DEDICATION RITES HELD AT PIONEER JVILLE CHURCH

Throng of Descendants and Friends at Services Unveiling Granite Boulder and Plaque in Grounds

The romance of the pioneer days again manifested its appeal to a great crowd of descendants and friends who gathered from all parts of Jackson county Sunday afternoon at the old Methodist church of Jacksonville in the annual memorial service. Rev. E. N. Mallory, the present community pastor, was assisted in the services by Rev. Joseph Knotts, Rev. James Hamilton, Dr. Jonett P. Bray, Rev. C. H. Freudenburg of Talent and Rev. L. F. Belknap.

Old time gospel hymns were sung by those who filled the church building and overflowed the grounds. A loud speaker was installed so that the many outside might share in the service.

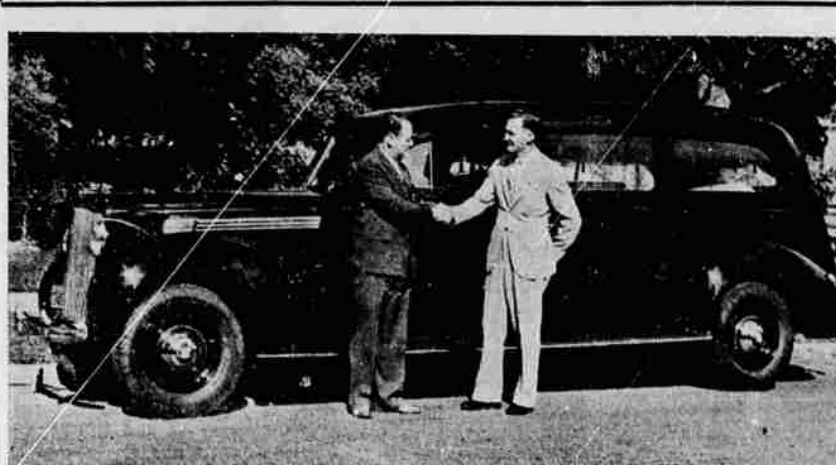

The sermon by Dr. Sherman L. Divine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Medford, was from the text "When your children shall ask their fathers in time to come, 'What mean these stones?' Then ye shall let your children know." Joshua IV-21-22.

He said in part: "Since the day when God said unto Abraham in the long ago 'Get thee up from thy kindred and thy father's house and go unto the land that I will show thee,' man has been captivated by the lure of the West. And as Abraham's first act on reaching far away Schechem was to build an altar there, the pioneer has sooner or later performed his religious duty. The foundation of all homes and community life is in religion. Circumstances may alter many things but the hearts of men sooner or later return to rebuild the altars of their fathers."

Following the great migration of 1853 when a large company of new settlers came into the Rogue River valley, the Rev. Joseph S. Smith began the work of establishing the church. The organization was effected on June 1, 1854. Steps were taken for the building of a church and assisted by the Misses Overbeck and Royal who carried the subscription lists into every home, into saloons and wayside camps the building was begun.

The Territory of Oregon having summoned Mr. Smith to serve as its congressman at Washington, the Rev. T. P. Royal came on the field and securing a gift of the present site from James Clugage with the aid of loyal workers, both men and women, completed and occupied the structure in the fall of 1854. The builders were Pile, McDonough and David Linn. Formal dedication was conducted by Rev. J. H. Wilbur, presiding elder of the Umpqua district. This church was used as a place of

New Ambulance Placed In Service

HARD LUCK DOGS VETERAN OF WAR; 14 HOMES LOST

WEST CHESTER, Pa. (UP)—Misfortune and bad luck have dogged the trail of Sgt. J. A. Foster of the 13th black watch, 48th highlanders, Canadian army, for many years but the tougher the breaks the harder he fought back.

Stranded here with his wife and two children while en route from Miami, Fla., to Hamilton, Ontario, in a crude pushcart, Foster told the story of his life, a story of ill-luck, personal injury and financial destitution.

He said that during his life he built 14 homes and lost them all. His five daughters, mother and two sisters were killed in a burning. He is disabled from World war wounds and is "dead broke."

