PENSION PLAN TRIUMPHS TERRIFY ADMINISTRATION
UNFULFILLABLE PROMISES ATTRIBUTED TO VICTORS
DRASTIC PENSION MOVES BY CONGRESS UNLIKELY
LIBERAL BROADENING OF SOCIAL SECURITY EXPECTED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The new dealers, not excepting the president, are frankly terrified by the triumph of the pension movement.

Conservatives' jubilation at the licking of such White House favorite as the epine Senator William Gibbs McAdoo in California, and young Congressman William I. MacFarlane of Texas, has all but obscured the fact that the men who won were much more dangerous. But nothing scares a liberal politician more than another politician who out-liberals him, and the new dealers are completely alive to the danger.

Both McAdoo and MacFarlane were personally endorsed by the president in Florida. MacFarlane was beaten by Ed Gossett, another pensioner, and there's the strongest testimony that the strength of W. Lee O'Daniel, the celebrated flour salesman who won the Texas governorship, was as much in pension promises as in vote-buying.

In Florida, Senator Claude Pepper's appeal to the Townsendites was at once ringing and blatant, yet it gave him victory. And in scores of congressional races all over the country, less conspicuous demagogues are trying to host themselves on the public payroll by making unfulfillable promises to the old people. There can be no doubt that the new dealers are right in seeing handwriting, and very threatening handwriting, on the wall.

Just how strong the pensioners will be in the next congress, one can't tell until the November returns are in. Yet it may be presumed that the successes of Pepper and Downey, Gossett, Olson, O'Daniel and the others will have as forcible an effect on the lawmakers as it has had on the voters.

PROCLAMATION TO PARTY SIDESTEPS BURNING QUESTION

Almost Entire Statement Devoted to Conditions in Germany — Denies Foreign Power Pact Plans

NUERNBERG, Germany, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler ignored Czechoslovakia in his proclamation today to the tenth annual European congress, disappointing anxious European statesmen who had hoped for an inkling of Germany's intentions in central Europe.

Almost his whole 5,000-word proclamation dealt with inner conditions of Germany, particularly economically, which the fuhrer assured his followers was so healthy the nation "will be without worries for food for years to come."

Through the voice of district leader Adolf Wagner, who read the fuhrer's proclamation in congress hall, Hitler repudiated any intention of forming a pact with foreign powers.

"I have never had nor have this intention," the chancellor declared.

Statement Cheered

The statement was cheered thunderously.

Instead, he declared he was offering the people a "greater Germany"—referring to the absorption last March 13 of Austria—and the union of "six and a half million Germans who today spiritually unite in a stronger than ever... in a great indivisible community."

The absence of any word on Czechoslovakia undoubtedly was disappointing to the 45 truck-coated foreign diplomats who had accepted Hitler's personal invitation to attend the congress. They were an island in a sea of uniforms in the packed hall.

Among them was Hugh R. Wilson, United States ambassador to Berlin. Never before had an American ambassador accepted the invitation to Nurnberg.

Besides his brief denial of any intention of allying Germany in a pact, the chancellor's only allusions to foreign affairs were an evident reference to Italy's newly-born anti-Jewish measures and a denunciation of the "international Jewish world enemy."

Hitler linked the "Jewish virus" with the "world pest of bolshevism."

Stresses Red Menace

"More threatening than ever," he said, "the bolshevist danger of the destruction of nations rises above this world."

With 21 Italian fascists in the audience, headed by Roberto Farinacci, former secretary of the fascist party, the fuhrer lauded the "mutual spiritual conception" which "leads us more and more humanely together."

He expressed joy "another great European power... shares the same conception and with admirable determination has drawn the most far-reaching conclusions."

Greater Germany, its inner strength and the annexation of Austria provided his main theme.

Germany's house is in order, he declared, and he advised the democracies to follow her example if they wanted to revive world trade.

PRAHA, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The Czech government anxiously awaited reaction today from two quarters to its sweeping concessions to the German population of the republic.

The first question was, "Would this last and ultimate offer," formulated at a 4 1/2-hour cabinet session last night, satisfy the sudeten German party which in long-winded negotiations has been insisting on a degree of autonomy amounting almost to independence?

The second question: "How would the Czechs, who have been aroused to nationalist fervor by the patriotic press, receive the news of a government retreat under German pressure?"

But while the sudeten Germans were elated and the Czechs were worried, neither had a substantial basis for judging how the situation was altered by the cabinet meeting last night.

