

SOCIETY AND CLUB NEWS OF THE WEEK

By OLARA MARY DAVIS

Kathryn Anderson Honored Guest Saturday Evening

Miss Kathryn Anderson was honored guest at a dinner party Saturday evening at the Chateau. Following dinner, dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.

Members of the younger set participating in the enjoyable event were the Misses Kathryn Anderson, Barbara Lemmon, Virginia Hammond and Dawn Owens and the Messrs. Phil Todd, Ray Ettinger, Ollie Sneed and Ray Owens.

Miss Anderson will leave Medford this week with her parents, Captain and Mrs. Albert T. Anderson for Astoria where they will reside. She has been a popular member of the younger society set here and active in school affairs.

Houstons Have House Guests

Among local people dividing their time between town and country are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Houston, who have had as guests at their Oregon Terrace home and their Sprague river ranch, Miss Carol Rice of Seattle and their son Robert Houston, and daughter, Miss Dorothy Houston, also of Seattle. Miss Houston and her brother are graduate students at the University of Washington.

Miss Rice left Thursday for her home, and Mrs. Houston and son and daughter for their ranch home. They will join Mr. Houston there and a celebration is planned for the week end, honoring the Houstons' thirtieth wedding anniversary.

The group enjoyed several side trips during the past week, into southern Oregon's vacation land.

Youngsters Enjoy Birthday Party

Orville Miller was pleasantly surprised Wednesday afternoon at the home of Charles Wilcox Jr. The occasion being Master Orville's sixth birthday.

Fourteen youngsters participated in the birthday affair and enjoyed presents refreshments and a large birthday cake served by Mrs. Rnn Miller and Mrs. F. M. Bonford. Mrs. Dephna Wilcox assisted with the games played.

Guests present at the event included the little Misses Shirley Stram, Virginia Carry, Lois Hoffman, Martha Saunders and Doris Galnes and Masters Johnny Bigham, Lance Dossion, Donald Stram, Bobby Robinson, Lee Saunders, Sonny Robinson, Charles Wilcox, and the honored guest, Orville Miller.

Mrs. Reinhart to Visit Brother

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Reinhart have had as their house guests at their home on Crater Lake avenue the past week, Mr. Reinhart's brother, William J. Reinhart and his wife and son Billy of Washington, D. C. Mr. Reinhart has been coach at Washington university. He was formerly basketball coach at University of Oregon.

The two families enjoyed a sojourn at Lake of the Woods last week. The Washington visitors accompanied by Mrs. J. Frank Reinhart left yesterday by motorcar for the San Francisco. The latter will visit for a week in Berkeley as guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis West after which she will return to Medford.

Bride-Elect Feted At Club Meeting

Mrs. Anna Lang entertained the members of the Carnation club on Thursday evening at her home on Washington street. A two course luncheon was served by the hostess who was assisted by Hattie Bradshaw and Katherine Smith.

Miss Esther Hubler, bride-elect was the recipient of a bridal shower during the pleasant affair. Miss Hubler will become the bride of George Barker of Ashland September 1 in this city.

Twenty-five guests were present at the party.

It's The Simplest Rules That Give Most Trouble

By Joan Durham
AP Feature Service Writer

"Two women and a man are walking down the street. Where should the man walk in relation to the women?"

"Must a man always stand when a woman enters the room?"

The questions of where and when to sit, stand or walk are always with us. Here are the answers to a few:

Always On the Outside
One man walking with two women keeps nearest the curb.

Unless a man is very old he should always rise when a woman enters the room.

In a theater: The woman goes to her seat first. The man, therefore, sits closest to the aisle. If there is no usher, the man precedes the woman until he locates seats, then stands at the end of the row until she gets started to her place. When the entertainment is over he precedes her into the aisle, then lets her go ahead of him.

In a public dining place: The woman is seated first, in the choicest chair—facing the garden, the window or the dance floor. The man helps her put her coat over the back of her chair before he sits down. In a group of four, women usually sit opposite each other, with the men whose guests they are at their right.

What Not To Expect
In an automobile: The woman enters first, sits in the left rear seat whenever a man and woman are to occupy that seat. An exception is the woman who owns a chauffeur-driven car. It is customary for her to sit in the right rear seat, even though her gentleman guest may have to crawl over her brand-new evening slippers to get to his seat at her left. The man leaves the car first and helps the woman to alight.

