

15-Day Increase Ordered in Duck Hunting Season--Bag Limit Up

CHANGE PERMITS 45-DAY SHOOTING MIGRATORY BIRDS

Season Will Open October 15 and Close November 28—Baiting and Three-Shell Restrictions Kept

WASHINGTON, July 19.—(AP)—An increase of 15 days in the duck and other migratory fowl hunting season this fall was announced yesterday by the biological survey.

The season on ducks, geese, jack-snipe and coot will start that much earlier, allowing a 45-day season instead of the 30 days permitted the last three years.

The order was approved by the president and Secretary Wallace on the basis of a bureau investigation of waterfowl conditions.

The intermediate zone, including Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho and Montana, order prescribed dates from October 15 to November 28. The order also increased the number of ducks allowed in the hunters' possession daily to two bags of 10 birds each, instead of one bag of 10 birds each. The restrictions on the number of waterfowl the hunter may kill in one day was continued at 10.

A few canvasback, ruddy, redhead and bufflehead ducks which have been fully protected the past two years, may be shot. Three of one of these species, or three in the aggregate of the species, may be taken in one day and twice that amount will be permitted in the hunter's possession.

Dr. Ira N. Gabrielson, chief of the biological survey, said past restrictions, including prohibition of baiting waterfowl and doves and the use of more than three shells on repeating and automatic shotguns, would be continued.

TOP RANK TEAMS TO CLASH TONIGHT

Games Tonight
Division A
Wooden Boxmen vs. Catholic Men, 8 p. m.
Piche vs. Timber Products, 9 p. m.
Division B
Zoric vs. Lewis Super Service, 8 p. m.
Elks vs. Western States Grocery, 9 p. m.

Division A softball's spirited pentagon race enjoys one of its most crucial programs tonight at the stadium, with four of the top-flight clubs clashing in a pair of battles expected to draw the largest crowd of the season.

Wooden Boxmen and Catholic Men face off at 8 p. m. with Morris Steiner on no hit, no run fame opposing Father Meyer, ace Catholic hurler.

At 9 o'clock, the league-leading and undefeated Timber Products club meets Piche's hustling youngsters.

Division B encounters see Zoric, once more back in the lower bracket, facing Lewis Super Service at 8 o'clock, and Elks and Western States Grocery coming to grips an hour later.

Cliff "Chief" McLean, Timber Products slugger, retained his Division A batting leadership during games of last week. The Indian star is hitting .515. Following are the averages for players batting .300 or better and going to the plate 10 or more times:

TEAM GRAPPLING TO FEATURE CARD

Sockeye Jack McDonald and Joe Smolinski will combine their wrestling efforts against Sgt. Bob Kenaston and Frank Kelly, in the girls team match slated for the open-air inaugural under the stars at the high school stadium next Monday night. Promoter Mack Lillard announced today. All are well known to local wrestling fans with the exception of Kelly, who hails from San Francisco and is reputedly a brilliant, clean and scientific workman.

The two teams will grapple four out of six falls, with a fall occurring when one man is pinned by the other team. The bout will have a one-hour time limit.

In an Australian system opening attraction, Benny Wilson of Texas and All Pasha of Hindustan will go six 10-minute rounds at the best two out of three falls.

Billy Hulien says:

Klamath Mentor Gives His Squad Tough Schedule

Big, blonde, good-natured Arthur "Snowy" Gustafson, the gentleman who controls the destiny of Klamath Union high school's football team, must be suffering from an acute case of optimism. Either that, or the guy really figures his Pelicans are ready to hit the high spots this fall.

Billy Hulien

Although it's a little early to be taking football seriously, especially during this current heat blast, which isn't conducive to any manner or form of serious thought, worthy of a little mention is the 1938 Pelican pigskin schedule, released the other day. It's a "killer-diller," no mistake. If Gustafson's gang wades through without a defeat, there'll be no doubt as to a mythical state champion.

The Pelicans face nine foes this coming autumn, and only their annual Lakeview "breather" can be considered anything but a barrel of trouble. It's the most ambitious slate attempted by a Klamath Falls machine in years and years, which ought to mean something. In our humble opinion, it means that Snowy has turned into an optimistic lunatic. We just can't bring ourselves to believe the Pelicans will have a team to cope with that kind of a schedule. You never can tell, though.

Anyway, in addition to clashing with their regular Southern Oregon conference opponents—Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass—the Klamathites shoot the works with encounters with The Dalles, Bend, Pendleton, Eureka, Cal., and Hill Military academy of Portland. The latter two teams will be facing Klamath for the first time in history.

