CORNEA GRAFTING PROVES NO HELP FOR BLIND YOUTH

Failure to Recover Sight Fails to Halt Romance—Nazarene Minister's Sight Is Improved by Operation

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—(AP)—A blind youth, whom surgery failed to aid materially, found new courage today in his battle for sight, from the bride he never has seen, while a middle-aged minister, his vision partially restored, longed for the first clear look at his wife and daughter.

The blind bridegroom, undaunted by an unsuccessful operation, was John Terry O'Connell, 21, honey-mooned with the former Betty Scottier, 19. They fell in love three years ago when she was a reader for the sightless in a Berkeley school.

O'Connell, tall, blonde and handsome University of California at Berkeley student, said he hoped some day he would be able to see his wife, who guided his hand as he slipped a wedding ring on her finger in Berkeley yesterday.

He will take further treatments for an eye ailment that has blinded him since childhood.

The Rev. U. E. Harding, Nazarene minister of Portland, Ore., was one step closer today to his first clear vision of his wife and 27-year-old daughter Evelyn. Mr. Harding has been blind 43 of his 53 years.

Yesterday he left the hospital where on August 3 the clear cornea from an elderly dead woman's eye replaced the diseased "window" in his own eye in a rare and delicate operation. He already can distinguish objects.

A young Sacramento pianist, Arthur Morton, who received new cornea tissue from the same woman that supplied the Rev. Harding,
