

Runyan Wins P. G. A. Title From Snead, 8 And 7, In Record Play

SLIM CROWD SEES PINT SIZED STAR SHOW RARE FORM

West Virginian Folds Up In Finals—Breaks Previous Marks And a Two-Time Winner.

SHAWNEE—ON—DELAWARE, Pa. July 16.—(AP)—Paul Runyan, a pint-sized golfer from White Plains, N. Y., today finished off the finest streak of golf he's had in four years by defeating Sam Snead, the West Virginian, 8 and 7 in the final round of the national P. G. A. championship.

It was a hollow victory for Runyan who had to go 38 holes to beat Craig Wood for his first title at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1934. But it was hollow only because Snead, biggest disappointment in the national open at Denver last month, folded up completely in the face of a game that, with rare exceptions, was straight and true as a plumb-line.

Runyan broke the record for the most decisive margin in a P. G. A. final, supplanting the 6 and 5 score by which Jim Barnes beat Fred McLeod in 1919, and which Walter Hagen and Leo Diegel tied in beating Will Bill Melton and Al Espinosa in 1925 and 1928, respectively.

He was 24 under par for the 196 holes he played since the first qualifying round last Sunday; he had only one bogey hole in his last 70 and that the single hole Snead won from him today; 11 one-putts greens out of the 80 he played today, and he was two up at the end of the first nine holes and confident that he had Samuel Jackson Snead's scalp safely in the bag.

Snead's single reaction at the end of the match was a brief, ruefully-grinning: "Goah, that guy isn't human."

But Paul was very human in his reaction to his victory.

"I still don't believe it," was the first thing he could say.

Runyan, scoring his victory before a disappointing gallery of 2,500, joined a group of golf's greatest notables by becoming a two-time winner. Others who have won twice are Barnes, 1916 and 1919; Hagen, 1921 and from 1924 to 1927; Diegel, 1928 and 1929; Shute, who scored the last two years, and Gene Sarazen, titleholder in 1922, 1923 and 1933.

GORDON'S HITTING ENABLES YANKEES TO ROUT DETROIT

NEW YORK, July 16.—(AP)—Rookie Joe Gordon's big bat backed up Red Ruffing today and the Yankees walloped the Detroit Tigers 7 to 5 to stretch their winning streak to six straight and maintain their margin at the head of the American league.

Gordon, a former Oregon boy, clouted his 11th homer of the year with a mate aboard in the second inning, added a triple and single before the day was over, and drove in a total of three runs. Ruffing, chalking up his 13th victory of the season against three setbacks, was tagged for a dozen hits by the Tigers, but was tight in the pinches.

Gordon's three-bagger just missed being a homer, hitting the upright marking the left field foul line.

Score: R. H. E.
Detroit 5 12 1
New York 7 12 1

Eisenstat, Wade and York; Ruffing and Dickey.

BOSTON, July 16.—(AP)—Paced by Harland Clift's 11th and 12th homers of the year, the St. Louis Browns ended a 10-game losing streak today by whipping Boston's Red Sox, 5 to 3. It was the first time this season the Browns have won a game in Boston.

Score: R. H. E.
St. Louis 5 14 1
Boston 3 11 1

Hildebrand and Sullivan; Midkiff and Desautels.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(AP)—Washington defeated the Chicago White Sox today, 3 to 2, after tying the Sox in the sixth inning and capitalizing on an outfield error in the seventh.

It was the Senators' seventh victory in the last nine games.

Score: R. H. E.
Chicago 2 8 1
Washington 3 10 2

Loyens and Sewell; Weaver and R. Ferrell.

PHILADELPHIA, July 16.—(AP)—Showing over two runs without making a hit in the seventh inning, the Cleveland Indians today came from behind to win a see-saw struggle from the Athletics, 9 to 8.

Score: R. H. E.
Cleveland 9 11 0
Philadelphia 8 11 2

SEABISCUIT WINS $50,000 CLASSIC IN RECORD TIME

Horse, After Poor Start Takes Hollywood Gold Cup—Specify Finishes Second.

INGLEWOOD, Calif., July 16.—(AP)—In a great driving finish after trailing the field off to start, Seabiscuit returned to his winning ways today taking the Hollywood $50,000 Gold Cup handicap by a length in new track record time of 2:03 4/5 for the mile and a quarter. It was a photo finish for second as the crowd of 55,000 cheered wildly.

Charley Howard's great five-year-old, fifth at the halfway post, was given a great ride byockey George Woolf. Specify was second, the photograph showed later, with Whitechase third, a whisker back. Specify had set the pace from the start, leading by 10 lengths at one stage.

The winner paid $240, $240 and $220 on $2 pari-mutuel tickets, with Specify paying $2.50 and $2.20. Whitechase paid $2.40.

Victory was worth $37,150 to Owner Howard, raising the "Biscuit's" earnings to $290,215 and placing him sixth in the all-time list of American money winners. Second place was worth $5,500; third, $2,500, and fourth, which went to Logarotti, was worth $1,000.

