It's for the undisputed Southern Oregon league leadership today at the high school park as Medford's Crashing Craters and the Grants Pass Merchants, with blood in their eyes and visions of the pennant, clash in the most vitally important encounter of this raging second-half rag regatta. The battle starts at 2:30 o'clock.

On the Medford pitching mound will be big Lowell Brown, the south-paw ace who has won five and lost one game all season to top the circuit's hurlers in won and lost percentage. In the finest condition of his career, the Crater twirler expects to lift his club into first place and send it winging along toward the second-half championship. Brown has vowed to finish out the season with no more defeats, and today will face his acid test.

Jud Pernoll, boss of the fighting Merchants, plans to send red-headed Steve Crippen to the rubber in an attempt to throttle the blasting Craters. Crippen did it the last time he tried, giving up only four safeties in blanking the locals, 4 to 0, and Manager Pernoll believes the ex-Cincinnati Red right-hander can do it again.

This will be the final game of the year between the Craters and Merchants, and to date the count stands one and one. In their first meeting, Bill Rathke pitched the Medfords to a 6 to 1 decision, and the local right-hander will be ready to step in the breach today if the going gets too tough for Brown. Orval Hoffman, right-hander, will be ready to relieve Crippen if the Craters get out of hand.

Manager Wally Rickert announced there would be no change in the Crater lineup which pulverized Ashland last Sunday. Billy Calvert will play third and lead off, Rickert left field, will hit second; Shortstop Dick Lewis will hit in third position and Paul "Hooster" Hoffart, centerfield, will hit in the number four cleanup spot. Tommy White, rightfielder and league-leading hitter, will bat fifth; Cliff "Chief" McLean, catcher, will hit sixth; Bob Smith, first baseman, seventh; Orval Hampel, second base, eighth, and Brown, the pitcher, ninth.

For the Merchants, excellent Al Drolette will do the receiving, Hugh Hartman will be on first, Orval Blacksmith on second, Hoffman on short, Howerton on third and Koll, McCarthy and Chuck Ostrom in the outfield.

The Craters will display probably the heaviest-hitting lineup to perform in Medford in 10 years. The team batting average is .325, seven regulars are seeking 200 or better, and five of them are nudging the onion at a 400 or more clip. White leads all with his lofty 478, with Howard second with 439, Rickert next with 418 and McLean at an even 400. Lewis is batting .317 and Smith .300. Sampel, playing in two games, has a mark of 429.

Grants Pass can't begin to equal that array of sluggers. The regulars as a team are hitting .249, and they have only three regulars in the 300 class. Drolette has 333, Crippen 322 and Blacksmith 311. However, the Climate City club boasts almost an airtight defense, and has proved itself dangerous by taking three straight second-place victories, including a 7 to 6 win from Crescent City, first-half champions, last Sunday.

Starting at noon today, Manager George Harrington's Junior Craters and the Gold Hill Beavers will play a seven-inning encounter at the high school park.

EX-HURLER SAYS SOBRIETY RAPPED

NEW YORK, July 30.—Charles M. ("Jeff") Tesreau, of Hanover, N. H., Dartmouth college baseball coach and former pitcher for the New York Giants, filed suit with his son today for $10,000 damages against the publishers of College Humor, Collier-Pearse, Inc., and Joe Williams, New York sports writer.

The son, Charles Francis Tesreau, is a Dartmouth athlete.

In the suit, father and son charge that in an article published in the October, 1937, issue of College Humor, entitled "Not so hot off the gridiron," maligned their sobriety.

Young Tesreau alleges that as a result of the article he has been held up to the ridicule and contempt of his friends and the public.

SWIM CHAMPIONS SEALS DOWN OAKS KEEP AAU TITLES FOR FIVE IN ROW

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 30.—(AP)—Two champions retained their titles and a new individual and a relay champion were crowned here today in the National A. A. U. men's swimming meet.

Jim Werson of Alameda, Calif., became the new individual title-winner by taking the 220-yard breast stroke in 2:49.2.

The Ohio State university quartet swept the 880-yard free-style relay in 9:51.4.

Two youths barely in their twenties, Ralph Flanagan of Miami, and Adolph (Sonny) Klefer of Chicago, added a victory apiece to their triumphs of last year's meet.

Flanagan, 21, won the 440-yard free style event in 4 minutes, 51.1 seconds, 5.1 seconds slower than his American record of 4:46 flat for a "long" course.

Klefer, 20-year-old backstroke specialist, stiff-armed his way to victory in the 100-meter backstroke event. His time, 1:07.8, was three seconds slower than his world and American record of 1:04.8, set in Detroit in 1936.

NICK KNIGHT NEW BUCKAROO CHAMP

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 30.—(AP)—Five Minutes to Midnight, unriden for two years, unseated Pet Grubb, Salmon, Idaho, in eight seconds at the Cheyenne Frontier Days celebration today to remain king of bucking horses.

