

TEACHING STAFF ANNOUNCED FOR CITY'S SCHOOLS

Only Three New Faces On Faculty Is Expectation — Instructions Given for Student Registration

With all city schools, elementary, junior high and senior high, opening Tuesday, Sept. 6, for the 1938-39 school year, City School Superintendent E. H. Hedrick announced today that the tentative list of all pupils and the tentative list of teachers.

Although some 2600 students are expected to take up their books Tuesday following the three-month summer vacation period, Mr. Hedrick stated that he expected high school registration to be rather light for at least three more weeks, due to the fact that many boys are working in packing plants and orchards. He urged all high school students working in the fruit to remain on their jobs, pointing out that by doing so they could help the fruit industry here and make themselves some needed money. He explained that high school boys wouldn't have much trouble making up two or three weeks' school work.

Three New Faces

In announcing the tentative list of 104 teachers for the senior and junior highs and Washington, Lincoln, Jackson and Roosevelt grade schools, the superintendent stated that there had been fewer vacancies this year than in any of the past 15. There will be only three new teachers in the city this year, he said.

Pauline Conrad of LaGrande, who taught last year in Alaska, will be art supervisor for the city school system and teach in the senior high school, Mr. Hedrick announced. She succeeds Elizabeth Grissel, who has obtained employment in the schools of Ventura, Cal.

New librarian of the junior high school will be Ruth Elm, a University of Washington graduate, who will take the place held last year by Mrs. Helen Everett, who is attending library school at the University of California.

Cecilia McCorkle of Grants Pass, where she has held a similar position for many years, will be the new literature teacher at junior high school. She succeeds Mrs. Liona Beaman, who resigned after several years excellent service.

Following is the complete statement regarding the opening of schools, as released from the city superintendent's office:

MISFORTUNE HITS TWICE IN FAMILY

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 30.—(AP)—Mrs. Harry Bengt, Portland, was taken to a hospital late Saturday as a result of swallowing disinfectant.

A couple of hours later Bengt, returning from a fishing trip and ignorant of his wife's misfortune, was injured in an auto accident near Linton and landed in the hospital.

A tire blew out on Bengt's car and it scrapped the highway curb for 100 feet and traveled another 287 feet before it smashed head-on into the car of Olaf Bowman, Portland. The Bengt vehicle climbed almost on top of the Bowman car and both hurtled into an unoccupied truck.

Bowman escaped injury but two of the three other occupants in the Bengt machine were also hurt.

RIFLEMEN BUSY AT CAMP PERRY

CAMP PERRY, O., Aug. 30.—(AP)—This populous tent city echoed today with the staccato crack of 30-caliber rifles as the Leech cup match of the national rifle competition got under way.

The Leech event, calling for seven shots at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards, headed a program which included the instructors' trophy match, slow, timed and rapid fire pistol competition and Dewar course features for small bore.

The marines landed in first place yesterday in a close contest for the coast guard title. Gunner Sergeant James R. Tucker of Bellingham, Wash., and Sgt. Floyd E. Moore of Gainesville, Texas, scored 99 out of a possible 200 to tie in the event.

An infantryman clocked with a perfect 100, however, to take the marines' own trophy match. He was Sgt. Lloyd P. Jenkins of Fort Williams, Maine, who downed a field of 2,016 entrants.
