Pruitt-Phair Wedding Held Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Pruitt of 324 South Ivy street today announced the marriage of their daughter, Oda Jean Pruitt, to Eldon Phair of this city. The young couple were married in Vancouver, Wash., Sunday afternoon, August 20, with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Phair as attendants. The latter Mr. Phair and the bridegroom are brothers and are associated together in business in this city.

The bride graduated from Medford high school last year where she held an active part in school and social affairs. Mr. Phair attended school in Portland where he resided before coming to Medford.

The newly wedded couple returned last evening from a honeymoon spent in Washington and Oregon.

Hollywoodites Visit Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reddy and Mrs. Fredrica Pawley of Hollywood arrived in Medford recently and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Swartz at their home on 49 Berkley Way. Mrs. Reddy and Mrs. Pawley are Mrs. Swartz's daughters.

The Californians are also visiting Mr. Reddy's mother, Mrs. Mary Reddy, during their stay in this city. The group are all employed at Paramount Motion Picture company in the film center.

Mrs. Pawley will leave for the south tomorrow, while the Reddys will remain a fortnight.

Ashland Wedding Of Interest In Medford Circle

A marriage of interest to many Medford residents took place Tuesday evening of last week at the home of the bride in Ashland when Miss Naomi Kinkade and Glen Johnston took their vows in the presence of a number of friends and relatives from Medford, Ashland and Central Point. The ring service was read by the Rev. Walter Strain, pastor of the Church of Christ of this city. Miss Maxine Pierce of Medford played the wedding music.

Living rooms were decorated in pastel shades and the improvised altar was arranged in an attractive manner.

The bridal couple were attended by Roland Hoyer and Pearl Hoyer. The bride wore a wedding gown of turquoise sheer with matching accessories. Her hair was held in place by a bandeau of pink and white flowers and she carried a beautiful bouquet of pink and white blossoms.

A reception followed the wedding service to which over 30 guests were bidden.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, well known in this valley, will make their home in Ashland.

Morris Home Is Luncheon Scene

Mrs. T. B. Morris entertained this afternoon at her home on West 11th street with another of her pleasant luncheons and foursome bridge parties.

Luncheon was served in the attractive summer house in the Morris yard, after which bridge was played for the remainder of the afternoon.

Guests present were Mrs. Gus Samuels, Mrs. Charles R. Gall and Mrs. Van Gilbert.

Lutheran Group Meet Tomorrow

Women's Missionary Service society of the Zion English Lutheran church will convene tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church parlors. Members are asked to bring with them material for quilting work to be used for the Lutheran mission in Montana. Mrs. Overt Hanson will be hostess for the session and asks that all members be present.

Hosts Have House Guests

Mrs. John W. Hoyt, Jr. and son Arthur of Oakland, Cal., were the house guests for a few days recently of Rev. and Mrs. John W. Hoyt at their home on Mistletoe street.

Mrs. Hoyt was accompanied as far as Eureka on her return to Oakland by Mrs. Daniel McClure of Eureka, who spent the week-end visiting her son, William H. McClure of this city.

Miles Hosts To Many House Guests This Summer

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Miles have as their house guests at their home on North Oakdale, Miss Eleanor Anderson of Berkeley, Cal., and Miss Katherine Wagner of Los Angeles. Miss Anderson will leave for her home tomorrow evening and Miss Wagner will remain here until September 1, when she will be joined by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wagner, who are now on a northern trip, and the group will return to Los Angeles together.

Other recent guests of the Miles were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Youse and Mrs. Ida Wells of Dodge City, Kas. Following a brief but pleasant sojourn in Medford, the visitors returned to Kansas by motorcar.

Last week the Miles and the Wagner families of Ashland enjoyed another family party given at the home of Mr. A. E. Kinney. Twenty-eight guests gathered for the reunion. This has been a well-filled summer for the families, as there have been numerous members of the clan visiting in Medford and Ashland from their eastern homes. Reunions, house parties and day outings have been in order throughout the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wagner are leaving today for their New York City home, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wagner departed last week for Detroit, where they reside. Other members of the family will be returning to their homes in various states soon, after pleasant vacations of much activity spent here.

