Ye Smudge Pot. By Arthur Perry. The President in a speech in Georgia urged the defeat of Senator George.

Members of the fair sex have taken to running around town with their hair in aluminum curling do-dads and same is no improvement over their hats.

Under the head of news, press dispatches convey the information "Republicans voted Democratic" in the Idaho primary.

Jimmy Roosevelt, answering the Sateopart article asserting his earnings from his insurance business were somewhere between $250,000 and $2,000,000 per year.

Another day we never expected to live to see but did the one when some very nice people of our acquaintance were inexpressibly relieved and dismissed all anxiety from their minds upon learning that their missing 16-year-old daughter had been safe in jail all the time they had been worrying about her.

The situation in the state is worse than feared. For the first time in its history, poetry will appear in the "Voters Pamphlet".

"News is scarce this week, no murders, thefts, deaths or marriages, no juicy scandal, but we are trying our best!"

Sunday night, Leo McCormick had a round-up with the stork! The stork won, and now Leo has a fine new son.

THE City Council would have been derelict in its duty, if it had neglected to give the people of this city, an opportunity to secure federal aid in the reconstruction of the city streets.

FOR thanks to the government's new relief program, such a municipal improvement, qualifies under the present P.W.A. set-up.

WHETHER THE PEOPLE OF THIS CITY ARE TO BEAR THE ENTIRE EXPENSE ALONE, OR WHETHER THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WILL SHARE IT!

THIS isn't a loan to be paid back, it is a grant—a gift—with no strings attached.

THERE is only one fly in the ointment. There are so many demands for such federal aid, the time element is so important, that the government might turn down the application.

HOWEVER this is no reason for not holding the election and filing the application.

BUT so much more reason, for wasting no time in seeing that the application is duly made and entered—so such assistance may be obtained.

Moreover not only will such aid mean, the improvement of our city streets, at once, completing the job within the year—and thus eliminating the repair and upkeep expense of a protracted schedule of improvement; but it will provide a payroll for the city, at a time, when one will be acutely needed and of tremendous material benefit to every member of the community!

IN short there is everything to be said IN FAVOR of calling this special election, as the first step in securing government financial aid in this repaving program, and nothing to be SAID AGAINST.

Finally we trust all the people of the city WILL investigate it. There is no time to lose, of course, but that doesn't mean, there won't be ample time, for everyone and anyone, to become fully informed, regarding every phase of the matter, before called upon to vote.

Entirely Within His Rights

LET'S assume you are general manager of a large company, and have perfected a program which you believe essential to that company's success.

And further let's assume, the board of directors of that company is pretty much divided as to the wisdom of your program, and an election of a new board is coming up.

Would you at such a critical time, merely sit idly by, and let "nature take its course." Or would you do everything you COULD DO LEGITIMATELY to give your stockholders all the facts, concerning the various candidates for directors, so they would be disposed to vote FOR those favorable to your plan, and NOT for those against?

WELL President Roosevelt is general manager of this country, and he has a definite program which he believes is essential to this country's material, social and spiritual success.

The question isn't whether he is right or wrong in that opinion. The question is, strongly holding to that opinion, what should he do, as general manager of the greatest business in the world,—the United States?

In the view of this column, there is only one answer,—he should do just what he IS doing,—everything he CAN do, properly, to persuade the people of this country (the stockholders), to vote for those senators and congressmen (directors) favorable to his program, and not vote for those against.

BUT if the esteemed Oregonian is correct, this is not true. Not only has the President no right to do this, but such action is "contrary to good government and offensive to good citizenship."

SHADES of Woodrow Wilson and Theodore Roosevelt! How long since has an effort on the part of the chief executive of this country to secure through appeals to the people a congress, favorable instead of hostile to his program, been a badge of bad government and offensive citizenship!

It's daring,—yes. It's dangerous,—granted. But it is neither unprecedented nor in any way reprehensible, and anyone not completely blinded by a narrow, bigoted partisanship, should freely grant it.

Such action would never be that of a Coolidge or a Harding, of a Garfield or a Harrison. It would never be the action of any President, disposed always to play safe and place, party harmony and party success, above everything else.

Not only has President Roosevelt every right to take the action he has, but if it succeeds undoubtedly history will record it, as a high tribute to his courage and his greatness.

Personal Health Service

By William Brady, M.D. Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed.

PURPURA, SCURVY AND TENDENCY TO BRUISE EASILY. Purpura, an affection characterized by hemorrhages under the skin, takes its name from a Greek word meaning purple.

Purpura, a common condition, is now available for intramuscular injection of about one-half ounce of blood taken from the vein of a relative.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Oh, Skinnay! I am sixteen years old, 5 feet 10 1/2 inches tall and weigh only 100 pounds.

Color Blindness. Is there any aid for color blindness—green blindness? Would it be a handicap in the profession of medicine or dentistry?

IN IDAHO, Representative D. Worth Clark, campaigning openly as a "CONSERVATIVE, not a New Deal Democrat," defeats Senator James Pope.

IN KENTUCKY, 100-per-center Barkley won out over Would-be-100-Per-Cent Chandler.

IN IDAHO a loyal New Dealer (Pope) came up against an honest independent (Clark) who wasn't afraid to run as a conservative Democrat.

IN OHIO, Roosevelt's man (Bulky) won in Arkansas, Roosevelt's woman candidate (Mrs. Caraway) won in Nebraska.

SO much for Tuesday's primaries. A week or so earlier, a shouting New Dealer (Maverick) had been licked in Texas.

KEEP this fact in mind: These primaries, whose thunder is now filling the air, AREN'T particularly important as to the next congress.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK.—People occasionally write me letters and when they do I answer them as best I can.

My friends tell me I am silly for wasting time on individual letters to people who ask questions about New York.

But I am not of this opinion. When someone takes the trouble to write a personal letter I think he is entitled to a prompt and considered reply.

I think if I were to write someone a letter and it went unacknowledged I would experience a secret twinge of embarrassment.

In Talmadge's favor is the so-called "county unit" system prevailing in Georgia.

Nevertheless, Talmadge is by no means out in front, yet. Probably the whole election will turn on the eventual decision of the county court-house politicians.