With Grubb thrown by the black successor to Midnight, the cowboy's bucking championship went to Nick Knight, 27, Cody, Wyo., who rode Brown Bomber today. Knight now is the leading point winner for the National Bucking Horse Association of America.

Hugh Bennett, Port Thomas, Ariz., roped and tied three steers in this year's show in an average time of 22 seconds, eclipsing by 1.4 seconds the old record set last year by Herman Paulkner, Pawhuaka, Okla.

POWELL ON BENCH FOR RADIO SLIP

CHICAGO, July 30.—(AP)—Jeko Powell, outfielder with the New York Yankees, was suspended for ten days by Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball, today for remarks he made over the radio from the White Sox park yesterday.

Powell, in a so-called dugout interview with a sports announcer before the New York-Chicago game, made what Commissioner Landis charged was slighting reference to negroes.

Out of the air and telephoned at the radio station (WGN) started ringing with demands for apologies. Complaints also reached Commissioner Landis by telephone.

Commissioner Landis, in a prepared statement, said he believed Powell's remarks were made carelessly and not purposely.

GREENBERG AHEAD RUTH HOMER MARK AS DETROIT WINS

Yanks Win Hitting Bee—Cleveland Clings To One Game Lag In Race.

DETROIT, July 30.—(AP)—Hank Greenberg banged out his 36th and 37th homers of the year and rookie pitcher Harry Eisenstat came up with two brilliant pieces of relief hurling to give the Detroit Tigers a clean sweep of a double-header with the Philadelphia Athletics today.

The scores were 10 to 7 and 8 to 7, and in both games Greenberg hit for the circuit in the eighth inning with mates on base to pull Detroit from behind. Eisenstat got credit for both victories, pitching the last two innings of the first game and the last four frames of the nightcap.

The victories extended Detroit's winning streak to eight games and lifted the club into fourth place, ahead of the Washington Senators, who lost to Cleveland.

Today's homers put Greenberg far ahead of Babe Ruth's pace in 1927 when he set the record of 60 in a season. Ruth did not hit his 37th homer until August 16, and the 1927 season opened earlier than the present campaign.

First game: R. H. E.
Philadelphia 10 15 2
Detroit 7 13 2
E. Smith, Nelson, Thomas and Hayes; Bridges, Coffman, Eisenstat and Haworth, York.

Second game: R. H. E.

CHICAGO, July 30.—(AP)—The New York Yankees whipped the White Sox, 9 to 6, today in a free-swinging battle that saw 33 hits collected off five pitchers.

Paced by Frankie Crosetti, who whacked a double and three singles, and Joe DiMaggio, who contributed his 19th homer and a single, the Yanks collected 16 hits to the Sox's 17 to take the decision and remain one full game in front of Cleveland in the American league race.

The game wound up in a first fight between Joe Gordon, the Yanks' rookie second baseman, and Gerry Walker of the Sox in the ninth inning. Walker, after hitting a pinch-single, was forced by Boze Berger. After he had been retired, he and Gordon tangled at second base and threw punches at one another until Umpire Steve Basil rushed in and separated them.

ESPOSA NOSED OUT BY WAR ADMIRAL

SARATOGA SPRING, N. Y., July 30.—(AP)—War Admiral won his second race in four days when he led four rivals over the mile and a quarter of the $7,500 Saratoga handicap today.

The four-year-old son of Man O' War from Samuel D. Riddle's stable set all the pace but just managed to stave off the great stretch bid of William Ziegler, Jr. Esposa. Only a neck separated the pair with William Woodward's Isolator four lengths back in third place. Unfailing was fourth and Burning Star last.

Running over a slow track, the Admiral covered the distance in 2:06 to pay 7 to 10.

California ranks first, Indiana second, in the amount of tomatoes grown for packing.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—(AP)—Harry Lundberg said today the sailors' maritime union of the Pacific coast, which he heads would strike if the maritime commission attempted to put into effect a new system of hiring crews for its ships.

He rejected a compromise proposal by Adm. H. A. Wiley of the commission, under which hiring would be done under supervision of the commission, with one union and one commission representative in charge.

Commenting to newspapermen on Wiley's compromise proposal, Lundberg said: "We won't go for it. We want to run our own business."

If the commission persists in its new hiring system, Lundberg said both his own union, an APL affiliate, and the National Maritime Union (NMO) would strike.

KENASTON GIVEN REVENGE CHANCE

Sgt. Bob Kenaston, the big, tough, ex-Marine fighter from Gold Hill, gets his chance for revenge, tomorrow night in the high school stadium's open-air wrestling ring.

Assisted by Benny Wilson, a drop-kicking fool from the wide expanses of Texas, Sgt. Kenaston meets face to face with the two humber's of last week gave him a brutal and unmerciful drubbing—Skeokee Jack McDonald and Polish Palooka Joe Smolinski.