CRATERS TACKLE JUNIORS TANGLE WITH GOLD HILL

Big Lowell Brown goes gunning for his fifth Southern Oregon league pitching victory today, as Medford's crashing Craters move to Glendale for the second game in the second-half pennant race.

Tied with Grants Pass and Crescent City for the circuit leadership with one win and no losses, the Craters plan to unlimber their best pitcher, Artillery to aid their star shortstop in his fifth-victory quest, and keep themselves in a tie for the top spot.

The cast was taken off Tommy White's injured wrist the other day and he may see action against the Loggers, although Manager Wally Rickett tentatively plans to keep him on the sidelines for another week while his wrist completely heals.

Working on the mound for Glendale will be either Merle Johnson, right-hander, or Glen Elliott, the Loggers' brilliant high school portlander.

In other league games, Grants Pass plays at Ashland and Crescent City travels to Yreka.

Games Today
Medford at Gold Hill.
Prospect at Talent.

Medford's Junior Craters travel to Gold Hill and Prospect moves to Talent today in Jackson county league baseball games, both of which start at 2:30 sharp.

Doc G. A. Gitzsen, acting manager of the Junior Craters, announced that Ray Lewis would start on the mound for the locals, with Ray Henderson held in reserve. Gold Hill's pitching will be done by Bailey.

Betting order of the Medford club will be Johnny Gitzsen, shortstop; Harnish, second base; Stine, right field; Baker, first base; Pitts, center field; Groucher, left field; Curry, third base; George Gitzsen, catcher, and Lewis, pitcher. All players are asked to meet at Baggio's at noon.

TACOMA, Wn., July 16.—(AP)—Edwin Amark, of San Francisco, today won the men's singles championship in the Pacific Northwest tennis tournament here with a gruelling six-game victory over Richard (Dick) Bennett, of Tacoma, former University of California player, seeded first.

Amark, a slim youth who graduated from the junior ranks only a year or so ago, started strong and in the first three matches promised to make quick work of the favored Bennett. He took the first set 6-3; dropped the second 6-8 when he obviously began to lose, then rallied to take the third 6-4 without much difficulty.

CHICAGO, July 16.—(AP)—Dizzy Dean, whose ailing arm has kept him inactive since May 3, will go to the mound for the Chicago Cubs tomorrow—and on his performance may hang Chicago's chances of getting back into the National league pennant fight.

MERRICK'S POOL SWIM IN DRINKING WATER
Daily 1:00 p. m. to 10:00 p. m. Sundays 10:00 a. m. to 10:00 p. m.

SEATTLE, July 16.—(AP)—Only formal approval by the state boxing commission remained today to make official the selection of former heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey as referee of the Freddie Steele-Al Hostak middleweight title bout here July 26.

Promoter Nate Druzman said last night Dempsey had accepted terms.

The parade ground in front of Edinburgh Castle, in Scotland, is legally a part of Nova Scotia. It was so declared in the reign of Charles I so that newly made Nova Scotian baronets could "take possession" of their lands on Nova Scotia territory.

REUNION IN NORTH CAROLINA brought together Football Player Sammy Baugh (center), who has signed a baseball contract with St. Louis Cardinals, and Coaches Johnny Vaught (left) and Ray Wolf at University of North Carolina. Baugh, Vaught and Wolf were friends at Texas Christian University, and Baugh stopped off at Chapel Hill to give the Carolina football squad a few tips on passing. Baugh is considered one of football's best passers.

BIG CROWD SEES CARNIVAL AT END SWIM PROGRAM

A crowd of 750 spectators packed the Medford natatorium Friday night to witness the huge water carnival which brought to a close the annual 10-day water-safety campaign sponsored by the local Red Cross unit under the instruction of Wayne James. Ninety-eight beginners, swimmers, junior and senior lifesaving students participated in the carnival, 64 of them being children, eight swimmers and 26 junior and senior lifesavers.

Edith Stockstill won the race across the pool, using different strokes; the merchandise prize was won by L. E. Randless; Delmar Wright won the 31 senior lifesaving award; Jack Moran won the junior lifesaving award of $1 and three senior lifesavers won season swimming passes at the natatorium. Safeway stores donated watermelons for members of the winning team in the free-for-all race.

Rare entertainment was furnished the crowd by three-year-old Beverly Jones, who gave a diving exhibition into three and a half feet of water, although she can't swim. The little tot loves to dive, and has no fear of the water, whatsoever.

Instructor James, with his beginners class, demonstrated from beginning to the point of actually swimming, as taught in the class. To win beginners badge, students had to swim across the tank.

Tests for the swimmers badge included treading water for three seconds, floating on back, diving from side of pool, swimming 100 yards, swimming 50 yards on back using feet only and diving into eight feet of water and bringing up a four-pound weight.

