

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Back from Albany — The Misses Ruth and Peggy Carlock have returned from Albany where they visited friends over the week-end.

On Vacation — Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stecher of the Hotel Medford are spending a week vacationing near Crescent City and other coast resorts.

Day on Coast — Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Humphrey and family of 825 East Jackson street spent Sunday at Crescent City, Cal.

Visitors Here — Mrs. George Snider and daughter Sally of Evanston, Ill. are recent arrivals in Medford and are guests of C. A. Knight at his home at 801 East Main street.

Improved — Mrs. Helen High Pierce of Pierce Heights, who is confined to Community hospital with pneumonia, was reported slightly improved today.

Tonsils Excised — Phillip Eldridge of the Voorhies orchard and Ralph Denny of Route 2 underwent operations for the removal of their tonsils in the Osteopathic hospital this morning.

On Business — George Kerr of Central Point transacted business in this city today.

Has Operation — Mrs. R. E. McElhose of 829 Minnesota avenue underwent a major operation in the Sacred Heart hospital this morning. Her condition this afternoon was reported as satisfactory.

Picnic Tomorrow — Members planning to attend the Mistletoe club picnic tomorrow are requested to provide their own service and lunch. The picnic will be held in Lithia park, Ashland, at 1 o'clock. Those who need transportation are asked to call 650-W.

Car Burns — An old Dodge sedan owned by Winston Daugherty of Crater Lake highway was destroyed by fire last night on the highway near the army radio station. The fire department sent out a chemical crew but the car was too far gone to be saved. A short circuit in the dash wires caused the blaze, Chief Roy Elliott said.

Visits Here — Mrs. J. W. Corbett of Portland arrived on this morning's train and will be a guest for several days of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Bigelow at their home at 822 Park street. Mrs. Corbett and Mrs. Bigelow were school friends and have not seen each other for 27 years. The Bigelows will take their guest fishing tomorrow.

Committee to Meet — A meeting of the executive committee of Medford post of the American Legion will be held tomorrow night at 7:30. announced Don R. Newbury, commander, today. It will be held at the armory preceding the regular Legion meeting which convenes at 8. Several important matters are to be considered and a full attendance is desired.

Plane Patrol Here — M. Gustafson, private flier from Oakland, Cal., who is on forest patrol for the United States forest service in northern California, called at the Medford municipal airport yesterday afternoon in his Stinson plane, to pick up an engine part that had been ordered. He arrived from Montague, Cal., and returned as soon as the part was delivered.

Deputy Returns — Paul Hanlin, United States deputy marshal, returned last night from Coquille where he transacted official business. Mr. Hanlin left here last Thursday for Klamath Falls where he departed on Friday for Portland with several prisoners. From Portland Mr. Hanlin was sent to Coquille on an official mission.

Crash Men Here — The six army men whose plane was wrecked in a forced landing yesterday near Rossburg, were picked up at Medford municipal airport this morning by Capt. B. L. Ross, who came for them in a Douglas bomber from Hamilton field, San Rafael, Cal. From Hamilton field the six men were to continue to Langley field, Virginia, their base. Although their plane was demolished in the forced landing, the men were not hurt.

Car Sideswiped — A car owned by Allen A. Smith of Route 1, parked in front of Community hospital yesterday morning, was sideswiped by one driven by Grace L. Pankey of 321 Apple street, a city police report said today. The Pankey machine got out of control when the driver slapped at mosquitoes bothering her, the report said. Minor damage was done.

Nebraska Picnic — Considerable interest is being shown here in the 18th annual Nebraska picnic to be held in city park, Corvallis, Sunday, August 7. All former residents of Nebraska and Nebraskans visiting here are invited. More than 1800 attended last year. Each family is to provide its own lunch and service. The committee in charge of arrangements will furnish coffee. There is ample seating capacity in the park, situated at the south edge of Corvallis on the highway. All Nebraskans are urged to attend and join in the get-together and discussions of times "back home." A short program will be presented.

Court Citations—William A. Shattuck, 26, of 540 Edwards street was cited by police yesterday to appear in justice court this afternoon charged with driving a vehicle without a tail light. John P. Hein, 35, of Route 3 was cited to appear this afternoon charged with speeding a truck.