In the first team grappling battle ever staged in southern Oregon last Monday, Kenaston, paired with Flash Kelly of San Francisco, received such a sound thrashing that he was knocked unconscious for fully 10 minutes. After he awakened from his trip into slumberland, he immediately demanded that Promoter Mack Lillard come across with another team squabble, and give him another partner. Lillard did both.

The two teams will tear into each other until one pair obtains four falls, or until one hour has elapsed. The program will be opened by an Australian system match between All Pasha and Flash Kelly.

LITTLE BATTLES REVOLTA TO TIE

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 30.—(AP)—Curly-headed Johnny Revolta, a charter member of big time golf's money-winning inner circle, and broad-shouldered Lawson Little, who has been consistently threatening to "crack" that select group since leaving the amateur ranks, battled to a draw at the half-way mark in St. Paul's $7,500 championship today.

Each had 96-hole totals of 137 strokes to lead 66 qualifiers into tomorrow's final round of 36 holes and a shot at the top money of $1,600. Revolta, who carded a four under par 68 with some brilliant iron play today to add to his Friday round of 69, long has been one of the nation's top-notch medal play stars. The Evanston, Ill., star has won about $5,000 in purses this season and appears "on" the game which once gained him the P. G. A. title.

CAUSES OF VARIOUS AILMENTS

Shih Nong, an ancient Chinese Emperor Herbalist, likened the human system unto the universe. As all life is dependent on Nature for sustenance, he concluded that in the body of each person were to be found the five principal elements of Nature, viz: minerals, vegetation, water, fire and earth. In other words, he held that each human being resembled Nature in miniature.

When Nature's five elements are working with equilibrium of power and balance, there are no thunderstorms, volcanic eruptions, earthquakes, upheavals or sinkings of the earth, typhoons, etc. Likewise, when in our human system equilibrium is maintained among the five elements, we are strong and well; free from complaints of all kinds.

The most active element in both Nature and human body is fire. Whenever the water element (blood) is overheated or there is too much fire we have the condition known as "inflammation of the System." It resembles a heat wave on the earth which produces wind, otherwise known as gas or air circulation. The human system contains two circulations: the breath and the blood. The Chinese writers say that the blood is man's glory and the breath his protection. If their circulation is impeded, the viscera are inactive. When the internal organs cease to function properly the entire system becomes poisoned. For example, the lungs of influenza victims were congested and clogged with black blood. The blood sometimes poured from their mouths and noses even after death. Likewise, in bad cases of cancer of the breast there is a purplish black color and the edges are upturned. Ninety percent of such cancers are incurable, the poison being so deep-rooted that nothing is able to drive it out. Even operations do little or no good, as the cancer either appears again or the sufferer dies before long. Whether a cancer can be dealt with successfully or not depends upon its condition.

The devastations of the fire element, or inflammation, cause the most suffering. Inflammation of the heart causes valve enlargement, palpitation, hardening of the arteries and high blood pressure. Inflammation of the kidneys causes Bright's disease of the pancreas, diabetes. Inflammation of the bladder causes discharges of the nerves, neuritis or inflammatory rheumatism. Inflammation of the bowels or rectum causes piles or bleeding bowels. Inflammation of the uterus causes tumors and hemorrhages; of the eyes, blindness; of the throat, soreness, tonsillitis and swellings. Inflammation and cold in the head causes headaches and catarrh. Inflammation and cold in the chest causes pneumonia and pleurisy. Inflammation of the liver or the gall causes gall stones or enlargement of the liver. When inflammation affects one or more of the internal organs, trouble develops in the extremities of the body, through the media of the blood circulation and nerves. Therefore, in order to afford permanent relief the Herbalist must be conversant with the connection between the internal organs and the part of the body affected.

Inflammation of the human system comes either from what we eat or drink or as a foreign invasion, such as attack consequent upon changes in temperature (cold or fever) or upon contagion or other infection.

Inflammation in any part of the system impedes its proper function. Merely taking a physic and moving the bowels every day does not necessarily impede the blood and organs are thereby cleaned and rid of poisonous inflammation. Some persons try to drink a gallon or more of water each day in order to flush the kidneys and bladder. The result of such measures is frequently the bringing on of indigestion and the weakening of the bladder and kidneys for life. Other people consume quantities of fruit in order to keep their system from becoming inflamed. However, one who takes into his system too much fruit and water will thereby destroy the fire element therein, and his food will lie there undigested. He will soon lose his vitality and become liable to tumors, discharges, pallor of complexion, sensations of cold and weakness, sour stomach, vomiting and sometimes even dropsy.

In addition to tracing various ailments to the foregoing elements, Chinese Herbalists also attribute pathological conditions to other causes, e. g.:

- 1—Overexcitement or great joy affects the heart.
- 2—Intense anger affects the liver.
- 3—Deep thinking (mental strain) and sadness affect the spleen.
- 4—Great fear affects the kidneys.
- 5—Sudden fright affects the heart.

Any specific ailment may be due to the inflammation or derangement of one or all of these organs.
