JAMES ROOSEVELT TO BARE BUSINESS INCOME RECORDS
FACTS TO BE MADE PUBLIC IN REPLY TO ARTICLE
ISOLATION FROM CLASS AFFECTS BOTH F. R. SON
FATHER'S LEADERSHIP LAID TO FREEDOM FROM GROUPS

WASHINGTON, July 25.—At his own order, certified copies of James Roosevelt's income tax returns have been sent by the treasury to Collier's Weekly. Young Roosevelt has also made available the full records of his insurance firm, Roosevelt and Sargent. He is, in fact, preparing to answer the famous Saturday Evening Post article on his business debts by giving the pertinent facts to the public.

No matter what the final verdict, it will be a good thing to have the facts in the open. There has been too much idle and often poisonous talk already. And as long as Jimmy Roosevelt is a public figure of some importance, it's only proper that the public should have the facts to pass on.

Pending the entry of all the facts in the record, discussion of James Roosevelt's business life is foolish. But, since everyone seems to be stooping up sides for and against him, this is a pretty good time to try to see what sort of fellow he really is.

It may seem strange, but one of the basic psychological facts about the president, and the central fact about Jimmy, is a curious personal isolation. At gatherings of the apocryphal rich, you hear the Roosevelts denounced as "traitors to their class." Yet, in a very real sense, they are more outsiders from their class than traitors to it.

The truth is that, among "people of their own sort," to borrow the phrase of the apocryphal critics, neither the president nor his son was ever popular. By birth and breeding, they belong to a small caste of established, prosperous eastern families, a group of tribes whose male members may be seen behind the club windows in Boston, New York and Philadelphia. Speaking generally, these people never liked the president, and they have never liked Jimmy.

The president, for example, is supposed to have had a happy, popular time at Harvard. He may have had, yet he failed of election to the college club to which his father be-

PUERTO RICANS LAUNCH ATTACK DURING PARADE

Two Killed and 20 Are Injured When Police Return Fire of Nationalist Partisans in Large Crowd

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(AP) Governor Blanton Winship informed the war department today "everything is now quiet" after the attempt made on his life at Ponce, Puerto Rico. His message, relayed through the governor's office at San Juan, said 15 shots were fired from the crowd.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(AP) Major-General Blanton Winship, 68, governor of Puerto Rico, escaped an assassin's bullet at Ponce today while he was reviewing a parade.

Preliminary telephone reports to the governor's palace here said neither Governor Winship nor any member of his party was injured.

Police immediately returned the fire from among large crowds watching celebrations of the 40th anniversary of the landing of American troops in the Spanish-American war.

At least two persons were killed and 20 injured. The police killed one man, believed to have been one of the party that started the firing.

Lieut. Col. Henry of the Puerto Rico national guard was wounded fatally.

Among the injured were Miguel Garcia Mendez, speaker of the house of representatives, and Francisco Lopez Dominguez, commissioner of agriculture and commerce.

Palace officials said arrests had been made but they had not yet been informed how many.

They said the first shot was believed to have been fired by a member of the nationalist party, the group demanding independence for the United States' insular possession.

Order Soon Restored

Order quickly was restored, they said. Governor Winship remained in the reviewing stand and the celebration continued.

An American naval officer, from the aircraft carrier Enterprise, was reported to be one of eight persons taken to hospitals with injuries.

The shooting did not interrupt the parade, and the marchers continued to pass the reviewing stand with few of them knowing what had occurred.

The nationalists had opposed the anniversary celebration and issued a manifesto calling a meeting for tonight to protest against it.

It was in Ponce on Palm Sunday, last year, nationalists and police clashed. Twenty-one persons were killed and more than 100 injured in that clash.

Old Sol Relents After Attempt to Parboil Valley

The temperature took another slight dip yesterday, dropping to 95 degrees, two under Saturday's maximum. Today the mercury was keeping about even with yesterday's, the 1:41 p. m. readings both being 90 degrees.

Real relief from the protracted heat wave was felt during the night when the temperature dropped to 55.

Humidity was slightly higher than it was yesterday. Early this afternoon it was 24 per cent as against 20 per cent at the same time yesterday.

LANDSLIDE WINNER PROMISES TEXANS HE'LL BE REGULAR

Gubernatorial Aspirant Who Campaigned With Hill Billy Band Disclaims Aim to Become Dictator

DALLAS, July 25.—(AP)—W. Lee O'Daniel, 48, a novice politician who made a shambles of Texas political precedent, today assured his public he would be a "regular fellow" as governor and scoffed at the possibility of a dictatorship.