J. E. Bodger and Stanley Peser, of Klamath Falls, will be charged with smoking while traveling in a forest during a closed season, according to District Attorney Frank J. Newman, who said he would file the complaint against the two men.

Bodger and Peser were arrested by Ranger Bradshaw of the Lodge Pole station last Sunday while riding in an auto through the forest. One was smoking a pipe, and the other a cigarette. They were members of a fishing party on the south fork of the Rogue. To save the expense and inconvenience of a trip to this city Peser and Bodger agreed to make a signed statement and entered pleas of guilty on the spot. The district attorney who was present, conducted the proceedings. The formal complaint, and long distance plea of guilty will be presented in justice court today for disposition.

Andrew Clancy, 94, a resident of Medford for the past 27 years, passed away in a local hospital Monday evening. He was born at Camden, Ontario, June 24, 1844. In June, 1875, he was united in marriage to Agnes Totten, of Rawdon, Ontario. Mrs. Clancy passed away in 1928. He is survived by one son, Dr. R. W. Clancy, of Medford; a daughter, Mrs. J. A. Dandson, of Lethbridge, Alberta; a sister, Rosalia Fredericks, of Peterborough, Ont. Five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Conger funeral parlors Wednesday at 2 p. m. The Rev. T. H. Temple will conduct the services assisted by the Rev. Joseph Knottis, and interment will be made in the Siskiyou Memorial park.

Norman E. Augustine of Klamath Falls, entered a plea of guilty to driving an auto while intoxicated and was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail and fined $100 and costs yesterday. He paid $54.50 on account and was given until Saturday to pay the balance. The jail sentence was suspended upon condition Augustine pay the fine in full. The payment was advanced by his employer, a well dried operator. Augustine, who also had his liquor permit and driver's license revoked for one year, was arrested last Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff William Greenbrier after he had ignored a flashlight signal to stop and had traveled more than 80 miles per hour on the Pacific Highway between Talent and Phoenix. A partially filled bottle of whiskey was introduced as evidence.

Coquille Epidemic Over. BANDON, July 26.—(P)—Dr. C. L. Coyle, Coos county health officer, released the last patient from quarantine today and announced a smallpox and scarlet fever epidemic was over. The illness spread from PWA houses, constructed after the fire disaster of 1936, where a number of families used the same plumbing and laundry facilities.

Progress Catches Up. PORTLAND, July 26.—(P)—Sixty-year-old Mrs. Rilla F. Stack has been riding a bicycle for many years, but yesterday the age of faster traffic caught up with her. She collided with an automobile at a busy intersection and was sent to the emergency hospital with scrapes, cuts and bruises as the result of her contact with mechanical progress.

"Jezebel" at Craterian Wednesday

"Jezebel" starring Bette Davis. That is the picture opening tomorrow at the Craterian theater for a four-day showing—a picture that has created a storm of discussion everywhere, played by the only actress who could portray the role; the story of a fatally fascinating woman who lived and loved recklessly, a woman whose beauty was equalled only by her devastating charm.

G-Man Role

G-Man Jack Holt plays at the Roxy theater today and tomorrow in "Trapped by G-Men," exciting drama of the law versus mobsters. Wynne Gibson and C. Henry Gordon have supporting roles.

Rialto Star

As a colorful, kind-hearted Italian in New York's East Side, Leo Carrillo is featured at the Rialto theater tomorrow and Thursday with Edith Fellows, in the comedy-drama, "City Streets." Edith portrays an orphaned child whom Carrillo befriends. Others in support of the two stars are Mary Gordon and Helen Eddy.

Colorado Voyageur Will Try It Again

COQUILLE, July 26.—(AP)—Hal-dine Holstrom, 27, the man who bobbed down the Colorado river alone in a home-made boat last year, will try it again, this time in the company of Amos Burg, Portland, well-known writer and explorer.

The former Coquille mechanic wrote his mother from Boulder, Colo., he would tackle the roaring stream in the same craft. Burg will ride a boat under construction in the east. When Holstrom emerged from the gorge last year onto the friendlier waters of Lake Mead, the feat was described as unprecedented.
