CRESCENT INVADES MEDFORD SUNDAY FOR FINAL CLASH

Game May Determine Second Half Championship, If Grants Pass Loses to Glendale Loggers Crew

Games Sunday
Crescent City at Medford.
Grants Pass at Glendale.
Ashland vs. Yreka (cancelled)

It's the checkered flag for Southern Oregon league baseball clubs Sunday, the deciding payoff to a pennant race that has kept fans in a frenzy of excitement and players battling their heads off throughout the four-month 16-game split-season schedule.

It's Crescent City marauding Merchants versus Medford's crashing Craters at Medford, and the Grants Pass Merchants versus Glendale's dangerous Loggers at Glendale in climax of the second-half race, games that will either definitely decide the championship and right to meet Crescent City for the circuit banner, or determine which two outfits will end in a tie for the leadership and go into a playoff game.

The Ashland-Yreka game, scheduled for Ashland, has been cancelled, forfeited to the Californians by Manager Leonard Hall of the Lithians because of the numerous Ashland players working in the fruit, making it impossible for them to play Sunday. Both teams were eliminated from the second-half race weeks ago, so the game would have had no bearing on the championship.

May Decide Pennant

The Medford-Crescent City game at Medford, fourth meeting of the two bitter rivals this season, can determine the second-half championship. Both clubs are tied for the leadership with six wins and one loss, and in case Grants Pass, also boasting the same percentage, loses to Glendale, the winner here will become the pennant victor. However, if Grants Pass beats Glendale as expected, the winner of the Medford-Crescent City game will be tied with Grants Pass for the bunting and a playoff game become necessary. Crescent City won the first-half championship and is assured of a berth in the pennant playoff series between the winners of the two halves.

Larry Mike Koll, league-leading hurler with 11 victories and 20 defeats, will attempt to make it three out of four over the Craters. He has beaten them twice already, 7 to 6 in 12 innings and 16 to 2, while losing a 0 to 4 shutout early in the first-half. His other defeat was at the hands of Grants Pass.

Turpin Gets Call

For Manager Paul "Hoosier" Hoffard's Craters, battling to bring Medford its first league championship in over 10 years, Lyle Turpin, recently acquired young right-hander of the Klamath Falls Red Sox, will do the pitching, with Cliff "Chief" McLean back of the plate. Turpin, nursing for the Sox against Crescent City July 4 in an exhibition game, beat the coast team, 4 to 3, with four hits. He is big and powerful with a blazing fast ball.

The Craters will go through their final batting and fielding rehearsal late this afternoon, and Manager Hoffard plans no change in the lineup which brought him a smashing win over Glendale last Sunday in his first start at the local helm. Orval Hampel will be on first, Billy Calvert on second, Dick Lewis on short, Rince Cook on third, himself in leftfield, Dick Sakrada in center and Tommy White in right. Bill Ratke and Ray Erickson, right-handers, will be reserve pitchers.

The largest crowd of the season is expected to attend the final and possible championship game. A public address system will be in operation to keep fans informed of all action.

Hubbell Out For Season

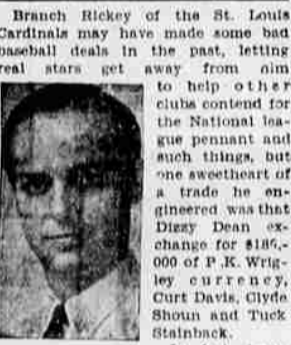

Carl Hubbell isn't much of a "usual suspect" here for the New York Giants, the reason being he's laid up in a Memphis, Tenn., hospital following an operation on that famous left arm for removal of a bone splinter. Hubbell may not get on the mound again this season, his doctor said. (A.P. Photo)

Billy Hulen says:

Rickey Was Lucky Getting Davis in Deal for Ol' Diz

Billy Hulen.

Branch Rickey of the St. Louis Cardinals may have made some bad baseball deals in the past, letting real stars get away from him to help other clubs contend for the National league pennant and such things, but one sweetheart of a trade he engineered was that of Dizzy Dean exchange for $100,000 of P.K. Wrigley currency, Curt Davis, Clyde Shoun and Tuck Stainback.

In fact, to say out the 185 grand and Shoun and Stainback and make it an even-up trade, Davis for Dean, and Rickey would still be way ahead of Dizzy Wrigley and his Chicago Cubs. Dean, to date, has proved only a big headache to the Cubs, while Davis has really done some pitchin' for the Cardinals.

Curt hurled one of the greatest games of his career Tuesday when he blanked Brooklyn, 5 to 0, while allowing only one hit, a bunt which Roy beat out in the second inning. That's coming in the close tuning of his best coming in the close tuning of the hall of fame, and Curt's hundreds of southern Oregon friends are tickled pink because the big right-hander who has been shunted about considerably since he left the Sox, is apparently proving he's far from through, after all.

It must be nice to be a Medford high school football player. That is, if you like ice cream. And, who doesn't?

Repeating his generosity of last season, Hy Frager, manager of the Rex cafe, said yesterday that all members of Coach Bill Howeman's varsity gridiron would be more than welcome each and every day this year for a dish of ice cream. Squads will be given coupon books, and with each dish of ice cream a ticket will be torn off. That's all there is to it.