That's a plenty tough schedule. Snowy can be sure he won't find any soft touches among Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass, and everybody knows the calibre of football clubs produced in Eureka and Bend. The Dalles is a pretty consistent winner, as is Pendleton. Hill Military usually ranks with the better high school outfits.

One thing Snowy has done, though, to ease things, is to bring seven of those nine opponents to Klamath Falls. With the exception of Medford and Ashland, all Pelican games will be played in their own nest, which might make considerable difference when the wins and losses are tabulated. Klamath Falls will be lucky to escape three defeats, we predict.

Here is the schedule:
Sept. 16—Hill Military academy at Klamath Falls.
Sept. 23—Lakeview at Klamath Falls.
Sept. 30—The Dalles at Klamath Falls.
Oct. 7—Grants Pass at Klamath Falls.
Oct. 14—Klamath Falls at Ashland.
Oct. 21—Klamath Falls at Medford.
Oct. 28—Pendleton at Klamath Falls.
Nov. 4—Eureka at Klamath Falls.
Nov. 11—Bend at Klamath Falls.

All Klamath's home games, with the possible exception of the Armistice clash with Bend, will be played on Friday nights. In fact, all southern Oregon conference embroglios will undoubtedly be on under the stars and glimmers this season, now that Ashland has the area.

The Klamath Falls coaching staff will be the same this season with one exception. Frank Ramsey, 210-pound All-Coast guard at Oregon State college last year, has been added to the staff and will mentor the junior varsity Wildcats. Buck Hammer, a member, ex-Oregon Stater, will again act as Snowy's assistant.

The Pelicans will be playing on turf this season for the first time, having followed in Medford's footsteps and laid down a beautiful blanket of green grass for the boys to tumble around on.

SET FINAL DATE FOR CLAIM AGAINST BANK

An order barring filing of claims against the Citizens Bank of Ashland, now in process of liquidation after August 11 next, was signed Monday by Circuit Judge H. D. Norton, upon motion of the state bank examiner. The bank closed in March, 1932. The petition sets forth the action will facilitate final closing of liquidation.

It is also stated that 85 per cent of the commercial department claims have been paid, and 80 per cent of the savings department claims.

RED CROSS GIVES 47 BOYS OF CCC LIFE SAVER RANK

Badges Presented at Water Carnival Marking End of Aquatic School—Graduates to Teach Others

Forty-seven CCC enrollees of Medford district camps were today in possession of Red Cross badges showing they had qualified as senior life-savers at the annual aquatic school conducted last week at Twin Plunges in Ashland.

The badges were presented at the water carnival held at Twin Plunges Saturday night, as the wind-up of the aquatic school. Fifty-seven enrollees attended the school, only 10 failing to pass the senior life-saving tests. A large crowd of spectators attended the carnival.

Bullis Leads School
The badges were given to the youths by Seth M. Bullis, first-aid chairman of the Jackson county chapter, American Red Cross. Mr. Bullis spoke of the value of the school and highly praised the boys and their instructors.

A event not on the program occurred when Walter F. Meyer, enrollee from Camp Whitmore, failed to come to the surface after making a plunge for distance. He was quickly rescued and suffered no ill-effects. Winners in the carnival event were:

100-foot breast stroke—Albert N. Jackson, Camp Klamath.
Plunge for distance—Albert B. Crittenden, Gasquet.
Ring buoy rescue (demonstration)—Hunter W. Dixon, Wineglass.
100-foot side stroke, with one arm out of water as in towing a drowning victim—Herschell H. Bell, Diamond Lake.
Diving contest—Charles R. Griffith, Bly.
100-foot elementary back stroke, with both hands out of water as in towing a drowning victim—William M. Cannon, Gasquet.
Comic diving (exhibition)—Warren T. Demeritt, leaf.
Under water distance swim—Clyde C. Carhtensen, Orleans.
Exhibition diving—Chuck Price and Wesley Crump of Twin Plunges.
200-foot free style—Carl B. Brey, Halls Plat.
Bathing beauty contest—Jerome E. Keunster, Orleans.
Free style relay—Ninth corps area team.

Win Swim Suits
Prizes were swim suits. They were awarded by Miss Dawn Orent, daughter of Maj. George R. Owens, district commander.

The carnival program also included demonstrations of various life-saving techniques and a watermelon scramble in the pool.
Instructors for the school were Lieut. Dewitt E. Snow, Jr., of Camp Wineglass and John R. Patook, educational adviser at Camp Whitmore, Cal.

