Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—(AP)—The stock market today suffered an attack of the war shivers, among other things, and leading issues broke 1 to more than 5 points in one of the worst tumbles since the beginning of the mid-year upswing. Belated buying support enabled some shares to close moderately up from the lows.

The tide diverted to around its bottom levels in the forenoon as advances from Europe crossed the growing tension over the German-Czech controversy, with troop movement on virtually all borders exemplifying the changes of an explosion that might draw in Great Britain and other world powers.

Transfers approximated 1,300,000 shares.

"Zingo—faster than a left jab," I tells him

I never knew there was so many fight fans in this town—an' they all seem to come to my station. I don't mind, having been in the fight game myself at one time, but they all want to gas about the fights—I can't get my sales talk in edgeways.

I think I got it figured out though. The next time some guy starts bending my ear about the fight game, I'll step out into the driveway an' square off.

"Look, brother," I'll say. "Watch that left hand—that's the way Golden Shell goes to work on your engine—like lightnin'!" I'll remind 'em how moving parts rub together dry, an' wear out the engine when that oil don't go to work fast.

"An' another thing, mister," I'll say, feintin' with my right. "This oil can go 15 rounds without even raisin' a sweat—I mean it's tough—it can take it!"

Then I let a left hook go—right on the button —"An' buddy, at 25¢ a quart, this oil is a knock-out!" Boy will I be a wow!

Sincerely,

Your Shell Dealer
