now the good burghers, suddenly clear-headed again, realize they aren't going to see a world series next autumn, and it is a little sad. About all they hope for from tomorrow's turnverein is that their lovely Vander Meer will outpitch Bobby Feller of Cleveland for the first three innings.

It will be a crime against the sovereign state of Ohio if the two youngsters aren't given the lead-off assignments. They probably will be, but it would cause no great shock to many observers if Joe McCarthy, manager-for-a-day of the American League beatless, led with sixth, Lefty Gomez or Red Ruffing of his own Yankees.

Lineups Mystery
McCarthy and his National league rival, Bill Terry, will get together with Commissioner Landis and the umpire tonight for a final ironing-out of the details. Neither manager will see his full team until they all meet at the clubhouse at 11 o'clock on the morning of the game. Chances are they won't announce their starting line-ups until then.

The consensus is that the two "dream" clubs will line up about like this (leaving it to the two managers to fix the batting orders):

DISABLING SPIN BRINGS COWBOY REVENGE ON TED

Before over 2000 fans packing the Ashland Chautauqua last night in the Lithia city's annual Fourth of July wrestling program, Cowboy Duds Chick avenged his defeat at the hands of Terrible Ted Christy last week by spinning the villainous Californian into oblivion in 22 minutes flat. The tumble came after Christy obtained the first fall in 13 minutes with a shoulder stand with help of the ropes. Following the larist whirl, Christy was unable to return for more action.

In the middle event, Miss Clara Mortenson, world woman champion, took two straight falls from Senorita Maria Martinez. The title-holder used body presses to gain the verdict, with the final fall coming after 21 minutes of action.

Bulldog Jackson was unable to show up for the opening event so Leo Mortenson, brother of Clara, substituted and lost a one-fall squabble to Bobby Chick in 23 minutes. Bobby fought off Mortenson's dirty attack to take the only tumble with an Indian deathlock.

Don and Dean Robertson, brother and sister, gave a four-round boxing exhibition, with the little girl winning.

Harvey L. Miller, chairman of the NBA ratings committee, said Galento won the No. 1 challenger's spot by his "consistent knockout wins and the fact that he is willing and anxious to meet Joe Louis or any other heavyweight, Baer or Farr preferred." "If Joe Louis will walk into me like he did Schemling," commented Tony, "I'll finish him off faster than he did Max."

Other heavyweights were ranked behind Galento in this order: Max Baer, Tommy Farr, Bob Pastor, Max Schmeling, Gunnar Barland, Roscoe Rolfs, Clarence (Red) Burman, Al McCoy and Nathan Mann.