Government circles hinted many of the sudeten's eight points were met half-way, but it was believed demands Czechoslovakia abandon alliances with France and Soviet Russia, were definitely refused. It was also thought Czechoslovakia was unwilling to grant the sudeten German greater voice in determining military policy.

A well-informed source said Czechoslovakia had wanted to reorganize the state on a system of cantons, like Switzerland's, so that three all-German districts would get virtual autonomy.

Czechoslovakia's Defense Their Burden

54-YEAR-OLD FARMER HELD AS ATTACKER OF SEVEN-YEAR-OLD GIRL

BURNS, Ore., Sept. 5.—(AP)—A sheriff opposed the rangeland tradition of home-made justice today and hid a 54-year-old farmer from Harney county citizens who threatened revenge for an alleged abduction and criminal attack on a 7-year-old girl.

Sheriff C. W. Frazier refused to say where he had taken Orville L. Smith, who was captured near here Sunday by Mogan Prentley and Jim McCullough, Crane business men.

Poses had searched for a man since last Wednesday after the girl's brother reported the alleged kidnapping. Sheriff Frazier said a formal investigation would start after the district attorney returned.

The child was reported missing from Narrows, a small community 2 1/2 miles south of here, Wednesday. Searchers found her in a dazed condition the following day at the Pete Caldwell ranch six miles from her home.

The girl's brother related, the sheriff said, he and his sister were taken from a horseback ride. The man told the boy to dismount two miles from home, the officer stated, and rode away with the girl.

Ellenberger, Sons Graduate Is Killed in Automobile Crash

BEND, Sept. 6.—(AP)—A Deschutes county coroner's jury investigated today the death of Samuel Albert Ellenberger, 26, graduate of the Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland, in a Labor day week-end automobile accident five miles south of here.

The youth's father, Albert E. Ellenberger, 57, of Ashland, was gravely injured.

Witnesses at the inquest said an automobile operated by A. W. Nixon, special fire patrol association officer and former Bend chief of police struck the truck and trailer the Ellenbergers had parked on the edge of the highway.

The witness, en route to Ontario where they had recently acquired a section of irrigated land.

Both father and son were pastors at the Ashland Church of Brethren. Young Ellenberger completed his training at Laverne, Calif., last spring and was to report as a manual training instructor at Azusa, Calif., schools this fall.

Covadonga Bleeds to Death After Auto Smashup Injury

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 6.—(AP)—The Count of Covadonga, 31, eldest son of former King Alfonso of Spain, died today from cuts about the head suffered in an automobile accident.

The injuries in themselves were not severe but the count's condition was complicated by hemophilia, the hereditary disease of the Battenbergs, which causes excessive bleeding and prevents the blood from coagulating normally.

The former heir to the throne of Spain died in a hospital about nine hours after the accident, in which his companion and driver of the car was a night club cigarette girl, Miss Mildred Gaydon, 25. They have been friendly for some time.

Miss Gaydon suffered slight chest injuries. She was questioned by police, and then released. She related she and the titled Spaniard were driving along Biscayne boulevard about 2 a. m. when she averted to avoid a truck, lost control and hit a pole on the left side of the street.

Dr. C. P. Lamar, who attended the count, ascribed his death to traumatic shock. The flow of blood had been checked shortly before the victim died, but he had been placed in an oxygen tent and given slight chance for recovery.

Jack Fleming, the count's secretary who remained at the bedside, called King Alfonso in Rome and Queen Victoria, the count's mother, in London. Funeral arrangements were not made immediately, but Fleming said the body might be taken to Spain for burial.

Covadonga, the former prince of the Asturias, had made his home in a Miami hotel since last fall, when he and Marta Roafront, his second Cuban commoner wife, split up a few weeks after their marriage.

GANG AIDE TELLS OF PAYING HINES

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—(AP)—"Big Harry" Schoenhau, paymaster for the Dutch Schultz policy racket gang, testified today in Tammany district court that James J. Hines' conspiracy trial, George Weinberg, another Schultz aide, in 1932 "told me Jimmy Hines had gone on the payroll at $500 a week."

Thus, he corroborated the testimony of other Schultz henchmen who said Hines had been hired to give the racket political protection on a flat retainer basis.

Schoenhau said he met Hines in the autumn of 1932 at the Monarch Democratic club and three or four months after the 1932 election he personally paid Hines $500 on Weinberg's instructions.

He occasionally saw Hines in 1933, he added, and paid him money.