IRRIGATION TAPERS OFF AFTER RECORD SEASON

The heaviest valley irrigation season has started to taper off, with a good reserve in the reservoir, according to Olen Arnsperger, general manager of the Medford and Talent irrigation districts. The tapering-off is due to many of the orchards discontinuing because of picking.

Manager Arnsperger states there was almost continuous irrigation this summer, as it was broken by no showers, since early in May. Generally, there are rains to break the irrigation season.

PROSPECT AREA HAS EPIDEMIC OF THEFTS

A crime wave rolled over the Prospect area, the past week, and a trailer wagon, a buzz saw, and a grindstone were stolen, according to the sheriff's office.

The buzz saw belonged to Ludo Griev, in charge of the California Oregon Power company plant near Prospect, and the grindstone to Earl Ulrich. The trailer was owned by another resident of the area.

There are no clues to the culprit. The authorities do not figure the tool will be used in a woodcutting project, but will be sold for cash.

But Never Smokes

CARDIFF, Wales—(AP)—Tinker, a tobacco-chewing 21-year-old South Wales pit horse who won't start work in the morning until he has had his "quid," won the veterans' prize at the Royal Show here. He has worked underground 16 years.

Mark Road Completion TOLLOATE, Ore., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Southeast Washington and northeast Oregon residents celebrated completion of the Weston-Elgin highway across the Blue mountains, connecting the Grande Ronde and Walla Walla valleys, with a picnic yesterday. An estimated 10,000 persons participated.

Has First Wedding. NEW GLASGOW, N. S.—(AP)—Although more than 100 years old, Sutherland's River, a small district Walla Walla valley, had its first wedding recently.

One day Rev. Kelly heard me mash a thumb...

Here I am reaching up trying to get a drain plug to turn loose when WHAM...!!XXXX###!! Then I turned around and saw him! "I-I was just thinking about today's stop-and-go driving," I said, flabbergasted.

"Must be terrible," said Rev. Kelly, not smiling.

"Unless, Mister... I mean Reverend Kelly—unless your oil starts flowin' like a bat out—out—a well, oil will flow fast."

"And Rev'nd, I bet a lotta nickels and dimes that used to go for thirty or thirty-five cent oil get put in the collection plate now. This Golden Shell is only a quarter." (That one just flashed into my mind.)

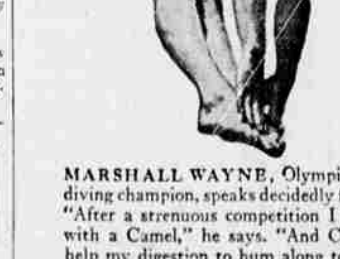

"Well, Bill (he calls me Bill always), you've helped me with that information—maybe I can help you."

So I promised to go to prayer meetin' next Wednesday night. Sincerely, Your Shell Dealer

ONE SMOKER TELLS ANOTHER:

"GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!"

MARSHALL WAYNE, Olympic platform diving champion, speaks decidedly for Camels. "After a strenuous competition I get a 'lift' with a Camel," he says. "And Camels sure help my digestion to hum along too."

MRS. ETHEL ARNOLD, tennis star, comments on nerve control—"So many tennis champions prefer Camels. Camels don't upset the nerves and spoil timing. I'm convinced Camels are made from COSTLIER TOBACCOS!"

DOWN THE HUDSON—Albany to New York—in 3 1/2 hours. Clayton Bishop, outdoor motor racing star, did it. He says: "Camels never ruffle my nerves, and they give my energy a swell lift."

SWIMMING RECORDS FALL before Lenore Knight Wingard. Lenore remarks: "Camels never tire my taste or get on my nerves. When I feel taut after a meet, a Camel helps ease the tension. Another thing—Camels are so mild—they never irritate my throat."

RALPH GULDAHL, twice winner of U.S. Open golf crown, says: "One thing about Camels is the 'lift' in energy they give. I've smoked Camels 10 years and I've never known them to jangle my nerves. I appreciate Camels!"
