Miss Leverette Dinner Dance Hostess Saturday

Miss Doreen Leverette was hostess Saturday evening at the Lithia Hotel in Ashland for one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season when she honored members of the Shakespearean Festival at a dinner and dancing party.

Guests present at the "Shakespearean Party" were Mr. and Mrs. Angus Bowmer, Mrs. Almus Pruitt, Jim Parsons, Effie Sweet, Lulu Metzger, Arden Hall, Esther Carter, Norman Hamilton, Louise DuBois, Jo Carlson, Hagen Moore, Katharine Denzer, Alice Grossman, Gordon Davis, Grace Forsyth, Tom Fairchild, Jim Baughman, Jeanne Leverette, Bill Cottrell, Frances Schilling, Bob Steadman, Audrey Lofland, George F. Smith, Kitty Ingle, Ford Hummel, Maxine Gearhart, Harry Priestley, Anns Cox, LeRoy Lindner, Aida Luebbe, Angus Moore, Dorothy Grossman, Sallie Geary, Travis Wert, Dorothy Thompson, Lucille Lambert, Frank Smith, and Melba Day.

Many of the guests and members of the festival have had a great deal of dramatic experience and have come to Ashland to participate in the festival from homes throughout the United States.

Among the notables are Angus Moore whose home is in Shawnee, Oklahoma. Mr. Moore spent the past year doing theatre work in England. He will be one of the out-standing players of the festival.

Another well known Shakespearean is Mr. Harry Priestley who has had a great deal of experience in theatre and radio work in Seattle and was formerly fencing and saber instructor at University of Washington and Cornell.

From Baker, Ore., comes Professor Hagen Moore, dramatic instructor at the Baker High school.

Many of the festival participants are enrolled, or are former students in the Cornish Dramatic school in Seattle. They include Sallie Geary, Travis Wert, Bill Cottrell, Gordon Davis, Grace Forsyth, Tom Fairchild, and Doreen Leverette. Miss Forsyth spent some time in summer stock in the Province Town theatre and Mr. Fairchild, following his graduation from Cornish, was on tour in Eastern theatres.

Another out-of-town guest at the delightful dinner dance was George A. Gates of Seattle who is a house guest at the Leverette home on South Oakdale avenue for several days.

Hephzibah and Fiance

A few hours after Lindsay Nicholas, heir to an Australian fortune, reached the side of his fiancee, Hephzibah Mennuhin, pianist and sister of the violinist, Yehudi Mennuhin, at the end of a trip from London, the couple filed application to wed. They will be married at the Mennuhin home in Los Gatos, near San Jose, Calif.

Mrs. Cone Feted At Luncheon Friday Afternoon

Mrs. Foster Cone of Portland, house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hubbard was feted Friday afternoon when Mr. Hubbard was hostess at her home on Lyman avenue for an enjoyable luncheon and bridge party.

Four tables of bridge were in play following luncheon. Mrs. J. F. Wallace and Mrs. T. E. Knackstedt received prizes for high score in bridge and Mrs. Cone was presented with a guest prize.

Mrs. Cone has been a very popular visitor in this city the past week, having been feted at a number of pleasant events. After a brief visit at the Bruce Bauer home on Queen Ann avenue, Mrs. Cone will return to her Portland home.

Mrs. Dean Pieper Hostess for Tea Wednesday

Mrs. Dean Pieper was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. George N. Piek on the Phoenix-Jacksonville highway for a pleasant tea honoring Mrs. Eugene Moffatt and Mrs. Royce Findley of Los Angeles and Hollywood, Calif.

Guests at the affair included Mrs. Moffatt, Mrs. Findley, Miss Vera Humphrey, Miss Marjorie Pisk, Mrs. John Moffatt, Mrs. Dorothy DeBoos and Mrs. Pisk.

The California guests are visitors in Medford for several weeks.

Klamath Guest Honored Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Childs were hosts at their country home Thursday evening for an informal entertainment honoring Mrs. M. E. Howe of Klamath Falls who was visiting friends in this city.