At dinner parties: The woman guest of honor sits at the right of the host. The hostess sits at the opposite end of the table from the host, unless such seating places two men and two women together. In that case the hostess moves one place to the side. Husbands and wives do not ordinarily sit next to each other; women usually are placed to the right of their partners.

In subways, buses and streetcars: It is still considered proper for a man to give his seat to an elderly or feeble woman. In this day of sex equality, however, an able-bodied woman should not expect a man to give her his seat.

W.C.T.U. to Observe Fiftieth Year Of Activity

Fifty years ago, August 13th, 1888, a small group of temperance women met in the Presbyterian church and organized a Women's Christian Temperance Union. The organization has been active ever since and on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock will meet in the Presbyterian church parlor to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary.

Mrs. Addie Halley, the sole surviving charter member, and the past presidents of the society will be honor guests. Mrs. Maybelle Klem will lead the devotional period and the following program will be presented: Salute to the flag, Boy Scouts, "America," reading of minutes of first meeting, Mrs. Daisy Douglas, summary of the activities of the Union during its fifty years existence, by past presidents of the society; solo, Mrs. F. H. Vincent; accordion duet, Joan Burk and Dorothy Coffeen; address, Captain E. H. Vincent; cornet solo, Mr. William Schwartz; vocal numbers by Mary-Anne Gates.

Refreshments will be served and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Yorks Vacation In Newport

Mr. and Mrs. Earl York, Mrs. Emma York and Miss Laura York left Friday by motor car for Newport where they will enjoy a few days vacation.

Ladies' Aid Have Enjoyable Meet

The Ladies' Aid of the First M. E. church held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon in the church parlor, president, Mrs. J. A. Gorby presided. The Priscilla circle was in charge. Mrs. Lucretia Whitlock led the devotional service and made a strong appeal for workers in the Sunday school.

During the business session plans were made for a "Rural Fair" to be held in the church gymnasium in October. The fair last year was so well patronized that it was decided to make it an annual event. Detailed announcements will be made later.

Mrs. Peter Dietrich, program chairman, presented Miss Jeanette Trill in two solos, "Rendezvous," and "To You." She was accompanied by Miss Dolores Durker. Miss Ruth Hodges was heard in two violin selections, "Serenade D'Amour," and "Remembrance Serenade," with Miss Clyde Ellenburg at the piano. Joan Burk gave three accordion numbers, "Neapolitan Nights," "Little Soldier's March," and "Whispering Hope."

Seated at the birthday table were Mrs. O. Severson, Miss Mildred Walker, Mrs. Crockett and Mrs. J. A. Gorby, and the guest artists.

Business Opportunity

I still believe my lot on the Southeast corner of Jackson and Central is the best unimproved service station or market location in Medford. But I will have to convince someone other than myself before I can sell or build for them. Drive out and watch the cars go by and picture to yourself the business that could be developed by an attractive gas station or Super Market. I would rather sell, the price is $2500.00, but would build a station for a reliable tenant willing to put in their own pumps, hoist, air compressor, etc., and pay rent of $100.00 per month.

Bishop Home Scene of Party Friday Afternoon

Mrs. Lee Bishop was hostess Friday afternoon at her home on West Main street for a delightful luncheon and bridge party.

Guests present at the affair included Miss Mary Martha Sweeney, Mrs. Warren Hamlin, Mrs. Chester Hubbard, Mrs. Bruce Bauer, Mrs. Kenneth Parrett, Mrs. Frank Perl, Mrs. John W. Johnson and Mrs. T. E. Knacksted.

Mrs. Knacksted and Mrs. Hubbard were awarded prizes for bridge scores.

Hints for Housewives

Remove the creak from doors and bureau drawers by rubbing them with hard soap.

Add a little French dressing to salad dressing to thin it for serving over fruit, fish, meat or vegetable salads.

To speed the congealing of gelatin, put the mold in the coldest part of the refrigerator to chill while you are preparing the dessert.

Brighten up the sun porch this fall by using gaily-colored awning materials for shades on the windows and doors. The material is not expensive. You can tack it onto the regular window shade rollers quite easily. Add fringe as a special decorative touch.