Mired indirectly in the O'Daniel landslide were two potent members of congress, tart-tongued Maury Maverick and Morgan Sanders, who were slated for eventual chairmanship of the powerful house ways and means committee.

Fourteen infants already had been named for O'Daniel, a political babe-in-arm.

Clear Majority

Latest Texas election bureau reports gave him 432,502 votes, a clear majority of 17,963 over eleven opponents.

A candidate who receives a majority of all votes cast is nominated in Texas without being required to enter the run-off primary. The result of Saturday's primary was regarded as final in O'Daniel's case, since the Democratic nomination usually is equivalent to election in this state.

Crushed in the O'Daniel landslide touched off by liberal old-age pension promises was an attorney general, a railroad commissioner and a big city mayor.

This mild radio flour salesman, who mounted a sound truck with a hillbilly band and struck out after "those professional politicians" had started stumping the hinterlands, commented:

Will Cooperate

"The secret of success in business is ability to cooperate. I think the same principle of business can be applied to government. I have no idea of being a dictator. I expect to get along well with the legislature."

Paul J. Kilday, San Antonio attorney backed by Mayor C. K. Quinn's political machine, whipped Maverick, new deal mainstay, by 425 votes. Quickly came reports Maverick would demand an investigation and recount.

O'Daniel and Kilday campaigned on pension issues.

So did Lindsey Beckwith, a state representative to crush Sanders. The youngster shouted promises to work for pension increases; declared his loyalty to President Roosevelt. Trailing him was Smith County Judge Brady Gentry. Two hundred votes back, almost out of runoff contention, was Sanders.

Attorney E. Coates, another old-age pension advocate, led Rep. W. D. MacFarlane, who recently got a warm greeting from President Roosevelt in Texas.

Seeks Divorce

Mrs. Irene Poonan (above), 14-year-old mother, sued her 28-year-old husband Parthen Poonan, for divorce at Auburn, Calif., charging he forced her to "adopt the ways of the Hindu race" in their Roseville, Calif., home. She also asked custody of their infant son.

CLEARING SKIES GIVE EAST HOPE FLOOD NEAR END

Twelve Deaths, Millions of Dollars Damage Done in Dozen States—New England Sector Hardest Hit

By the Associated Press

Clearing skies today in many sections gave hope of an early end to ruinous floods and rainstorms which took 12 lives and caused property and crop damage totaling millions of dollars in a dozen states.

New England was hardest hit by week-long downpours which sent rivers out of their banks all along the Atlantic seaboard. The damage was conservatively put at more than $3,000,000.

The tobacco crop loss in Connecticut was reported as $1,000,000 and similarly heavy tolls were exacted of crops in Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Textile mills were shut down in many towns, throwing thousands of persons temporarily out of work. Hundreds of families were homeless in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New York.

The storms claimed four lives in New Jersey over the week-end. Three persons were killed by lightning in Ohio.

An unidentified river who swam the raging San Saba river at San Saba, Tex., to secure a wire lifeline saved a score of persons marooned on rooftops. Earlier the river had claimed two victims. Thirty houses were swept away, leaving 300 homeless.

Continued downpours were forecast in North Carolina, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and adjacent states, but little immediate danger of widespread floods was seen. The south's chief fear was for its cotton crop, since the boll weevil fattens on rainy weather.

Newest Roosevelt To Be Named For Grandpa Franklin

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—(AP) The president's newest grandson will be named Franklin Delano Roosevelt, third.

The baby's dad, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Jr., made that official announcement today.

Franklin the third, who was born July 19, and his mother, the former Ethel Dupont, are "doing nicely" in the Pennsylvania hospital, Roosevelt reported.

DROP IN MERCURY AIDS CONTROL OF FIRE IN FORESTS

Reese Creek Brush Blaze Completely Stopped; More Men Sent to Round Top—Two New Fires Soon Out

With temperature down and humidity up, more favorable weather conditions over the week-end assisted fire-fighters in tightening their grip on forest blazes in this locality.

The extensive Reese creek brush fire had been completely stopped today and only a few men were being held on the scene for patrol duty.

Thirty more loggers were put on the Round Top fire lines in the Ryan valley and while the blaze was still uncontrolled today it was being held in check, the district warden's office reported. More than 200 men are now fighting the fire.

