

Kenaston Given New Partner for Attempt to Pin Mean Mat Team

BENNY WILSON TO JOIN FORCES WITH GOLD HILL MARINE

Second Team Match Slated for High School Field Tonight — Ali Pasha and Kelly Will Open Program

The two-man grappling team of Sockeye Jack McDonald and Polish Palooka Joe Smolinski, just about the toughest and most brutal pair of muscle-manglers to ever hold a leg over a local ring-roped, goes to work against Sgt. Bob Kenaston-Benny Wilson tandem at the open-air high school stadium tonight as Promoter Mack Lillard presents his second successive stupendous and colossal team brawl.

The program opens at 8:30 with Ali Pasha, villainous Hindu, clashing with Flash Kelly of San Francisco, a clean and scientific performer, in a six round, Australian system bout. Advance reserved seat ticket sales indicate a large outpouring of fans, the promoter says. There are 400 reserved and 200 general admission seats, most of which will be filled.

Kenaston After Revenge

The McDonald-Smolinski team of annihilators will be shooting for its second straight victory, and most local eyed-in-the-wools figure it will be successful. Last Monday eve, in what developed into the top squabble of all time hereabouts, the ex-logger and the San Francisco Pole crushed Kenaston and Flash Kelly into submission, winding up the evening by rendering the Gold Hill pride and joy unconscious after using him for a battering ram against the corner of the ropes.

Kenaston raged when he regained his senses, and immediately demanded a return go against the two who treated him so roughly. He requested another partner, however, as Kelly, a slender, clean-cut professional, didn't seem able to cope with the ferocious attack of McDonald and Smolinski. Promoter Lillard asked Benny Wilson, a tough monkey from Texas, if he would like to work with Kenaston against the two sluggers, and Whison's answer was that he would like nothing better.

Close observers of the mat game here can't see how Kenaston and Wilson stand a chance to whip the McDonald-Smolinski duo, regardless of the fact that Kenaston is always dangerous with his Gold Hill crab and Wilson is more than a fair hand at the art of droppicking an opponent into submission. They point to the toughness of McDonald, whom nobody seems able to hurt, and the viciousness of Smolinski, who would rather gouge an eye or pull out a handful of hair than sit down to a turkey dinner when he is hungry.

REVOLTA WINNER IN ST. PAUL OPEN

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 1.—(AP)—Johnny Revolta today owned a brand new check for $1,600 and his third major victory of 1938.

The wayward professional from Evanston, Ill., who began playing golf as a child 15 years ago in Wisconsin, placed another notch on his club yesterday by capturing the $7,500 St. Paul open championship at the Keller course on a fast field which gave par a thorough battering.

Revolta's final two rounds of 71 and 68 for a 72-hole aggregate of 278 of 12 under par, was one stroke under the total of big Willie Coggins of San Bruno, Calif., runner-up a year ago. In third place was "Blammin' Sam" Sneed of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., the defending champion, with a 278 total, followed by Ernie Harrison of Chicago at 279, Lawson Little of San Francisco at 280 and Frank Stuhler of Jamaica, N. Y., at 281.

GOLD HILL WINS, 8-7 FROM JUNIORS

The Gold Hill Beavers nosed out Medford's Junior Craters in a five-inning Jackson county league baseball game yesterday at the high school park, 10 to 7. Center and Gardner leading the attack with two hits apiece.

After scoring all their runs in the first inning off Bailey, the Junior Craters were held in check thereafter by Dusenberry, Johnny Gitzen hit safely twice, Stine got a double and George Gitzen a triple for the locals.

PORTLAND LINKS TRIO ASSURED TOURNEY TRIP

PORTLAND, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Tab Boyer, Eddie Beck and Louis Cyr, local golfers, were assured a trip to Cleveland today having qualified in a four-man team to represent Portland in the United States Golf association national public links tournament August 22 to 27.

Fourth member of the team will be decided next Sunday when Bill Pransky and Wes Berner will stage a 36-hole playoff for the honor.

Sockeye's Grappling Pal

Joe Smolinski (above), the Polish Palooka from San Francisco, teams with Sockeye Jack McDonald tonight for battle against the Sgt. Bob Kenaston-Benny Wilson grappling tandem at the open-air high school stadium. With his eye-gouging, hair-pulling and other unorthodox tactics, Smolinski is expected to cause his opponent many unhappy moments.

Budge Sees Trouble With Bobby Riggs

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Don Budge, the tennis player no one can lick, is back with words of high praise for Bobby Riggs, the stalwart Chicagoan who is the only cloud on Budge's tennis horizon.

If anyone knocks Budge out of the national singles it will be the increasingly dangerous Riggs. Budge arrived on the Brittanian from England yesterday with the word, "Bobby Riggs is hot. He's a great player and will be the man to lick."

The experts who saw Riggs thump Elwood Cooke of Portland, Ore., in the Sea Bright finals Saturday agree with Budge.

STEELHEAD PLENTIFUL NOW IN UPPER ROGUE

Steelhead are more plentiful in the upper Rogue river than at any other time this year, according to a report from Glen Woolridge, guide at California-On-The-Rogue. However, trout fishing is not so good as a week ago, he writes.

Most effective bait being used is crawfish. Angling with flies and spinners has slackened off a little since last week, Woolridge reports.

CRATERS BATTER G. PASS PITCHERS FOR 23 TO 12 WIN

Locals Continue Hitting Frenzy With Pair of Homers, Triple, 3 Doubles and 13 Single Raps

The burning question of the hour today around the Southern Oregon baseball circuit is—what can be done about these crazy, crating Medford Craters?