Graduates of the school are to teach enrollees at the camps.

SCHENCK IS LOW IN EGAN TOURNEY

Orin Schenck, with a net 61 for the first 13 holes, was the low scorer among all entrants in the H. Chandler Egan Memorial tournament which got under way at the Rogue Valley Golf club last week-end. Schenck grossed an 85, with a 24 handicap.

J. S. Johnson was second low scorer with a net 63, and Sebastian Apollo was right behind with a 31. Among the low handicap players, George Harrington capped a brilliant par-70 Sunday morning, giving him a net 65 with his 5-handicap.

The tourney consists of 72 holes, with full handicap allowed.

Old Man Par Bests Youthful Golfers

PORTLAND, July 19.—(AP)—Oregon's junior golfers took their turn at battling par yesterday with the opening of the state junior tournament on the Alderwood golf course, but even the medalists failed to equal it.

Elmer Steiger, Portland, was low in the junior division with 38-36-74. The boys' section medalist honors were divided between Fred Smith and Jack Schuler, both of Portland, with 75's.

Carol "Babe" Freese, Portland, finished with an 83 to take medalist honors in the girls' division by two strokes.

Fig Thief Shot
MONMOUTH, Ill.—(AP)—A golden eagle with a seven-foot wing spread was shot and killed by Arthur Fry near here after the bird had stolen several pigs weighing more than 25 pounds.

Plain John Fan Given Break On "Bowl" Tickets

PASADENA, Cal., July 19.—(AP)—The football public, denied the right to buy tickets to the Rose Bowl game last New Year's day, got a break from the Pacific coast conference today.

Mr. Ordinary Fan, even though his alma mater was the school of hard knocks, will have a chance to get one of the 35,000 seats reserved for public sale at the next renewal of the grid classic.

They amount to 40 percent of the Rose Bowl's total seating capacity, 85,000.
Fifty percent of the seats will be allotted to the university whose team represents the conference in the "east-west" game.
The remaining 10 percent will be reserved for the press and other official groups, including the school representing the "east."

The chief bridge of Venice is the Rialto, spanning the Grand canal. It is 74 feet long and 32 feet high.

NEW THREE-WAY FIGHT SEEN IN SECOND HALF SO. OREGON SCHEDULE

Southern Oregon League.

Team	W.	L.	Pct.	GB*
Medford	2	0	1.000	—
Crescent City	2	0	1.000	—
Grants Pass	2	0	1.000	—
Ashland	0	2	.000	2
Yreka	0	2	.000	2
Glendale	0	2	.000	2

*Games behind leader.

Southern Oregon league's big three Medford, Crescent City and Grants Pass—hit the road last Sunday for encounters with the trio of second-division clubs, and after all shooting is over it looks like the second-half burrap race will develop into another triple battle, the same as the first-half.

Crescent City showed its class by wallowing Yreka, 10 to 4, behind the excellent hurling of Mike Koll, who notched his eighth victory of the year to one defeat. Grants Pass proved it could come from behind, by rallying for four runs in the ninth to defeat the Ashland Lithians, minus the services of Patterson, Simpson and Ager, 11 to 10. Medford won by the forfeit score of 9 to 0, when Glendale became mixed up in its location of the game and traveled to Medford, while the Craters were in Glendale, prepared to play.

One of those three top teams will be belted from the undefeated ranks next Sunday, when Crescent City travels to Grants Pass for the first "trochout" game in this half. Medford clashes with its bitter enemy Ashland—at Ashland, and Glendale and Yreka battle it out for a cellar spot at Yreka.

GRAY AND KOLBERG IN LINE FOR GRID CLASSIC

PORTLAND, July 19.—(AP)—Joe Gray and Elmer Kolberg, Oregon State college football players, remained in the running today for positions on the collegiate team to play the Washington professional Redskins at Chicago August 31.

Gray polled 40,000 votes and was major contender for backfield posi-

Bowlers Will Form City Association

All local bowlers, especially team captains, are requested to meet at the Medford alleys Wednesday night at 8 o'clock for the purpose of forming a city bowling association and electing officers.

All leagues this year will be officially sanctioned by the A. B. C., according to Earl Sims, manager of the establishment.

Plenty Of Help For Farm Work

WASHINGTON, July 19.—(AP)—The bureau of agricultural economics said yesterday the supply of farm workers exceeded by 25 percent the demand in Oregon, Washington and California.

Oregon wages rates July 1 were $1.85 a day with board, and $2.40 without board. Day wages in California and Washington were slightly higher.