Two new state forest fires occurred yesterday but were under control today.

One was between Long Branch and Dry creek a few miles this side of Trill on the west side of Crater Lake highway. A crew of loggers checked the blaze last night. The fire covered 20 to 25 acres of brush.

The other new blaze was on Pleasant creek in Brushy gulch northwest of Wimer. It was encircled this morning by a crew of loggers and other fire-fighters. It covered 50 to 60 acres of brush and timber.

It was thought that both new fires were caused by smokers.

Everything is still under control on the Rogue River national forest, no new fire being reported since Saturday. Crews totaling 63 men were patrolling or mopping up blazes in various parts of the forest today.

WILLAMETTE CONTROL TURNED DOWN BY WPA

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(AP)—The public works administration turned down today a request for funds to start construction of the $62,075,000 Willamette valley flood control and navigation project in western Oregon.

Administrator Ickes advised aides of Senator McNary (R-Ore.) virtually all of the $200,000,000 set aside for federal projects under the new spending program had been exhausted.

The administrator also was quoted as saying the PWA had decided against using any of its funds for flood control projects and it was impossible to finance such costly undertakings as Willamette.

PAPOOSE PLANE ON RETURN TRIP

BOTWOOD, Newfoundland, July 25.—(Canadian Press)—The British pick-a-back plane, Mercury, landed here at 5:28 p. m., Atlantic summer time, (12:28 p. m. PST) today from Boucherville, Que., at the end of her second leg of a return trans-Atlantic flight.

The upper half of the composite plane, heading back to Fynnes, Ireland, by way of the Azores after a westward flight to Port Washington, N. Y. covered the more than 1000 miles from Boucherville near Montreal in four hours, 38 minutes.

The Mercury took off from New York at 6:30 a. m. PST this morning. She left the Boucherville base at 7:30 a. m. PST.

U.S. SEEN DUE FOR WAR IF EUROPEAN NATIONS EVER START BATTLING

(Copyright, 1938, by United Press)

LONDON, July 25.—(UP)—The Marquis of Lothian, a leader of Britain's "Cliveden Set" and wartime adviser to David Lloyd George, said in an interview last night that the United States will be unable to keep out of any long, general war embracing Europe's nations.

"Once war starts the range of air attacks will compel the United States to defend itself to occupy strategic points from which her own ports and cities could be attacked," Lord Lothian told the United Press.

"The British commonwealth is the United States' outer ring of security. If it disappears or is smashed by the fascist states so that Gibraltar, the Suez, Singapore, Capetown and the British Indian Empire fall into the hands of Germany, Italy or Japan then, as the British empire disintegrates, the military powers would crowd around the United States."

State Highway Aide Found Dead by Shot

BAKER, July 25.—(AP)—The body of Joe Leighty, 32, employee of the state highway department, was found Sunday afternoon a short distance from his home at Hereford with a bullet wound in the right temple.

Death is believed to have occurred when Leighty stumbled and fell, discharging a .22 caliber rifle he was carrying. Leighty had been employed by the state highway department for nine years.

FATHER ENDS FIST FIGHT BY SLAYING SON'S FOE

DILLON, Mont., July 25.—(UP)—Joe W. Potts, 60-year-old Wise River rancher, was fatally shot Sunday by the father of a man he was fist-fighting.

William Heaton, 78, shot Potts twice in the side and once in the head as he rose to his feet after having been knocked down by William, Jr.

Heaton said he and Potts had been "having trouble over property rights."

Both Heaton's were taken in custody.

PONY EXPRESS RIDER JOINS PIONEER PALS

VALLEJO, Cal., July 25.—(UP)—One of the last links between the west of the pony express and Buffalo Bill days and the west of the present was severed today in the death here of 91-year-old Frank W. Derrick.

Derrick settled here at the beginning of the century after a colorful career which included riding with the pony express service, scouting with Buffalo Bill, Indian fights, and acquaintanceships with Wild Bill Hickok and Calamity Jane.

The pioneer and Colonel William Cody (Buffalo Bill) worked together on a 75-mile pony express route between Red Blood, Butte, and Three Corners, Mont., in 1862.

OUTLOOK FOR CAR SALES BRIGHTER

DETROIT, July 25.—(AP)—An outlook more favorable than at any time since the buying slump last fall is noted in the motorcar industry by Ward's automotive reports today in a survey that predicts a car shortage to September and an advance announcement of new models "more from necessity than anything else."

