

Roseburg Juniors Ineligible - - Medford Boys District Champions

LOCALS TO CLASH WITH EUGENEANS HERE ON SUNDAY

Failure to Register Players With State Legion Committee Before Deadline Is Cause of Difficulty

Because officials of the Roseburg American Legion junior baseball team failed to register their players with the state legion committee by June 30, the deadline, the Douglas county team has been declared ineligible for competition in the state playoffs and Medford's Legion junior team has been named champions of district 4, according to a letter received by Bob Ebel, baseball chairman of the local post, from Bob Robison of Portland, chairman of the state American Legion baseball committee.

As a result of this, Coach George Harrington's Jackson county team will clash with the Eugene American Legion junior team here next Sunday afternoon, the winner of two out of three games to represent districts 3 and 4 in the state playoffs at Woodburn, August 6 and 7.

The Eugene and Medford clubs will play two five-inning games on the high school field, the first starting at 1 o'clock sharp. In case the teams divide the double-header, a third five-inning affair will be staged the same afternoon to decide the sectional championship.

ROSEBURG, Ore., July 21.—(AP)—W. H. Gerretsen, chairman of the American Legion junior baseball committee at Roseburg, reported today he had not been advised of any action by the state committee eliminating the Roseburg team. A protest of any such decision, he said, would be made immediately.

Late rains, preventing organization of a team, coupled with delays caused by inauguration of a supervised recreational program for Roseburg, prevented filing of credentials within the time specified by the state committee, which was so notified in advance, Gerretsen said.

The Roseburg team won from Medford in three straight games, one here and two at Medford.

PRUITT ELECTED BOWLING LEADER

Representatives of the various bowling leagues of the city met at the Medford bowling alleys last night for the purpose of organizing a city bowling association. The association is being organized with the objective of becoming affiliated with the National American Bowling Congress.

Officers of the organization were elected as follows:

Boy Pruitt, president; Stanley Stark, vice-president; Maurice Green, secretary-treasurer.

Captains of all the teams in the league are to meet with their sponsors and officers of the association at the Medford alleys again on Wednesday, July 27, to complete plans for the organization and for the coming season.

American Athletes Go Well In Sweden

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, July 21.—(AP)—A strong team of touring track athletes from the United States started the second day of the international meet here with a handsome lead over competitors from all over Europe.

Led by Ben Johnson, Chuck Fenske and Fred Wolcott, the invaders took five of yesterday's seven opening events. Johnson, captain of Columbia's track team, won the 100 meters in 10.4 to start his teammates off.

Norville May Will Coach Astoria High

May coached all sports at Springfield and Milwaukee. He was graduated from the University of Oregon in 1930.

Hartnett Replaces Grimm As Chicago Cubs Manager

CHICAGO, July 21.—(AP)—Gabby Hartnett went to work today on a job he had lost hope of getting—manager of Chicago's Cubs.

Steadily for two years—until late yesterday when he announced Charles Grimm's outright release—Owner P. K. Wrigley had said his next manager would not be chosen from the Cub roster; that none of the players would be elevated from the ranks.

Wrigley even had asserted a willingness to release the 37-year-old Charles Grimm when the veteran catcher's name was mentioned prominently for manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers and the Cincinnati Reds.

But Gabby, Wrigley now says, is the man "who could do the most for the club." The owner of the Cubs added that he had lost a lot of sleep over his athletes' misfortunes this year.

Wrigley said Grimm "has done a great job," but that a change would be "best for the organization." Grimm will be paid until his contract expires December 31. Somewhat downcast, the jovial former first baseman left for his Missouri farm and hoped to make some connection with another major league club.

He succeeded Rogers Hornsby as manager August 2, 1932, and piloted the Cubs to pennants in that year and in 1935. His only comment on his release was a brief "that's baseball." He had a broad grin and a slap on the back for his close friend Hartnett.

Gabby Hartnett.

Billy Hulen says:

Steelhead Start Summer Run Up Rogue Waters

Devotees of the most honorable art of fishing for steelhead with flies won't have to wait much longer for the big summer run in Rogue river, according to Joe Wharton's weekly bulletin from Grants Pass.

