THE Mail Tribune's annual BARGAIN DAYS . . . an opportunity to subscribe to YOUR newspaper at substantially lower rates . . . For nearly thirty years, this paper has served this community—has expanded its service and facilities to keep pace with a growing trade area. From time to time, new equipment has been added; news service improved; carrier service perfected . . . Full United Press night telegraph service augments the Tribune's dependable Associated Press wire. This means more complete news and detailed coverage of sporting and other events which occur at night. America's finest syndicated features—the pick of the nation's writers—

the funniest funnies and the best of serial novels are featured—in fact every effort has been made to make the FINEST POSSIBLE NEWSPAPER out of southern Oregon's OWN NEWSPAPER—The Mail Tribune.

Production costs have advanced sharply with increased cost of newsprint, freight rates, etc. The publishers of the Mail Tribune have found it necessary to announce a moderate increase in subscription rates, effective September 1st to meet this situation, feeling that it is important NOT to change from the high standard of news and feature service to effect essential savings. These new subscription rates actually amount to LESS THAN ONE-THIRD OF A CENT A DAY!