Hy also stated he would "pop" EVERY DROP

Salem Flinger Shuts Out Baker Outfit Without a Hit—Semi-Final Contests Scheduled for Tonight

SALEM, Aug. 26.—(AP)—The third no-hit, no-run game in the history of the state softball tournament was hurled last night as Square Deal Radio of Salem and Rosini's Wine of Portland went into the semi-final.

Veruon Gilmore, Salem, pitched the shutout game, second of this tournament, in winning for Baker, 12 to 0. Gilmore's record was beamed by seven walks.

The Rosini team shut out McMinnville, 6 to 0.

Rotary Bread, Portland, defending state champion, and the Salem Papermakers will play the first semi-final game tonight. Rosini and the Salem Square Deal squad will clash in the nightcap.

BIRD SHOOTERS GIVEN CHANCE TO WHET AIM ON GUN CLUB PIGEONS

Trap and skeet shooters will have a full day at the Medford Gun Club Sunday, commencing at 10:30 a. m. With approach of the upland bird shooting season each year numerous bird-shooters, not regular trapshooting enthusiasts, avail themselves of the facilities of the local club to practice wing shooting at the traps.

The new Leggett trap, recently installed, is in fine working order and is delighting the "double" shooters with its perfect targets. Both singles and doubles will be thrown with the new trap Sunday.

At the practice traps, two weeks ago, a number of visiting shooters including tourists and river summer home owners, participated and an equally large number of visitor is expected Sunday.

The club management emphasizes that the public is always welcomed by the gun club membership.

LULL, WADDELL TAKE TEAM RIFLE MATCH IN ALL-NIGHT SHOOT

Ed Lull and Ivan Waddell teamed up to win the two-man team match in the Yreka Rifle Club's all-night outdoor shoot under lights at Yreka, Cal., last Saturday night with a score of 796,800. Second place went to C. D. Athey of Yreka and C. C. Gall of the local club with a 792. Orin Deter of Yreka took first in the Individual Dewar with 399,400, closely followed by Athey of the same club with a 398. Clyde Richmond was winner of B class with 399.

Firing started shortly after dark and continued until the early morning hours in the first match held on a floodlighted outdoor range in this part of the country.

Next Sunday morning the local club will fire on the new and difficult expert target at the small range. These will be the first of the new type targets to be used by any of the 44 rifle clubs of Oregon.

Plans are already being formulated for the coming winter gallery season, whereby club members will be divided into two shooting divisions. Division 1 will be those whose equipment of rifle and sights have a value greater than $50. Division 2 will include those whose rifle and sights do not have an initial value of more than $50 and who qualify as tyros under the National Rifle association ruling.

The winter gallery season officially opens November 1.

FAN SHUCKS TROUSERS WHEN POCKET FLAMES

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 26.—(UP)—A man in a crowded section of the stands at Shibe park leaped to his feet during the second game of the doubleheader between the St. Louis Browns and the Philadelphia Athletics yesterday and clutched at the seat of his trousers.

A box of matches in a hip pocket had ignited and he was forced to remove his trousers to prevent severe burns.

It was "ladies' day" at Shibe park.

SOCKEYE TO GIVE MIKE ACID TEST

Just how good is Mike Strelch, really? Such is a question being discussed by many local wrestling fans who saw the huge brother of Steve Strelch, the Hollywood movie extra, etc., turn on the heat to give Joe Smolinski a good drubbing on last Monday's program.

Mike looked like a top-notch when he quit playing around with Smolinski and went to work in earnest, and many mat addicts then and there predicted he would develop into one of Promoter Mack Lillard's best boys. A few customers, however, have reserved their acclaim of Mike until after the acid test he will face next Monday night, and it will honestly be an acid test. If Mike can come through his squabble Monday, there will no longer be any doubt in anybody's minds regarding his ability to take it and give it.

Strelch faces Sockeye Jack McDonald, tough ex-logger from Seattle, in the middle event, and if anybody can thoroughly test him it is McDonald.

Pete Belcastro and Sgt. Bob Kenaston headline the card, clashing in a one-hour main event, while Bobby Chiek and Juan Sebastian, a newcomer from Mexico City, open the program.

IZAAK WALTONS HOLD ANNUAL STATE MEET

PORTLAND, Aug. 26.—(AP)—Oregon's angling myriads—officially known as the Izaak Walton League—met here today in their annual convention, hard put to it to keep minds on business pending a barbecue on Sauvie Island Sunday.

State President William A. Davidson said few meetings were scheduled for the three-day session, and that most members would visit Bonneville dam to inspect fishways.

Fear Seiner Lost

KETCHIKAN, Alaska, Aug. 26.—(AP)—An aerial search was planned today of the Pacific ocean area surrounding Dall Island 100 miles west of Ketchikan, for the missing 50-foot seine boat Eldavold and its crew of six two days overdue at the Nakat Packing corporation's Waterfall plant.

PETERS "BELTED" BULLET TAKES THE GAMBLE OUT OF BIG GAME HUNTING

THE fame of Peters Belted Bullet has circled the globe. And justly so! For when the Big Game Smasher hits... you can take your trophy home! Expansion is controlled by a heavy belt behind the bullet nose. There's no disintegration... no loss of power... so, penetration and knockdown power are greater than with conventional expanding bullets. Equally effective at either long or short ranges, it is not necessary to get close to your game before shooting.