The pleasant evening was spent in conversation. Refreshments were served later. Those present were Mrs. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Hanson, and the Misses Helen and Ruth Childs. Mrs. Howe, house guest of the Ridges, returned to her home in Klamath Falls Friday.

Portland Guests Visit Relatives

Several parties have been arranged for the visitors including one Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Gordon.

The couple were feted last evening at an affair at Burgoynes' cafe at which time Mrs. Sidney Jones was hostess.

Following a visit here with relatives Mr. and Mrs. Riggs will depart for Portland Wednesday via the coast route.

Berkeley Couple Visit Relatives

Recent arrivals in Medford from their Berkeley, Calif., home are Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Piper.

The couple are visiting Mrs. Piper's parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Hargrave and her aunts, Miss Gertrude Weeks and Mrs. W. H. McGowan at the Weeks home on North Orange street.

Mr. and Mrs. Piper will vacation here for a fortnight. Mrs. Piper will be remembered in Medford by her many friends as the former Miss Gertrude Hargrave.

Store Personnel Guests at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adair and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Williams entertained at a picnic dinner Friday evening at the Adair home on South Holly street.

Guests included the personnel of the M. M. department store. Twenty-two were present.

Following a delightful picnic dinner, games were enjoyed.

Evelyn Herman Is Betrothed To Richard Watson

Mrs. M. M. Herman was hostess at her home on South Riverside avenue Wednesday evening for an enjoyable informal dinner party at which time she announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Evelyn Herman to Mr. Richard Watson.

The couple will be married at a 12 o'clock wedding Saturday, July 23 at St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Guests present at the affair Wednesday evening included the honoree, Miss Herman, Miss Maxine Robinson, Miss Jeannette McKee, Miss Everette Gillespie, Miss Mary Van Dyke, Miss Marguerite Watson, Mrs. William Knips, Miss Bethel Slagle, Mrs. Wayne Harris, Miss La Verne Stephenson, Mrs. George P. Woolley, and Miss Leabel Miller.

White Nail Polish Fashionable Touch For Sun Tan Women

By Betty Clarke
(AP Feature Service Writer)

Add another white "accessory" to your midsummer list. It's white nail polish.

The leading lady of "Amphitryon," Lynne Fontanne, started it, they say. Now it's a finger-tip rage.

White nails with a sun-tan complexion have a particularly provoking fascination—like the fascination of very blonde hair with a deep tan.

So try it out, now that you've acquired at least a part of your summer taffy-tan.

You'll have to be especially careful in applying white polish. The white must completely cover the nail, including both the moon and the tip. You'll probably find it best to apply two coats. Or, if you like, use a polish foundation as the first coat and the polish as the second.

The point is to get the white polish on smoothly ALL over the nail. Let it run up the cuticle, if necessary. Then take an orange stick, wrap a bit of cotton around the tip, dip the cotton in polish remover and take off the polish that has run over the edges.

Another white polish note: Apply your regular shade of polish to the main part of your nail as you always have done. Then tip each nail with a single stroke of white. You'll find it more effective than using nail-white under your fingertips.

Mrs. Frohnmayer Feted at Tea Wednesday

A delightful affair was held Wednesday afternoon at the George Henselman home on West Main street when members of the Child Nurse Girl Scout troop were hostesses honoring Mrs. Otto J. Frohnmayer.

Miss Vera Humphrey, leader of the group and members include the Misses Nola Harwood, Olive Eldridge, Jean Henselman, Dorothy Root, Virginia Bradford, Enid Ward and Dorothy Root.

Twenty guests called between the hours of 3 to 5 o'clock for tea. A color scheme of pink and blue was very attractive as a table centerpiece. Presiding at the tea table were Miss Root and Miss Ward, the other hostesses assisting about the rooms.

Miss Nola Harwood and Miss Olive Eldridge, accompanied on the piano by Corine Harwood, were enjoyed in several violin selections.