Does your bathing cap tend to stick together? When it gets dry, rub it with a soft cloth dipped in glycerine.

Cold fish and egg canapes are improved if they are chilled before they are served. Place them on a tray. Cover them with waxed paper and leave them in the refrigerator for at least 30 minutes.

Want to make less expensive cuts of meat more tender and easier to cook? Pound them well or score them on both sides with a knife. These procedures loosen the tendons a bit and release the food juices and flavors. Brown the meat all over quickly in a small amount of fat, then cook it at a low temperature until it is tender.

Day Capes of Fur

PARIS—(AP)—New furs include shawl-like day capes, pointed in back and finished in front in long stole-shaped ends. Helm shows one in skunk. Max in shaved beaver. The latter house is also showing a fichu design in white ermine for a black satin evening gown. Ermine tails fringe the fichu and trim the accompanying small, melon-shaped muff.

Sheer Evening Jackets

PARIS—(AP)—Among new sheer evening jackets is a tailleur style in black net covered over with flower appliques of different colored velvets. Brilliantly colored spangles make a leaf or petal here and there. Chanel is showing these.

Victorian Flumes

PARIS—(AP)—Duchess satin makes an evening dress stiffly skirted and voluminous in snowy white. Blue is introduced into this Victorian costume in ostrich feathers of lighter and darker shades, forming a waving headdress.

Mauve For Dinner

PARIS—(AP)—Mrs. Reginald Fel-lows is going in for mauve. She wears a dinner frock of thick mauve crepe with matching jacket embroidered in front with small mirrors of colored glass. A large mauve cape-line, with the trim turned up high in back, completes this costume. She chose this from Schiaparelli, also a formal evening gown in white embroidered with bouquets in diamante. The bolero with this is all diamante, and three roses form the diadem.

Heart and Key

PARIS—(AP)—The key to her heart is set in rhinestones on top of a heart-shaped powder box in ardent red enamel. Another powder box has a compass top, with the needle quivering at north under a glass cover.

Radio Commentator Former Resident Visitor Here

A brief visitor in Medford yesterday was Harold GeBauer of Seattle, Wash., who was house guest here of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Parrett at their North Holly street home.

Mr. GeBauer, a former Medford resident, is fast becoming a most successful radio announcer in the northern city. His position at present is a staff announcer for Totem broadcasters over stations KOMO and KJLH, the NBC outlet for the Pacific northwest. During summer months, Mr. GeBauer has been handling broadcasts from the Olympic hotel over the blue network which features Archie Loveland's orchestra.

Mr. GeBauer, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Parrett, left this morning for southern California by motor car where they will enjoy a fortnight's sojourn. Enroute to Pasadena where they will visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max GeBauer, the two will visit their sister, Mrs. Henry Pace in Burlingame, Cal.

Girl Studies Homes Of United States For Statesmanship

TAMPA, Fla.—Trim and dainty Senorita Magdalena Fernandez of Uruguay is pretty enough to win a beauty contest, but she wants to be a diplomat.

And the slender, 2-year-old brunette with wavy hair, pearly teeth and a ready smile has picked her final training for her chosen career. It is to learn first hand about American home life. Such knowledge, she believes, is essential in diplomacy and she is obtaining it by a series of week-long visits with Tampa families.

Her hostesses are members of the American Association of University Women, who arranged first for her to spend a year at the University of Tampa on an exchange scholarship. Previously she had been graduated at the University of Montevideo in her native land and had studied at Colby college in Vermont.

From Tampa she plans to go to New York and thence home to enter the diplomatic service.

Queen Mary college, University of London, largely endowed by relatives of the queen mother, is being rebuilt and modernized, with a new $45 building to open October 12.

Yreka Couple Married Here

Miss Beale Stewart and Jack Thomas of Yreka, Cal., were united in marriage at noon Friday in the office of Judge E. B. Day. The bride was attired in a black and white traveling suit.

Following the ceremony, the couple went to Jacksonville where they were honored guests at a dinner party given by Mrs. Alma Price, a long time friend of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. George Hilton were also present at the dinner.

The couple departed after the party for Yreka where they will make their home.