"The automobile industry," says the survey, "is moving definitely to take its traditional place in the recovery movement—at the front of the procession."

Reporting several more plants closed for the model year with assemblies down to 32,070 this week against 42,110 last week and 88,043 the week before, Ward's says a "gradual easing off" must be looked for during the next week or so, with no sharp drop so long as Ford and Chevrolet continue.

COAST ARTILLERY WINS EXCELLENT IN PRACTICE

SALEM, July 25.—(AP)—Four of the five firing batteries of the 249th Coast Artillery have been recommended by the 9th Coast Artillery for "excellent" ratings on the basis of their target practice conducted at Fort Stevens last month. Major General George A. White, commanding the Oregon National Guard, was advised today.

Battery B, Ashland; Battery C, Madras; Battery D, Klamath Falls and Battery E, Cottage Grove, were recommended for "excellent" ratings.

33-YEAR SEPARATION ENDS IN NEW WEDDING

EUREKA, Cal., July 25.—(UP)—Fred V. Metcalf and Mrs. Ida May Warren were remarried here today after a separation of 33 years.

They were married in Eureka in 1895 and divorced 10 years later. Both remarried and raised separate families, both losing their second wives by death.

W. R. Ingram, pastor of the Church of the Nazarenes, performed the service, which was attended by children of each of the second marriages, including two grandsons of the bride. The remarriage was arranged by their daughter of the first marriage, Mrs. Mabel Metcalf Johnson of San Diego. The large family attended the ceremony from San Diego, Riverside, Los Angeles, Hollywood and Eureka.

DRUNKEN DRIVER GIVEN FINE, JAIL

Norman E. Augustine, Klamath Falls welder, entered a plea of guilty in justice court this morning to driving an auto while intoxicated and was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail, fined $100 and costs and his liquor permit and driving license were suspended for one year.

The court ruled the jail sentence would be suspended, if Augustine paid the fine and costs, but declined to accept a down-payment of $25 and the balance at a later date.

Augustine traveled down the Pacific highway from near Talent to Phoenix at more than 80 miles per hour, according to Deputy Sheriff William Grenbrenner, who pursued Augustine, in a state police car, when he ignored a flashlight signal to halt. The chase occurred late Saturday night.

A partially empty bottle of whiskey was found in the auto. The defendant's wife attempted to throw it out of the auto when halted, it was testified.

The auto, belonging to Augustine's employer, was damaged when it went in the ditch near Klamath Junction.

Vandenberg Expects F. R. To Fail in Third Term Try

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) expressed the opinion today that President Roosevelt would seek a third term.

"I expect him to try," Vandenberg said, "but I do not expect him to succeed."

The statement was contained in a letter which the senator wrote to a Michigan constituent and which was made public by a friend here.

It came in the midst of speculation over third term possibilities.

Governor Frank Murphy of Michigan declared in a speech at Traverse City, Mich., yesterday that "we may have to draft the president for four more years of leadership."

John D. Hamilton, Republican national chairman, asserted last week that WPA Administrator Hopkins actually had launched a third-term movement when he told reporters 90 per cent of those on relief were for the president.

Hopkins' remark has attracted the attention of the senate campaign expenditures committee.

West Oregon Mill Unable Load Ship

PORTLAND, Ore., July 25.—(AP)—The West Oregon Lumber company reopened today for another four-day run with C.I.O. longshoremen still refusing to load the output on the schooner, W. R. Chamberlain, Jr.

Gunther F. Krause, attorney for the Waterfront Employers association, asked Federal Judge James Alger Fee for a temporary restraining order against dock pickets.

Longshoremen declined to pass a C.I.O. lumber workers' picket line because it was "dangerous." The C.I.O. picketed the yard and dock after the company recognized the A.P.L. as bargaining agent.

Six Drown Seeking Relief From Heat

By the Associated Press

Six persons drowned yesterday as thousands in Washington and Oregon, seeking relief from another hot day, flocked to lakes and streams for Sunday outings. Three drowned in Washington and three in Oregon.

Mrs. Verda Mercer, 34, Rockwood, Ore., drowned in a vain attempt to rescue her two children, Arthur, 12, and Verda, 11, from the Columbia river off Lemmon island near Portland.

Sheriff's deputies sought the bodies today.
