

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Visits Here - Mrs. Denny Jester of Grants Pass visited in Medford yesterday.

From Oakland - Carl Craft, salesman from Oakland, Cal., was in Medford today calling on customers.

On Vacation Again - Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Sheets and daughter Eleanor left Tuesday for an extended vacation trip east to Iowa, south to Texas and home by way of southern California.

From Eugene - Lud Axland of Eugene, southern division manager of General Foods, Inc., is transacting business in this city for several days. He is registered at the Hotel Medford.

Has Appendectomy - Kenneth Milhoan of Central Point is confined in the Osteopathic hospital where he underwent an appendectomy Sunday. He is recovering satisfactorily. Attendants said today.

In Hospital - Mrs. Beth Hamaker of 228 E. street, Ashland, is confined in the Osteopathic hospital where she recently had her tonsils excised. Miss Beth Klinge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingcade of Route 3, also had her tonsils removed at the Osteopathic clinic yesterday.

Vacation Ends - Ward McReynolds of Talent, state examiner of automobiles drivers in charge of the southern Oregon district, resumed his duties yesterday after a fortnight's vacation. Mr. McReynolds spent most of his vacation fishing in streams and lakes of southern Oregon.

and her two children, Seely, Jr., and Owen, arriving here by United Airliner this morning from Chicago via San Francisco. Mr. Hall is superintendent of United Air Lines at Chicago. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Court Hall, are well known Rogue valley residents.

Here for Visit - Mrs. Seely Hall from Klamath-Miss Velma Sauer of Klamath Falls is spending a few days working here in Adrienne's beauty salon. Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Steward, accompanied by Miss Sauer, Joan Stoer and Patricia Hayea, enjoyed a trip to Crater lake and Diamond lake.

On Vacation - Miss Jenes Jensen of 418 South Park street left yesterday by motorcar with her sisters, Mrs. W. A. Woods and Miss Margaret Jensen, to be the first vacation guest at their home in Sausalito, Cal. Her sisters had been visiting their parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Jens Jensen.

Minor Mishaps - Cars driven by Frank H. Hansen of Route 4 and John T. Parton of Phoenix were involved in a slight mishap on East Main street Monday evening, a city police report showed. R. L. Humphrey of Route 2 and Harold R. Lutz of Route 2 operated machines colliding with minor damage on North Fourth street early this morning, according to police reports.

Eulogized - Thomas M. Robinson, a native of Central Point, is eulogized in the current issue of the Pacific Woodman, published by the Woodmen of the World. Mr. Robinson died last month in his home at Berkeley, Cal. He had attained national eminence in the Woodman of the World. Son of an army officer, he was born in Central Point on February 28, 1858. He moved during his youth to Oakland, Cal.

To Fish Here - Walter P. Nicol of San Francisco and C. F. Nicole of Gilroy, Cal., arrived in Medford yesterday to take advantage of the fishing season. They attempted to reach the Bowne cabin on Rogue river but found that the road was blocked by fallen trees. The two men are staying at the Flycatcher on the Rogue river. Mr. Bowne is well known in Medford, having lived here for a number of years. The visitors expect to remain here a week.

Overnight Visitors - Ivan Oakea, assistant WPA administrator for Oregon, and Harold D. Grey, official of the division of employment, were overnight Medford visitors. They arrived by car from their Portland headquarters yesterday afternoon and continued this morning to San Francisco to attend a WPA conference. They were accompanied by their wives. Mr. and Mrs. Grey are former Medford residents. The group planned to return to Portland via the coast route over the week-end.

Driver Tests - Applicants for licenses or permits to operate cars will be examined at Medford city hall from 8 to 5 Wednesday and Thursday this week. It was announced today by Ward McReynolds, state examiner in charge of the southern Oregon district. Willard C. Bush will be the examiner in charge Wednesday and Thursday and applicants are asked to consult him in council chambers on the top floor of city hall. Examinations are held here every Saturday but Mr. McReynolds said that as many applicants as possible should try to take their tests Wednesday and Thursday in order to relieve the congestion on Saturday. Those who apply Wednesday or Thursday do not have to wait long for their examinations, he pointed out. Usually there are more than 80 applicants every Saturday, where as only 15 to 20 have been applying on the other days.

Enlist in Army

Announcement was made today of the United States army enlistment of Richard G. Meserang of Central Point and Alvin L. Peterman of Prospect. Both youths were accepted tentatively for army service July 13 by Sgt. Willis S. Estep, in charge of the recruiting station in city hall here. They were sent to Portland for their final qualifying examinations which they passed. They were formally enlisted July 16, both choosing to serve with the 7th Infantry at Vancouver Barracks, Wash.

Wall St. Report

STOCKS NEW YORK, July 19.—(AP)—Stocks zoomed today the atmosphere in today's market with gains of 1 to more than 4 points pushing leaders at new tops since last October.

Profit taking cut down top marks at the last, but favorites were well in front at the sound of the final gong.

Restatement of the mid-year "boom" on the broadest scale of the year today was a further response, brokers said, to the much brighter prospects for business recovery as exemplified by the brisk upturn in steel mill operations, building construction and retail spending.

Today's closing prices for 32 selected stocks follow:

Table of stock prices: Al. Chem. & Dye, Am. Can., Am. & Pgm. Pow., A. T. & T., Anaconda, Atch. T. & S. F., Bendix Div., Beth. Steel, Caterpillar Tract., Chrysler, Coml. GIRL OF 5 MIMICS BIRD CALLS ABLY

CONNEAUT, O.—(UP)—Five-year-old Robin Grove Somers, musical by name and temperament, possesses the unusual ability of being able to whistle without using her lips, by contracting the muscles of her throat.

Robbie's strange talent two years ago. She noticed that the child made a whistling sound through her throat when she called her dog.

Mrs. Hedrick and Robin's mother took the little girl to Hollywood. She studied at a school of whistling here and learned to imitate bird calls.

Robin now has a whistling range of two and one-half octaves. Mrs. Hedrick and Mrs. Somers intend to have Robin continue with her study of whistling.

Actor Walburn To Try Luck In Rogue

Raymond Walburn, Hollywood film actor, arrived here by train this morning to spend a week or 10 days fishing on the Rogue river. He is the guest of William Staples at his home near Trail.

Walburn said he had heard of the excellent fishing in southern Oregon and got away from Hollywood at the first opportunity to try his luck.

His latest film role was in Harold Lloyd's "Professor Beware," which is to be shown here within the next two or three weeks.

DISMISSAL OF CASES MAIN AIM OF JUDGE

ATHENS, Ga.—(UP)—Judge Vincent Matthews of police court had the stripes taken off prisoners at the city stockade.

Now he is trying to see how many cases he can dismiss. If he can't dismiss the charge, he tries to put the offender on probation.

"My idea," he explains, "is that the chief aim of police court should be to make good citizens. Give the fellow another chance if you can."

"This policy picks the end of the old rock-pile, spick-and-shoulder beats for conducting the court."
