LEGION HEAD RAPS ALIEN STIRRING OF U. S. LABOR STRIFE

Doherty Speaks at Oregon State Convention—Americanism Held Job for Every Citizen in Nation

PENDELTON, Ore., Sept. 2.—(AP)—Daniel J. Doherty, national commander of the American Legion, strongly criticized labor circle activities of non-citizens such as Harry Bridges, western CIO leader, in his address before the Oregon state legion convention today. Such activities, he declared, constitute a "definite menace to our country."

It is time that the American Legion spoke out, he asserted, declaring that the secretary of labor should institute proceedings against Bridges to bring about his deportation. He said Bridges activities have tended to "break down industry."

School System Hit
Doherty also was critical of the American school system which he charged was permitting "indoctrinists and propagandists" to influence education in the United States. "Education should purge its ranks," he said, advising parents to be more concerned about the type of leadership in schools their children attend.

"Americanism," Doherty stated, "is not the job of only one organization. It is the job of every citizen." He spoke for a continued freedom of thought and speech, of assembly, of religious worship, of a free press and trial by jury and said "we should likewise be ever alert and vigilant in our opposition to theories and practices that would do violence to those liberties. The American Legion will never compromise with those who are constantly striving to sabotage American principles and processes of government."

927,102 Members
Doherty, reviewing Legion membership, reported the national registration as of August 31 was 927,102.

Concerning unemployment, a vital concern of the Legion, he said progress had been made toward elimination of "the unjust age bar in industry," adding that industry needs the stabilizing hand and influence of veterans.

He said rehabilitation of the disabled veterans continues a major concern of the organization.

PENDELTON, Sept. 2.—(AP)—The state Party and Eight organization elected Henry Heisel, of Tillamook, grand chef de gare last night at the annual American Legion convention. Dr. T. F. Pound of Salem was re-elected chef de train and Dan Robinson of Portland succeeded himself as conductor.

F. R. WOULD ELECT LIBERALS THOUGH THEY BE OF G.O.P.

He said Postmaster General Farley would be in his party on his week-end trip to Maryland. The major engagement on that trip is a labor day speech at Denton, in which Mr. Roosevelt is expected to amplify his advocacy of the senatorial campaign of Rep. David J. Lewis.

Lewis is running for Democratic nomination against Millard E. Tydings, the incumbent, who has opposed some administration legislation.

The president said Lewis would be in his party and so would Representative Goldsborough (D. Md.), who lives in Denton. Governor Nice of Maryland, a Republican, also will make part of the trip.

Farley left with Maine's electorate in an address last night an admission to "get in step with the rest of the United States." The election in Maine, which joined Vermont in the Republican column in 1936, will be held September 12.

The president was said by aides to feel both Sheridan Downey, the Democratic nominee for the senate in California, and Culbert L. Olson, the party's standard bearer in the gubernatorial race, are liberals in their general points of view.

Suspects $30 Plan
But he also was said to feel strongly the "430 every Thursday" plan for old age pensions, which was an issue in the Democratic primary in California and will be an issue in the election is unsound financially. Nevertheless, associates reported him

PETE TRAINS HARD FOR FISTIC BRAWL

Pete Belcastro is punching the searights out of his seven brothers in Weed, Cal. as he whips himself into shape for his 10-round heavyweight brawl with Sokeye Jack McDonald in the Medford armory next Monday night.

And McDonald, the ex-Seattle logger, the guy who tried to make Belcastro fight last Monday and had to take the next best thing—well, McDonald is apparently doing his conditioning in secret. For, not a word has leaked out regarding Sokeye's training activity. However, those who know McDonald are not worrying, because if ever a man wanted to chop another man to pieces with his fists, McDonald has that burning desire.

Try as he might, by threats, by "dicule, by dare, by everything, Sokeye couldn't get Belcastro to put on the gloves with him last Monday eve. The Weed Italian flatly refused but finally agreed to the 10-round affair for next Monday.

The prizefight, to be conducted strictly according to Marquis of Queensbury rules, will be preceded by two wrestling bouts. Alvin Butts meets Mike Strielich in the middle encounter and Ken Hollis faces Juan Sebastian in the opener, both matches to consist of six 10-minute rounds or the best two out of three falls.
