A rain on Wednesday dispelled some of the smoke which has drifted in from distant forest fires. So far this section has escaped fires but has had its quota of smoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Turpin and daughter of Medford spent Saturday and Sunday here.

Among those who picnicked here on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John Owens and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffert and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stanley and family. A good crowd enjoyed the plunge during the afternoon.

Gold Hill Grange. Gold Hill Grange meeting, July 21 was well attended considering the heat. Lecturer's hour was put on by the executive committee. Ceres and lady assistants being absent, the chairs were filled by Madge Rose and Edith Howe.

The charter was draped in memory of John Ritter, first Gold Hill Granger to pass away since we organized in 1935. The Grange extends deepest sympathy to the bereaved family, also to Brother and Sister Tygart and family on the sad loss of their brother, Marcella Grier.

Several Grangers from this end of the county attended regular Pomona meeting, July 23, at the beautiful Grange hall at Upper Applegate. Annual Pomona picnic will be held Sunday, July 31, at Jackson Hot Springs, starting about 10 a. m., and basket dinner about noon, with games in the afternoon. All Grangers should make an effort to attend.

For refreshments the ladies brought paper bag lunches for two and the men paid 10 cents for them. H. E. C. furnished coolee.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gray, Mr. and Mrs. John Novak and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Puhl are on the serving committee for Grange, August 4.

Mrs. Williams of Gold Hill Grange won the prize for naming the Griffin Creek Grange pig.

A cult of devil worship had numerous adherents in France during the reign of Louis XVI.

The Presbyterian Bible school, conducted for the past two weeks by Miss Frances Smith, was well attended.