Members of the troop presented Mrs. Frohnmayer with a handsome gift.

Oak Grove Club Enjoys Picnic

On Wednesday, members of the Oak Grove Neighborhood club and families spent a delightful afternoon and evening at "Rogue Alure," the home of the S. E. Brill family. The women and children motored up early to enjoy the swimming and prepare the picnic dinner which was served after the husbands arrived in the evening.

A most pleasing feature of the affair was the music rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Brill and daughter Alice, while all grouped around a bonfire.

Church Circle Has Session

The circle of the First Christian church held their regular missionary meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The business session was presided over by the new president, Harry Young. A picnic is planned for July 22 for all circle members and their families.

Della Mae Dale was the program leader for the evening. The topic for consideration was "The Big City."

At the close of the session, refreshments were served.

Bridge Club Has Evening Party

Myrtle Kent entertained at her home Tuesday evening with three tables of bridge. Guests included members of the Tuesday club.

Those winning prizes were Gladys Watermire, Wilma Hayes and Alice Lewis.

Guests enjoying the affair were Verna Rawlings, Wilma Hayes, Gladys Watermire, Edith Beck, Alice Lewis, Martha Bittle, Florence Rush, Nellie Purdin, Nellie Prock, Gladys Rammann and Nellie Mellinger.

Pallettes For Ties
PARIS—(AP)—Pallettes on organdy ties to wear with tailored suits are chic. Gold pallettes flash up white organdy, to tie in style a navy wool suit worn with a sheer white lingerie blouse.

MUST BE LOVE in that grin of Alan T. Schumacher, New Yorker, whose marriage to the former Phyllis Gillespie, debutante, was a social event at Newport. R. I. Mrs. Schumacher is a sister of Eileen Gillespie, one-time fiancée of John Jacob Astor, 3d, whose engagement-breaking quarrel was society gossip for months. Eileen was maid of honor at wedding.

Brewolds Leave For Norway On Extended Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Brewold left Medford last week for an extended vacation to be spent in Norway. They went by train to San Francisco where they visited for a brief time with Mrs. Brewold's brother, Fred Teigen. From there they continued on to Chicago where they were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Martin G. Kabele. Leaving Chicago the couple will proceed to New York where they will embark upon the new ship "Oslofjord," their destination to be Oslo, Norway.

Following a visit with relatives in Oslo, Mr. and Mrs. Brewold will continue on to the northern part of Norway to the city of Hasard. Here they will visit Mr. Brewold's brother, Haakon Breivold, whom he has not seen for 22 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewold will be away about four months and expect to make the journey back to the United States on the Queen Mary. From New York they will return to their home in this city by the northern route. Prior to their trip home they will travel through Germany, France and England.

W.C.T.U. Meeting Successful Affair Thursday Afternoon

Nearly fifty members and guests of the W. C. T. U. enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. A. E. Brockway and her mother, Mrs. Ira C. Jones, at their home on Stewart avenue, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Minnie Bryant, president of the society presided. The devotional service was led by Mrs. L. E. Bailey, who gave a fine talk on "Bridge-building," closing with a poem, "Those Who Came After." Mrs. Bailey and her daughter Leslie sang a duet, "Doing His Will."

Mrs. Ina Renker, chairman of the flower and relief committee gave a reading explaining the aims and work of the department. Leslie Bailey read an article, "The Life of Jennie Cassidy," which is the story of the founding of flower-mission work in the W. C. T. U. by Frances E. Willard.

Mrs. Clara Caultkins presented Miss Lois Herman in a solo, "In the Garden," accompanied by Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang. This was followed by a playlet given by Olive Caultkins, Alma Rogers, Edna Knowles and Edna Renner. Little Joan Harrison played "Blue Bells of Scotland" and "In My Little Wooden Shoes" on her accordion.

