

CONTINUE DRIVE FOR ERADICATION BANG'S DISEASE

Recent Decrease in Federal Indemnity Payments Will Have Little Effect Says State Veterinarian.

SALEM (Sp.)—Plans under way for a sweeping state-wide drive to clean up Bang's disease in the dairy and beef cattle herds in Oregon will be little affected by the recent decrease in Federal indemnity payments to raisers, Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian, predicted today.

nounced. The local committees will be in charge of securing cooperation for the testing and condemning work in their areas.

The drive to reduce reactor animals to a minimum is designed to take full advantage of present Federal indemnity payments which will be subject to change after May 1, 1938. At that time each state is expected to have to contribute a sum equal to that put up by the federal government.

Congressional action has cut Federal Bang's indemnity payments to one-third of the difference between the appraised value and the salvage value of slaughtered animals, Dr. Lytle said. The resulting sum is sufficient, however, to permit cattle raisers to clean up without experiencing heavy financial losses, it is believed.

"This congressional action should serve to impress upon cattle raisers the necessity of getting Bang's disease testing and eradication carried out immediately," Dr. Lytle says. "Infected herds bring financial loss. If reactor animals are not decreased in number by May 1 of next year, it is likely that indemnity payments will cease altogether. The state could not match federal payments as it

GRAZING FEES TO STAY SAYS ICKES

WASHINGTON, July 15.—(AP)—Present fees for public grazing on federal range lands in the west will remain unchanged.

Secretary Ickes, making the announcement, said the rates were provided in revised rules and regulations approved by the interior department and affected 18,000 stock men with about 10,000,000 head of cattle, sheep, horses and goats grazing on 120,000,000 acres of the public domain in ten states.

Five cents a head a month will be charged for cattle and horses, and one cent for each sheep and goat. A fee of 1/4 of one cent a head a day will be collected for cattle and horses while crossing the federal range to other areas. A fee of 1-20 of one cent a day will be charged for sheep and goats crossing the federal range.

Eventual Sales Tax Seen In Financing of Pensions

WASHINGTON, July 15.—(AP)—An expert close to the social security board predicted today a general sales tax eventually would replace payroll levies to finance old age pensions.

He said this might happen in five or ten years, depending on how the scope of the social security act is broadened.

"The expert, who declined use of his name, asserted the projected inclusion of farmers and other self-employed persons in the security system would make the payroll tax too clumsy and burdensome.

At present, both the employer and his employer pay an old age tax of one percent on the employee's salary. These rates will rise to 3 percent each in 1949. A farmer, being his own employer, could not be asked to pay a 6 percent tax on his cash income, the expert explained.

In addition to farmers, the social security board wants to include domestic servants, marine workers and would be intended primarily as a means of registering the persons eligible for pensions.

The bulk of the cost, he said, would have to be financed by some other general and productive tax such as a sales tax.

BETTER PRICE ON MEDFORD'S PEARS SEEN FOR SEASON

"We do not look for a too high price level this season on pears, but we do hope and look for better prices than prevailed last year," it is stated in a bulletin issued by Gordon R. Green, division manager of American Fruit Growers, Inc., who recently returned from his annual tour of eastern markets.

Saying there is a brighter prospect for foreign business, Mr. Green continued: "In our opinion there will be a rather good demand for the better quality fruit this year in both the domestic and export markets. The grower or shipper who has the best quality and price in line will get the edge."

Illustrating his point regarding quality fruit, Mr. Green related that while he was in New York he saw Wenatchee cherries outside the California product as much as 20 to 30 cents a box, simply because the Washington cherries arrived in better condition.

Mr. Green told of an $80,000 promotional campaign to be conducted for California Bartlett between July 18 and October 1, and declared Medford pears would benefit from this advertising.

"Pears grown in this district, properly pre-cooled, are now able more nearly to compete with the California fresh Bartlett and as we shall start packing Bartlett around August 12 we shall enjoy the most of this advertising effort."

Yes, Folks, Eat
Sausage In Hot Weather

WE've always had the idea that sausage was a winter food—that folks didn't care so much for it in the summer. . . . We've always liked it the year 'round ourselves, but didn't think many other folks did.

Well sir, we were wrong. . . . Folks want it any time if it's good. We found that out after we began giving them their choice of mild or full sage seasoning. They buy more of the full sage—in fact just about as much as in the winter.

Try some for Sunday breakfast—you will enjoy it just as much.