23 SPEEDERS TO COMPETE FRIDAY IN TRIBUNE RACE

Registration Closed for First Annual Midget Speeder Derby — Two Heats Will Nominate Final Racers

There will be 23 entrants in the first annual Mail Tribune-Scout Club midget speeder derby on East Main street Friday evening; 23 flashy, sturdy vehicles driven by Medford boys who have been working for weeks on the speeders they hope will bring them honor and glory and a share of the prizes donated by local merchants. It was announced today following the closing date for registration last night.

Of those 23 midget speeders, home-constructed at costs varying from 70 cents to $750, 12 will be entered in class A, open to boys from 12 to 15 years old, inclusive; and 11 will be class B entrants, open to youthful "Barney Oldfields" from 9 to 11, inclusive.

Final arrangements for the event were almost entirely completed last night at a general committee meeting at Boy Scout headquarters, but a final checkup on all speeders is required by 11 a. m. Friday. Those who didn't have their speeders qualified last night are requested to have this done by the closing hour Friday morning.

The great race, which starts at 8:30 p. m. Friday, will be run off in heats. There will be two heats run in both A and B class, with the speeders finishing first and second in their respective heats in both classes meeting in the finals. All speeders which don't pass qualification requirements will stage a Class C race, probably of only one heat.

Starting point of the derby will be the end of the wide paving on East Main street at the top of the hill, with the finish line at Williamette avenue, a distance of one-quarter mile. East Main street, from the starting point to Crater Lake avenue, will be closed to traffic and parking during the derby. All entrants are warned to be at the starting point at 6 p. m. Friday.

Following are the boys entered in class A: Paul Wagner, Edward Gove, Billy Cox, Reece Cave Donald Smith, Weldon Webber, Stan Smith, Jack Kresse, Robert Morgan Helbert Deuel, Wayne Toulouse, Gerry Hoffman.

Class B entrants are Donald Nissen, LeRoy Cretchett, Norman House, LeRoy Arion Skinner, Donald Shores, Tom Tama, Donald Williamson, James Lonnie, Bill Gould, Richard Harrison, and Howard Fry.

Official delegates who will make the trip are W. E. Lantz, exalted ruler of the local lodge Dr. S. E. Phillips, Claude Holmes, Richard Milstone, Ernest L. Scott, A. F. Stennett, H. N. Butler, Harold Reichstein, J. F. Fliegel and E. C. Jerome. E. W. Winkle of Medford, president of the state association, will also attend, as will Dr. Walter Kresse. There may be other local members planning to attend who haven't made known their intentions to the secretary, Mr. Scott stated.

Other dinner guests at the Wertz home were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hanson of Skikyou Summit, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jantzer and Carl Hanson of Central Point and Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Kinney and children of Ashland.

The Jackson county road equipment has been moved onto the Climax road where work has begun.

Mrs. L. H. Wertz and daughter Roberta were Medford callers Saturday.

Teddy O'Connor visited at the Wertz home Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Hovet and Mrs. Mabel Wertz, accompanied by Norma Jean, motored to Medford Tuesday.

Elmer Korner and family have returned to their home in Los Angeles after visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Korner, and family.

About 25 members of the Sams Valley Ladies' club met on the river, August 18, for a picnic. Everyone enjoyed the afternoon. Ice cream and cookies were served. Next meeting will be September 1 at the home of Mrs. Gladys Bigham.

SUSPENDED SENTENCES FOR FARM TRESPASS

The Sikes family, Grace, George, Wayne, and Ralph, homesteaders in the Skikyou beyond Buckhorn Springs, charged with trespass by a neighbor, Mrs. Ottilie M. Scholer, were given one year's suspended sentences, following a hearing in justice court Tuesday.

Testimony showed the Sikes, whose place lies beyond the Scholer homestead, had been using a road that passed through the Scholer backyard. Mrs. Scholer objected to this, out gave the right to pass elsewhere, which required some road building. The Sikes preferred the backyard route and a trespass complaint was filed. Trouble has been brewing between the two families for a year the district attorney reported.

Traffic Cop Hurt

PORTLAND, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Patrolman Fred A. West of the city traffic squad was critically injured last night when his motorcycle overturned on a curve.