Greetings were given by several of the guests: Mrs. N. L. Peet and daughter of Pasadena, who are house-guests of Mrs. Peet's niece, Mrs. Brockway; Mrs. E. M. Harris of Los Angeles, all of whom are active in W. C. T. U. work. Mrs. Jones reported having been a charter member of a Minneapolis union for fifty years. Mrs. Little Daily, a former member of the local society, Mrs. Maddox of Seattle and Mrs. Viall of Phoenix all brought greetings.

Mrs. Brockway, assisted by her mother and her sister, Mrs. E. N. Walden served food, fruit juice and cookies. The August meeting will commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Medford W. C. T. U. and a special program is being prepared for the occasion.

Chinese historical records state that silkworms were reared as long ago as 2650 B.C., and the production of silk was a jealously guarded secret for nearly 3,000 years until—according to legend—a Chinese princess who married in Khotan succeeded, at the risk of her life, in carrying with her eggs of the silkworm and seeds of the mulberry tree on which it feeds.

Applegate Home Scene of Party Honoring Guests

Mrs. W. E. Haskins was hostess at a pleasant informal gathering at her Applegate home Thursday evening honoring her house guests, Misses Luella Hiel and Mary Lohnes of Pekin, Ill., and Miss Lysta Garver of Yuma, Arizona. The evening was spent in playing lexicon and other games for which prizes were awarded.

Those enjoying the occasion were Mrs. and Mrs. W. A. Gates of Medford; Mrs. Benjamin H. Schmidt and daughters, Joyce, Barbara and Jacqueline of Ontario, Cal., who are vacationing on the Applegate, and Misses Gladys Byrne, Louise Harr and Maude Pool of Applegate. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by little Miss Jacqueline Schmidt.

The Illinois guests, who are making their first visit to the west, were enthusiastic in their praise of Oregon's scenic beauty. They left for Portland Friday on their homeward journey. Miss Garver arrived by motor Thursday, departing Saturday.

'THE RAZOR WAVE' NEW HAIR STYLE, ATTRACTS WOMEN

"The razor wave," latest hair style featured at Mann's Beauty salon is creating a great deal of discussion among Medford women. Peola, Mann's hair stylist, says about the new wave, "there is no mystery about this business of cutting hair for waves. Waves—soft ones that can very easily be trained in almost any hair if it is relieved of weight and cut short enough and tapered sufficiently."

Peola just returned from Portland where he made a thorough study of all the so-called "scissor" waves and found that this is the same type of cut wave that he has been giving so successfully for more than 10 years.

For "mildly" that likes soft, natural waves they will find that "the razor wave" is ideal. Peola has trained all of Mann's operators in the art of arranging this latest and most convenient hair style.

Retail Sales Drop During Past Week

PORTLAND, July 16. (AP)—A decline in retail sales amounting to about 10 per cent, compared to those of the preceding weeks, occurred here in the past week. Dun's review said today. Food market purchases were off 12 to 15 per cent. Electrical supply sales were off 42 per cent for the year from 1937 and collections were 30 per cent below normal. In the lumber industry, production was running at 43 per cent of 1937.

Helps for Housewives

Has your aluminum ware become discolored? Try this method of "restoring": In the discolored utensils place six lemon halves from which the juice has been removed. Fill with water and let the water and lemon halves simmer for 25 minutes. Drain, and then wash the utensil in warm water and soap suds. You'll find it will shine like new.

To make a novel, colorful, summer salad, stuff dark seeded cherries with white cream cheese. Serve 12 per portion on crisp lettuce leaves. Add a thick French dressing.

Cocktail tidbit for men: Spread crackers or toast bits with butter that has been creamed and mixed with a bit of minced parsley, celery and green peppers. Top with sardines combined with salad dressing. Garnish with tiny pearl onions.

Want to save time and effort on hot summer days? Cook potatoes and vegetables in "double batches." You may then use them in all sorts of combinations, as well as in stews or salads.

Here's d'oeuvre note: Stick freshly-toasted walnut halves together with yellow cream cheese.

We Arrange every detail with quiet refinement when we are called upon to serve meetings emergencies at any time. No details overlooked.
