Dick Powell as Dude Cowboy

Pat O'Brien, Rosemary Lane and Dick Powell are the starring trio in the laughable romantic comedy with music, "Cowboy from Brooklyn," which comes to the Craterian theater Sunday for a three-day run. Also featured are Ann Sheridan, Dick Foran and Ronald Reagan. The story shows Powell tossed out of a boxcar and landing on a dude ranch; ballyhooed as a "rooin", foot-in-singing cowboy" for edification of the dudes; heard singing by a fast-talking Broadway agent and taken to Manhattan as an honest-to-gosh cowpoke. And, when he finally is faced with the job of actually building a steer in a rodeo, the cowboy from Brooklyn discovers you can't sing them to the ground in a series of hilarious escapades.
