

Sockeye Gets Chance for Revenge Against Wild Italian Tonight

EX-LOGGER EAGER TO SQUARE COUNT WITH BELCASTRO

Bobby Chick and Kenaston Carded for Middle Event — Smolinski Will Tangle With Strelion in Opener

The super-special, Sockeye Jack McDonald brand of hate, which has been welling up inside the slugging ex-Seaside logger for two long weeks, explodes all over the Medford arena wrestling ring tonight as Sockeye and Pete Belcastro tangle in their anxiously awaited return brawl.

Score Settler?

Facing the craft, villainous Pete Belcastro tonight in the Medford arena will be Sockeye Jack McDonald (above), ex-Seaside logger. They wrestle the main event. Sockeye has a score to settle with the Mad Italian.

McDonald's hate of Belcastro, a seething, burning, all-consuming fire, first flared exactly 14 days ago, in the last match of the summer at the high school arena. It was homecoming for the Mad Italian after over a year's absence, and he made it a happy one for himself by defeating McDonald on what the latter figured was a "robbery," involving an alleged heavy count by Referee Earl Youkley.

Since then, McDonald has been crasy to get the Mad Italian again in the ring with him, and vows to give him the drubbing of his life. On the other side of the picture, Belcastro, never one to mince words, comes out flatly with the statement that he will use his "mystery" maneuver to "whup" the daylight out of Sockeye. To date, the "mystery" hold is just that, as Pete has been unable to find the proper opportunity to bring it into play. Tonight, though, the colorful villain has sworn to display the new tactics.

By Tuesday night 64 players will have qualified for match play to start Wednesday and continue through Saturday's 6-hole final.

CRATERS BATTER LOGGERS 14-6, TO KEEP LEAD TIED

Locals Rap Pair of Visiting Pitchers for 11 Hits — Glendale Errors Costly — Rathke Goes Route

Making the best possible use of 11 baseruns, including home runs by Cliff McLean and Dick Lewis, Medford's crashing Craters presented their new manager, Paul "Hooker" Hoffard, with a 14 to 6 victory over the Glendale Loggers yesterday at the high school park to retain a share of the Southern Oregon league's second-half leadership. Seven Glendale errors materially aided the Craters in their conquest.

While Medford was beating Glendale, Crescent City licked Yreka at Crescent City, 6 to 3 and Grants Pass stopped Ashland at Grants Pass, 11 to 1, leaving the race still in a triple tie for first place with only one more game remaining. Medford, Crescent City and Grants Pass are deadlocked for the top spot with six wins and one loss. The second-half race ends next Sunday with Crescent City playing here, Grants Pass traveling to Glendale and Yreka playing at Ashland.

Bill Rathke, the short, broad-shouldered right-hander with the jerky delivery, went the route for Medford, and although touched for 10 hits he was good enough in the clutches to enable his club to breeze in. Rathke fanned eight and didn't issue a single base on balls. He was also given spectacular defensive support by his teammates.

Lewis' homer came off Johnson, Southpaw Glenn Elliott didn't show for Glendale, Merle Johnson, a right-hander, working the first six frames for the Loggers and Spore pitching the last two. Johnson was rapped for nine hits and as many runs in his stay on the Glendale mound, and the Craters finished up on Spore with two safeties and five tallies.

The contract gives Taylor the same promotional rights with the National Boxing Association's No. 1 heavyweight title challenger as Mike Jacobs has with Champion Joe Louis. "Mike is trying to make boxing look like razzling," Tony explained, and his manager, Joe Jacobs (standing) added: "Mike Jacobs is too busy protecting Joe Louis to pay attention to other heavyweights." ## CUT LOOSE BONE FROM HUB'S ARM

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 22.—(AP)—An orthopedic surgeon removed a "loose bone" today from the crippled left arm of Carl Hubbell, the New York Giants' master southpaw.

A hospital bulletin reported the operation was a success and the famed left-hander was "getting along fine."

Hubbell was given an anesthetic and remained in the operating room almost an hour. An examination last Saturday disclosed his condition was the result of a loose bone chip in his elbow.

The 35-year old hurler, prior to the operation, was accorded a "chance" to recover sufficiently for the final weeks of the National league campaign.

Hubbell, however, expressed belief at his age he might not "heat" as rapidly as a younger man.