Badges for junior lifesavers were awarded to those who could tread water 30 seconds, float one minute, carry one minute, carry saddle back, break straight hold and demonstrate proper method of resuscitation, recover a 10-pound weight, rescue two persons locked in struggle, towing the weaker to shore and returning for the other.

Senior lifesavers had to carry a victim by the hair for 60 feet, rescue weak and frightened swimmers and give a demonstration of proper artificial respiration.

All tests were followed by a demonstration of different strokes used in swimming, dives and jumps, a candle and pie-tin race.

Miss Marjorie Kelly spoke on the importance of swimming and of the excellent work accomplished by the Red Cross classes for all ages. Joan Nagley of the CCC acted as class announcer.

Junior lifesavers winning badges were: Virginia Lovell, Regina Parsons, Naomi Jean Smith, Jack Moran, Jeanne Smith, Janice Gifford, Ear Sample, Beulah Stephenson, Dorothy Hayes, Wallace Regan, Fred Ruch, Kathryn Shelby, Dolores Smets, and Colleen Winterholder.

Deaths
HOLLYWOOD, July 16.—(AP)—Death today had cheated Jack Dunn, British champion ice skater, of the film role for which he had waited two years.

The 21-year-old captain of the British 1934 Olympic skating team died in a hospital last night of tuberculosis, a rare disease spread by rabbits, on the day he was scheduled to start his first picture.

Coming here after the Berlin games, he was signed by Universal and later by Paramount, but suitable roles did not present themselves.

While Sonja Henie, pretty young Norwegian skater with whom he appeared in skating exhibitions, rose to stardom, Dunn remained idle.

Recently he signed a new contract with Edward Small Productions and was cast in the leading role of "The Duke of West Point," production on which he had been slated to start yesterday. Upon its completion he was to have taken the part of Rudolph Valentino in a picturization of the late movie idol's life.

TWO GAMES TODAY DECIDE ENTRANT, STATE PLAYOFFS

AMERICAN Legion Junior baseball teams of Medford and Roseburg, representing the finest young talent in Jackson and Douglas counties, clash at the high school park this afternoon in a double-header to determine the entrant in the state playoffs at Woodburn in August. First game starts at 1:30 sharp, and will go nine innings. The second encounter of the series George Harrington of the Coach George Harrington of the Jackson county club said yesterday that Al Wimer, 15-year-old left-hander, would pitch the first game, and Bill Reed, right-hander, would toe the slab in the nightcap.

The program, expected to attract one of the largest baseball crowds of the year, will climax a three-game series between the two teams for the right to enter the state finals. Roseburg, boasting a terrific hitting team, defeated Medford last Sunday, 21 to 8, in the first game of the series played at Roseburg. Since then, Coach Harrington has driven his charges through intensive batting and fielding drills, and states that his club is ready to sweep the two games today and move on to Woodburn. One win for the Roseburg Legion Juniors will clinch for them the series and district championship, while the locals must take both ends to cap the title.

Saturday morning, Coach Harrington and his players worked on the turf infield, putting it into the best shape it has been all year.

Both clubs, composed of youngsters under 18 years of age, have several fine prospects on their rosters. The Roseburg team is reputedly the best developed in Douglas county in several seasons, while the local outfit, first organized here since 1932, is nevertheless, considered better than the average Legion junior club.

Medford's lineup for the first game will include Larry Schade on first, Jimmy Lewis on second, Eugene Miller on third, Bill Reed at short, Dale Howard in left, Gato Way in center and Bob Newland in right. In the second game, Al Could will be at shortstop while Reed pitches. Herb Bates will do the catching in both ballps.

Only Eyelids Burned
CLEVELAND — (UP)—Drug-store proprietor Harry Rubin likes to use himself as a guinea pig, try new nostrums before he sells them to customers. So, with that thought in mind, he smeared one brand of sunburn lotion on his right cheek, another on his left and a third on his chin and neck. Then he put on dark glasses—and fell asleep. A prankster removed the glasses. Rubin got sunburned eyelids.

BEAVERS BLANKED BY OAKS 4 TO 0

OAKLAND, Cal., July 16.—(AP)—Bob Joyce pitched his seventh shut-out and twelfth victory of the season today to give the Oakland baseball team a 4-0 score over Portland. The series now stands at 3 to 2 in favor of Portland.

Oakland scored in the first inning when Jesse Hill singled and scored on singles by Luby and Jolley. The Oaks bagged two more runs in the second and another in the seventh off southpaw George Darrow.

Darrow pitched the whole game for the Oregonians.

Score: R. H. E.
Portland 0 4 0
Oakland 4 13 2

Darrow and Dickey; Joyce and Raimondo.

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—(AP)—Bolstered by the return to action of shortstop Tommy Carey, who started double plays that put down Seattle upstarts in the eighth and ninth innings, the Hollywood Stars braced themselves today and ended their skid by defeating the visitors, 5-3.

Score: R. H. E.
Seattle 3 8 0
Hollywood 5 9 0