Since the second-half pennant race got under way a month ago, the Medford powerhouse has accumulated in three games, a total of 87 runs and 60 baseruns, an average of 22 1-3 tallies and 20 safeties per battle. And the rest of the league is getting pop-eyed with amazement as Manager Wally Rickett's thunderous crew shows absolutely no signs of letting up.

Most recent demonstration of Craters' batting dynamite was exploded yesterday at the high school park, for the benefit of the Grants Pass Merchants and one of the year's largest crowds. Training their sights on a couple of cousinly Merchant pitchers, the Medfords fired two home runs, a triple, three doubles and 13 singles to wallop Manager Jud Pernoll's club, 23 to 12, and move into the undisputed league lead.

All Hit at Least Once

With the exception of Greenman, who batted only once, every Crater player got at least one hit and scored at least one run. Paul "Hooper" Hoffard and Tommy White led the parade with four baseruns apiece in five trips, with Hooper blasting a homer with two on and White socking a pair of doubles. Orvall Hampel hit the other Medford home run, in the fourth with one aboard.

Orvall Hoffard and Steve Crippen, Grants Pass right-handers, did nothing with which to fool the Craters. Hoffard lasted four frames, during which time the locals rocked him for three tallies in the first and six in the fourth. Crippen, who blanked Medford, 4 to 0, several weeks ago, took over the Merchant mound duties in the fifth and sixth, immediately greeted with four hits good for six tallies. Before he was through, the Craters had scored three in the sixth, two in the seventh and three in the eighth.

Brown Has Trouble

It was a good thing the Craters were making the offerings of Hoffard and Crippen because Lew Brown, the big southpaw, was treated far gently by Grants Pass eaters. In his eight innings of rubber lawn, Brown was hammered for 14 hits and all the 12 Merchant runs, he apparently having one of his rare bad days. The Merchants landed on him for three runs in the first, one in the fifth, six in the seventh and two in the eighth. Bill Rathke buried the ninth inning and escaped damage.

Singles by Howerton, Drolette and Miller, two errors by Lewis and a passed ball enabled the Merchants to take a 3 to 0 lead in the first inning, but Medford tied it up in their half when Hoffard poked his homer after Rickett and Lewis walked. Hoffard's circuit wallop was a bounding drive into centerfield which bounced over Koll's head.

Hampel started Medford's six-run rally in the fourth when he laced a home run drive into left centerfield, scoring behind Smith, who reached first on error. Rickett walked, Lewis singled and Hoffard singled, scoring Rickett and White drove a double to left centering Lewis and Hoffard. McLean singled White across.

G. P. Gets Six in 6th

Crippen's triple to left and Howerton's single accounted for a Grants Pass run in the fifth, and the Merchants really took off in the sixth to tally six runs. Blacksmith got two singles in the inning and Hoffard, Koll, Howerton, Drolette and Miller all rapped singles to go with a hit batsman, a walk and another Lewis error.

The Craters scored six times in the fifth inning were out, Calvert walked, Rickett singled, Lewis walked, Hoffard and White singled and Grants Pass committed three errors to do the business. Singles by Calvert and Rickett, Lewis' walk and White's second double punched across three more Medford runs in the sixth. In the seventh, Hampel doubled, went to third on Calvert's sacrifice and scored while Rickett was being thrown out. Medford scored their final three runs in the eighth on Hoffard's hit by pitcher and singles by White, McLean, Smith and Brown.

Hoffard Halted

Hoffard was halted in the sixth inning yesterday after hitting safely in his last nine consecutive times at bat. His sensational batting string started July 10 against Yreka when he singled in his last time at bat. Against Ashland last Sunday, he belted four straight baseruns in four trips, and yesterday hit a homer and three singles in his first four jaunts to the plate. In the sixth inning he reached first base on a fielder's choice. In the last two games, he has collected eight hits in nine attempts. In the last three games, opposing teams have been unable to get him out at the plate, he having reached first, either through errors, walks, hits or being hit, 14 straight times.

SCHENCK'S NAME FIRST TO APPEAR ON EGAN TROPHY

Accountant Cards 265 to Capture First Honors in Initial Tourney—Sid Reaney Second, Littrell Third

Orin A. Schenck, Medford's golfing accountant, won the first annual H. Chandler Egan Memorial tournament yesterday at the Rogue Valley Golf course by blasting out a brilliant net 68 in his final 18-hole round to give him a total 265 over the 72-hole medal handicap round.

Schenck was three strokes under his nearest rival, Sid Reaney, who wound up the 72 holes with a net 268. Al Littrell finished third with 280 and Leiland Clark fourth with 270. Clark won the low gross prize with a 265. Tied for fifth place were Ben Crowbridge, Ivan Harrington, George Harrington, Lloyd Nasa and Bob Ruhl, all with 275. They will play 18-hole rounds as soon as possible to determine fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth places. Dr. J. S. Johnson won tenth place with a 274.

In winning the tournament dedicated to the memory of the late H. Chandler Egan, Schenck was never behind from the first 18-hole round. On his first tour of the beautiful layout two weeks ago, he shot an amazing 61 net. His second round was fired in 64 and his third in 72. The champion plays with a 24-stroke handicap.

By virtue of his victory, Schenck will have his name engraved on the handsome trophy donated to the club by Mrs. Egan, and will receive a medal from the club which will become his permanent possession. The Egan trophy remains the property of the club.

All others finishing in the first ten will receive golf ball awards.

Ninety-seven golfers—practically every playing member of the club—entered and completed the tournament. It was conducted by Don Clark, director of the annual Southern Oregon open tournament, and was considered one of the most successful from every standpoint ever staged by the local club.
