WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE — Without Calomel — And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning! — The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food is not digested. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Seek Rare Sheep — KETCHIKAN, Alaska, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Richard King Mellon, Pittsburgh banker and nephew of the late Andrew Mellon, was here today en route to the southwest corner of Yukon territory to obtain a group of White Dall sheep for the new North American hall of the Museum of Natural History at New York City.

AMERICAN LEGION IS GIVEN REPORTS ON BEAVER STATE

The annual Beaver Boys State provided an experience of exceptional value for all the youths who attended the encampment, it was the consensus of the Medford campers who reported at Wednesday night's meeting of the American Legion in the armory.

The encampment, part of the American Legion's national program to teach the country's youth the principles of self government, was held last week at Portland, ten boys from Medford attending.

Reports on various phases of the encampment were given at the American Legion meeting by Burton Daugherty, William Holloway, Jr., Charles Boyden and Dick Nelson. The boys told how city, county and state governments were organized by the "junior statesmen" under competent advisers, sharp competition developed for election to the public offices.

By banding together the Medford, Grants Pass and Roseburg groups wielded an important influence in the various elections and annexed many of the desirable offices for this section of the state, the Legionnaires were told.

The recreational advantages of the daily schedule were outlined by the boys, as well as the programs each evening which included outstanding speakers and varied entertainment.

The Medford boys said they were enthusiastic over the educational benefits of the encampment and voiced a desire to go again.

Jack Gordon, Grants Pass Legionnaire who accompanied the boys to the encampment, spoke highly of the youths' deportment.

Legionnaire George Hoard spoke on the "national salesman's crusade" for better business.

Annual installation of Medford post officers will be held August 24. It was announced by John Enders, chairman of the installation committee. Officers of the auxiliary will be installed at the same time in a joint ceremony.

The evening's program will include music, dancing and supper. Mr. Enders reported.

Robert Esel gave a report on the junior baseball team sponsored by the Legion.

Commander Don Newbury presented to Lee Garlock, chairman of the membership committee, a gold star, awarded by the state department to the champion membership worker in each post. Garlock's total of 246 members for 1938 is regarded as a state record and may also win national honors when final results are tabulated.

Visitors at the meeting were L. F. Ivanhoe of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, and C. L. Thompson, past commander of the La Grande post. Mr. Ivanhoe, still a member of the Medford post after many years' absence, related many experiences from his life in South America and answered questions about the political and business affairs of Brazil.

On Roxy Bill

Claudette Colbert and Charles Boyer co-star in the grand comedy romance, "Tovarich," playing today and tomorrow only at the Roxy theatre. Anita Louise heads the large supporting cast.

Warner Baxter Has Lead Sunday Show Craterian Screen

Orchids, yachts, mansions—after all, what do they mean?—if it's only orchids, yachts and mansions the girls are after! So a debonair millionaire gives his millions the air and goes for a girl who is looking only for love!

In this vein, "I'll Give A Million" becomes one of the gayest cinematic romances to come out of Hollywood in an age. At the Craterian theater yesterday, it gave the enthusiastic audience an array of startlers that beggars all the upper-bracket adjectives.

Romantic Warner Baxter; gorgeous by glamorous Marjorie Weaver — at last in glittering raiment; Peter Lorre, the erstwhile menace Mr. Moto, in a riotously funny characterization; beloved Jean Hersholt in a part as charming as his famous Country Doctor; that master of facial facility, John Carradine; exciting Lynn Bari; Fritz Feld in the best thing he has done.

That's just a quick glimpse of the cast which adds up to hundreds—and introduces Shorby, a clever scene-stealing simian. Only the keen mind of smart writers could logically tie up the glamor of high society, and the idea of a whole town in Southern France suddenly inaugurating kindness to tramps—just because Warner Baxter, seeking refuge from fair-weather pals, says he'll give a million francs for a real friend.

Baxter jumps from his palatial yacht to save Peter Lorre from drowning. The vessel sails on and Warner changes clothes with the rescued tramp.

Lorre writes for the next day with his pockets full of French banknotes—and let's slip the story of the millionaire-hobo. From this point on the solicitude for tramps becomes epidemic. Baxter of course finds his way to a circus where he meets Marjorie Weaver and a hectic romance reaches an astonishing conclusion.

A study made of the labor done by a farm housewife over a period of 30 years showed that she prepared approximately 235,425 meals. The labor cost at 15 cents a meal would be over $35,000.

In "Boo-oo"

The climax of the thrilling jungle romance, "Boo-oo," comes with the sacrifice of a beautiful young maiden to a white tiger, whom voodoo-bound natives worship as a god! This rite, which employers say is still observed in the wild country back of the Malay jungles, will be seen for the first time on any screen when "Boo-oo" opens a three day run at the Rialto theatre today.
