Meeting Tonight — Regular weekly meeting of the Eagles lodge and auxiliary will be held in the Medford armory tonight at 8 o'clock. A large attendance is requested, as members will discuss business pertaining to a new lodge hall.

To Add Car — Carl W. Carson, owner and operator of Puszy's Taxi, states that he will add another new Ford to his taxi business the first of next week. He reports his trade has increased to a point where additional equipment is a necessity.

Return Home — Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Winans and son Bobby of Seattle, left this morning by motorcar for their northern home. They have been visiting at the Central Point home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fiescher since Saturday. Mr. Winans is financial editor of the Seattle Times.

To Funeral — Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Groves left yesterday for Cottage Grove to attend the funeral today of Mr. Groves' mother, Mrs. Margaret Groves, who died while on a camping trip Tuesday night. Mrs. Groves, who was 70 years old, was a frequent visitor at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, 108 Genesee street. She has lived in the Cottage Grove district for the past 40 years.

Searches for Son — Mrs. Deah Hurst of route 2, box 918, Milwaukie, Ore., requests information from anybody knowing the whereabouts of her son, Mike Hurst, missing from home since January of this year. Mrs. Hurst writes that her son might possibly be working for some mining company in southern Oregon, as he was very fond of such employment. Anyone knowing Mike is requested to write Mrs. Hurst at the above address.

Property Re-zoned — At a meeting of the city planning commission in city hall last night, the property formerly known as Riverside park on North Riverside avenue was withdrawn from park purposes and re-zoned to conditional business zone, class 3. The property is 310 feet on Riverside avenue and 140 feet deep. Bernard Roberts, president of the planning commission, presided. J. R. Woodford was present as secretary. No other business was transacted.

Boat Trip Planned — Frederick Wagner, publisher of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin, and Dick Clancy of Los Angeles plan to make a boat trip down Rogue river from Grants Pass, starting September 5, with Glen Woodriddle, the well-known fishing guide, stated in a letter today. The two visitors will take colored motion pictures of the entire trip and will show them in Grants Pass upon their return. Mr. Woodriddle said he would attempt to arrange for the movies to be shown in Medford, also. Fishing is rather slow in the vicinity of Grants Pass at the present time, the guide reports, but with water cooling, angling conditions are expected to improve.

Applicants must be 35 years of age or under. Further information and application blanks may be obtained at the chamber.

MARBLE AND FABYAN TRIM ENGLISH GIRLS

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 25.—(P)—Alice Marble and Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan, defending champions in the women's division, today became the first of the 1938 national doubles tennis finalists by defeating Kay Stammers and Margot Lumb of England, 6-2, 6-2.

BROOKLYN, Mass., Aug. 25.—(P)—Adrian Quist and Jack Bromwich, the Australian Davis cup players, today upheld their top foreign seeding in the national doubles tennis tournament by gaining the semi-final round with an easy 6-1, 9-7, 6-2 triumph over Gardner Mulloy of Miami, and George Toley of Los Angeles.

In "Borneo"

Osa Johnson brings to the screen of the Roly Theater today and tomorrow only the last picture filmed by her famous husband, Martin Johnson. The picture is "Borneo," a thrilling and amazing photo-record of the strangest land on earth—the wild jungle region of Borneo.

Danielle Darrioux Coming

A new star shines in the Hollywood heavens—Danielle Darrioux—and comes to the Craterian theatre Sunday in a three day showing of her first American-made picture, "Rage of Paris," with Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Louis Hayward as the two romantically inclined young men who seek her attentions. Also featured in the cast are Misha Auer and Helen Broderick. Exotically beautiful, feminine magic in her every gesture, Danielle Darrioux (pronounced "dare-you") reveals an excitingly different personality than any now on the screen, giving every promise of becoming one of filmdom's most brilliant new stars with her role in "Rage of Paris."

Paul Muni

Paul Muni comes to the Rialto theatre for tomorrow and Saturday in a special return engagement of "Bordertown," in which he is costarred for the first and only time with dramatic Bette Davis. The two are said to give the greatest performances of their careers as the big shot gambler who thought he knew women and the adventures who thought she knew men. Margaret Lindsay and Eugene Pallette have supporting roles. Tex Ritter, starting in "Rolling Plains," will play as the companion feature for tomorrow.

FRENCH SOCIALISTS WORRIED BY GERMANY

PARIS, Aug. 25.—(P)—A Socialist party demand for a special session of parliament today closely followed accounts quoting Premier Edouard Daladier as declaring "Germany's mobilization of 2,000,000 men" had confronted him with "a situation no government chief has known since 1914."

Newspapers with strong political connections said the premier's declaration was made at last night's closed meeting of the executive committee of his own radical-socialist party, at conclusion of which the committee voted him "complete confidence."