Schoenhau testified he had paid Hines sums ranging from $500 upward on at least eight occasions.

Suddenly Deranged Father Slays Wife, Takes Own Life

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 6.—(AP)—A suddenly deranged father left his breakfast table this morning, shot and killed his wife, critically wounded his son and took his own life. Detective O. A. Powell said.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Beacraft, both about 40, were dead and their 17-year-old son, Raymond, Jr., probably mortally wounded.

The detective related a neighbor, Mrs. V. Breese, heard a shot from the upstairs of the Beacraft home and a moment later saw Mrs. Beacraft screaming at a landing window.

When Mrs. Breese reached the residence, she told the detective, Mrs. Beacraft ran from the front door. She was bleeding from a bullet wound. Her husband followed and fired a revolver, the neighbor stated.

Beacraft returned upstairs while Mrs. Breese and other neighbors called officers. Powell said they broke down a bedroom door and found the father fatally wounded, a gun still in his hand. The son was stretched on the floor nearby.

The father, employed for a year by the U. S. forest service, was formerly a member of the University of Idaho faculty. He was a graduate of Utah State Agricultural college. Neither neighbors nor forest service associates could explain his actions.

Two Beacraft children left home a few moments before the shooting to attend the first day of school and a four-year-old daughter was at Mrs. Breese's home.

FRANCE SENDING REINFORCEMENTS TO MAGINOT LINE

Thousands of Troops and Tons of Military Equipment Brought Up—Populace Talks Possible War

By CHARLES S. FOLTZ, Jr. IN THE MAGINOT ZONE, Northeastern France, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Tens of thousands of troops and thousands of tons of military equipment arrived in northeastern France and vanished into the Maginot line today.

France's border population talked of little else besides the calling to colors of an estimated 300,000 reservists to "watch for trouble from over there."

"Over there," to Frenchmen in the Maginot zone, means the German side of the frontier where the Siegfried line was manned with a strong force of Germany's crack troops.

Benaulth Underground

In the main streets of Metz, Verdun, Nancy and other Maginot zone centers there were fewer troops visible than usual. The answer was all leaves were cancelled and that the troops remained in the underground fortifications and garrisons of the Maginot zone.

Troop trains brought thousands to these centers, but most of them dropped off at tiny hamlets which are only dots on tourist maps but of vital importance on military maps.

"He—that means Adolf Hitler in the frontier zone—would think a long time if he knew what waits under these fields," said an officer near the border.

The highway and byways of the Maginot area showed travelers who knew what to look for that France's northeastern frontier was on a war footing.

Order Travelers On

Whenever civilian motorists stop on the roads in certain regions armed soldiers suddenly appear from the middle of apparently deserted pastures and tersely order the travelers on.

"We only warn you once," the sentries say.

Since last Friday activity on the Maginot roads has been particularly heavy. Whole truck trains of supplies come and go.

All along the roads little groups of soldiers returning from leave march back to their posts.

"Reservists do not take the highways," an officer said. "They get off their trains and step right into the line."

HARVEST OF PEACHES NEAR END IN VALLEY

Harvesting of the valley peach crop, with the exception of some Hales in the Ashland district, is about completed, according to County Horticulturist C. B. Cordy. Early Crawford and Elbertas have been picked. Cordy described the crop and market as none too good.

Picking and packing of Comice peaches will start in a week or ten days, according to Cordy. Boacs and D'Anjou are now being harvested. Winter Nellis will be next.

The peach harvest season is now expected to be finished by October 10—probably earlier.

M'CARRAN CANDIDACY IN NEVADA PRIMARY HAS NEW DEAL ANGLE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Nevada voters selected nominees for congress and governor today in primaries claiming national interest chiefly because of Sen. Pat McCarran's attempt to win renomination.

McCarran, who broke with President Roosevelt on the administration's supreme court and reorganization bills, was opposed by Albert Hilliard and Dr. John Worden, both claiming to be pro-administration.

While the nation's political observers awaited Nevada's verdict, they kept an eye also on the Maine elections to be held Monday.

Maine was one of the two states which went Republican in the 1936 presidential election and James A. Farley, Democratic national chairman, urged its voters last week to "get in step with the rest of the country."

The administration's reciprocal trade treaty with Canada had been a Maine issue, raised especially by John Hamilton, Republican national chairman.

The principal race is between Gov. Lewis Barrows, Republican seeking re-election over Louis J. Brann, his Democratic predecessor.

