Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, July 11.—(AP)—The stock market's "baby boom," three weeks old today, stubbed its toes on profit selling and, in the resultant fall, suffered losses running to 2 or more points.

Aircraft were an exception to the general list of casualties, but even the majority of these was unable to remain far out in front.

In past sessions, the let-down was accompanied by a substantial dwindling of volume. Transfers were around 1,000,000 shares, the smallest for a full session since the sharp upturn got under way on June 20.

The news, on the whole, was no worse than recently and in some respects was much better.

Today's closing prices for 32 selected stocks follow:

RECENT FAVORITES STILL TOP LISTS AT CITY LIBRARY

Citadel Again Leads Fiction Category in June — An American Doctor's Odyssey First in Non-Fiction

Favorites of recent months continued to hold popular favor at the public library during June, a tabulation today showed. Citadel was again first choice in the fiction field while An American Doctor's Odyssey once more led all others in the non-fiction division.

The 15 most popular works of non-fiction in June were: An American Doctor's Odyssey by Victor G. Heiser; Midnight on the Desert by John Boynton Priestley; The Nile by Emil Ludwig; Assignment in Utopia by Eugene Lyons; He Did Not Die at Meyerling by R. Importance of Living by Lin Yutang; Petticoat Vagabond by Nell James; Madame Curie by Eva Curie; Notes on a Drum by Joseph Henry Jackson; One American by Fraser Hunt; Tyranny of Words by Stuart Chase; 400,000 Customers by Carl Crow; Danger Is My Business by John Craig; Out of Africa by Karen Blixen; Son of Scotland by Bruce Lockhart.

The ten most popular novels were: Citadel by Archibald Joseph Cronin; Northwest Passage by Kenneth Roberts; And the Rain Came by Louis Bromfield; Yearling by Marjory Kinnan Rawlings; Action at Aquila by Hervey Allen; Tale of Ball by Viki Baum; Great A Man by David Pilgrim; Victoria 430 by Cecil Roberts; Joseph in Egypt by Thomas Mann; Handsome Road by Gwen Bristow.

Fred MacMurray in Leading Role Show On Craterian Bill

A crew of swing nitty and fame hungry musicians "jammed" their way across the continent last night in the new film that opened at the Craterian theater, right into an audition at the Coconut Grove, and right to the top of your current film hit parade.

The new picture is "Cocoanut Grove" and heading a long list of top rank performers is Fred MacMurray in his role in the new film, plays an almost exact prototype of his own life before he crashed the movies. He is a young handwerker who has an aptitude for being jobs quicker than he can get them, and as a result winds up flat broke with a rebellious band on his hands. To keep them together he tells them that he has arranged for an audition at the Coconut Grove. The only problem that he confronts here is to get the "swingers" to California.

When one of his boys wins a contest with a trailer as prize, the whole crew, and Miss Hilliard, who has been hired as a tutor for MacMurray's adopted son, head for the west coast. En route they suffer all kinds of hilarious trials and tribulations, including the annexation of Rufe Davis to the band. Arriving at the Coconut Grove, the smash musical climax of the film comes when MacMurray actually makes the grade at the Grove and opens in a blaze of glory.

"Zamboanga" Will Be Shown Rialto's Screen This Week

A realistic screen drama of the same nature as "Tabu," which took the country by storm a few years ago has been booked into the Rialto theater for a three-day run starting Thursday. The picture is "Zamboanga," a tale of the Moro "Sea Gypsies" found in the Zulu Islands. With an all-native cast, "Zamboanga" is expected to draw large audiences of adventure lovers at the Rialto through its three-day showing.

The Zulu Islands are located near the Philippines and many animals and rare birds of that section of the Orient are to be seen in the native film.

Mistake Costs Life

EUGENE, July 11.—(AP)—A railroad track worker who thought the locomotive roaring toward him was at the coast, the smash musical climax of the film comes when MacMurray actually makes the grade at the Grove and opens in a blaze of glory.

Coming for Convention

Malcolm R. Giles (left), supreme secretary, and Albert J. Satoru (right), a past supreme dictator and present supervisor of the district, will attend the three-day convention of the Loyal Order of Moose to be held here

Two high officials of the Loyal Order of Moose will participate in the three-day convention of the State Moose association here this week, according to word from the arrangement committee which is completing final plans for the affair.

From Mooseheart, Ill., headquarters of the organization, will come E. A. Kallen, deputy supreme secretary for the Pacific states, while from Spokane, Wash., will be Albert J. Satoru, a past supreme dictator and present supervisor of this district. These men will hold key positions during the conference and will relay important information from a national fraternal standpoint.

Details are virtually complete for the convention. Registrations will be taken at both the Moose hall, corner of Fifth and Grape streets here, and at a special desk in the Hotel Medford. The joint session of the main organization and the state women's auxiliary will be held at 1:00 p. m. Friday, followed by initiation of new members, the convention banquet and ball.

Saturday will see a secretary-dictator breakfast, business meeting, election of new state officers in the afternoon, a parade at 6:30, followed by the drill team contests at the high school field.

The official convention program is now complete and was being mailed to delegates this afternoon. Dr. George S. Jennings of Medford, secretary of the host lodge indicated that between 300 and 400 delegates and visitors are expected to attend.

To Invite Carriers

EUGENE, July 11.—(AP)—Oregon rural letter carriers, holding their 30th annual convention here Saturday, decided to invite the national association to hold its 1938 convention in Portland. The convention would bring more than 5000 delegates to the state. The Oregon carriers think their chances of landing the big conclave are good.

and buy water from Medford at wholesale rates. According to City Superintendent Fred W. Scheffel, the City of Medford will not make application for a PWA grant or loan.