Joe reports that Frank Colvin of Gold Beach sends the great news that there are thousands of steelhead in the lower river, weighing from 6 to 14 pounds, and that all are headed upstream. Which means that in not many more weeks fly-fishermen will be going to town in the upper stretches of the stream.

Angling in the river near Grants Pass has not been too good the past week, due to the continued hot days and abundance of natural food in the water. However, fair catches of small trout have been reported in the mornings and evenings with small flies. Further up the river, in the vicinity of Trail and California-on-the-Rogue, where Glen Woodridge is stationed, nimrods have been enjoying considerably better success, a number of excellent catches being reported, both of steelhead and salmon.

Grappling Promoter Mack Lillard, returning the other day from a 13-day trip through the Pacific northwest, reports that wrestling shows no sign of turning up its heels in most of the Washington, Idaho and Montana hot spots. In contacts with other promoters in those states, Lillard said he learned that the game is drawing better than at any time since 1932, and that only in a few scattered localities are crowds dwindling.

One of the main reasons for the continued popularity of the industry in the northwest are the team matches being staged, the local maestro explained. "Facts really go for them," he remarked, "and they have proved the most sensational of all types of bouts."

While in Yakima, Wash., Lillard enjoyed a visit with Bill Bolger, former manager of the J. C. Penney store here and head of a Penney branch in that city. Mack had a chance to buy the promotional franchise in Yakima, he said, but refused on the grounds that he is well satisfied with the situation here and in Klamath Falls. While on the subject of franchisees, Mack said he had learned that Les Wolfe, who retired from the ring about a year ago to

SOCKEYE IN TRIM FOR TEAM MATCH MONDAY EVENING

Sockeye Jack McDonald is physically ready for that spectacular team battle at the high school stadium next Monday night in wrestling's open-air inaugural.

In fact, the huge and popular Seattle lumberjack is in such sharp trim that he exclaimed yesterday, "Boy, I feel just like a tiger." Since leaving a local hospital July 3, where he received treatment for a bad case of infection on his left shinbone, Sockeye has been doing nothing else but whip himself into tip-top shape for the resumption of local mat wars. He is tipping the scales at 196 pounds now, and figures to be a hard, tough nut when the gong sounds Monday evening about 9 o'clock or thereabouts.

Each and every day for the past week or so, Sockeye has been taking a good workout in the waters of the Applegate river near McKee bridge. Then, a long sunbath along the beach. After that, a hike of several miles up through rough and brushy terrain, back again and thence home. Starting tomorrow, he is going to play with a pitchfork and a couple of fields of hay for two days to finish off his training program. If he isn't in the best condition of his career by Monday, it won't be his fault.

Sgt. Bob Kenaston, Gold Hill marine who has been belting them over in main events at Hollywood and in main events at Hollywood and in main events at Hollywood, is expected to arrive here Sunday, as is Polish Palooka Joe Smolinski, also making the trip from southern Cal. and Flash Kelly, a newcomer from San Francisco. McDonald and Smolinski will face Kenaston and Kelly in the team battle, first ever to be staged in southern Oregon.

All Pasha, clever, turbaned grappler from Hindustan, and Benny Wilson of Texas meet in the opening attraction, going six 10-minute rounds or two out of three falls.

UNCERTAIN BEAVERS NOSE OUT SERAPHS IN SEE-SAW BATTLE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—(AP)—The uncertain Portland Beavers tripped the Pacific Coast league leading Los Angeles last night, 6 to 3, in a see-sawing thriller.

Portland's win reduced the Angels' leadership to two games as a timely ninth inning double-play nipped a San Francisco rally and enabled the second-place Sacramento Solons to take a 6 to 3 decision.

The Angels took an early lead, putting a run across in the first inning. The Beavers came back in their half of the inning to tie the score after Manager Bill Sweeney hit a triple and score on a single. The Portland club then scored again in the third and fourth.

Still in the ball game, the Angels knotted the count when Johnny Moore smashed one over the right-field fence with a teammate aboard. Manager Sweeney again stepped into the breach in the fifth inning when he scored Bill Cronin from third on a single. The Beavers finally tied up the game with two more runs on four hits in the last of the eighth.