At Hyde Park, N. Y., President Roosevelt talked with Governor Elmer Benson of Minnesota, a farmer-laborite who has been friendly to the administration.

396 DEATH TOLL OVER LABOR DAY

By the Associated Press

The nation's labor week-end death toll this year climbed to 396, a survey showed today, as compared with 391 for the 1937 week-end.

Jammed highways and bathing reports accounted for most of the tragedies, but the automobile was by far the greatest single death-dealer. At least 278 persons were killed in motor car mishaps; 44 were drowned.

The figures also included 18 suicides, 11 homicides and 45 miscellaneous fatalities.

California and Ohio, with 33 deaths each, led the grim parade. Ohio alone had 30 auto fatalities. There were 32 violent deaths in New York State, 29 in Michigan and 23 in Illinois.

The toll by states included: Oregon, 1; Washington, 4, and Idaho, 8.

TYDINGS FILES CHARGES AGAINST PARTY WORKERS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Senator Tydings (D-Md.) told the Senate campaign expenditures committee today the collector of internal revenue for Maryland and the postmistress of Salisbury, Md., had made "notorious" efforts to influence federal employees in behalf of Representative Lewis (D-Md.), Tydings' opponent in the Democratic senatorial primary.

Chairman Sheppard (D-Tex.) said he would submit Tydings' complaint to the committee Thursday.

CONTRACTOR GETS GO AHEAD SIGNAL FOR SHASTA DAM

12-Company Syndicate Must Start Work Within Thirty Days — Will Supply Irrigation and Power

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 6.—(AP)—The United States bureau of reclamation issued an official notice to the general contractor today to proceed with construction of the mighty Shasta dam.

Walker R. Young, supervising engineer of the central valley water and power project, announced he had directed the required notice to Pacific Constructors, Inc.

The order requires the 12-company syndicate, which was awarded a $35,000,000 contract for the dam by Secretary Ickes in July to start work within 30 days.

To Start At Once

Young said he expects the syndicate to commence work immediately. A field office has been opened in Redding and 140 men employed in building access roads and clearing the site of the camp site in the Sacramento river canyon below the dam site.

Ranking as the second largest concrete dam in the world, Shasta dam will create a reservoir with a gross storage capacity of 4,500,000 acre-feet.

The key unit in the $170,000,000 central valley project will store the waters of the Sacramento, Pit and McCloud rivers for use in improving navigation and flood control in the Sacramento valley.

Serve Huge Area

It also will serve irrigation in both the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys, salinity repulsion in the Sacramento-San Joaquin delta, and electric power generation for northern California.

The dam will be 560 feet thick at the base, 3,500 feet long on the crest and 560 feet long, containing in all about 5,500,000 cubic yards of concrete.

ALL FOREIGN AGENTS MUST BE REGISTERED FOR BETTER CONTROL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The interior department announced today signing of a contract for relocation of 36 miles of Southern Pacific main line railroad around the site of Shasta dam and reservoir on California's central valley project.

Subject of long negotiation, the contract was hailed by reclamation officials as an important step in advancement of the construction program for the project.

DUPONT, RASKOB OWE UNCLE SAM BIG SUM

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The internal revenue bureau estimated today Pierre S. DuPont and John J. Raskob owed the government about $2,100,000 as a result of a board of tax appeals decision invalidating 129 securities transactions between the two financiers.

The bureau filed a computation with the board in accordance with what its lawyers believed to be the monetary results of the board's legal findings, declaring Raskob owed $888,285 plus interest and DuPont $888,285 plus interest.

Bureau officials said the interest would bring the total owed by the two men to about $2,100,000.

SMALL DAMAGE DONE BY HOUSE ROOF FIRE

A roof fire did negligible damage to the residence at 435 South Fir street this morning. The blaze was caused by sparks from the chimney, Chief Roy Elliott reported.

The fire department answered a ward alarm at 9:25, but the fire had already been controlled by the occupant of the house, Ray Morgan, when the firemen arrived. The location was potentially dangerous as a Pine-nacle Packing company plant adjoins the house to the south. The residence is owned by William Kee.

PORTLAND SWEPT BY LABOR DAY DOWNPOUR

PORTLAND, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Frowning clouds filled western Oregon skies today. Workmen here hastened to clear leaf-clogged sewers to prevent a recurrence of yesterday's floods.

Downpours brought the labor day week-end rainfall to .95 of an inch. About 30 of an inch fell in one furious ten-minute period and flooded numerous eastside streets.
