

FOUR SENTENCED ON MINOR COUNTS

Frank L. Tramel, charged with grand larceny in the alleged theft of a small engine from the Knight Packing company plant, waived preliminary hearing in justice court Wednesday afternoon, and was ordered held to await action of the grand jury. Bonds were fixed at $1000.

Leonard R. Douglas, transient, was sentenced to serve 45 days in the county jail on a plea of guilty to petty larceny. Douglas, the testimony showed, stole a watch from a lady patron of a south Pacific highway night resort. The watch, in a purse, was left on the table while she danced.

Charles F. Clifford of the Agate district was assessed $2.50 and costs for not having proper license plates on an auto. The same costs were imposed upon John L. Menmaugh, Medford, for the same offense.

Thomas L. Davidson, Medford, paid $2.50 and costs for having no muffler on his auto.

Numerous Events Fete Mrs. Sleeter Prior to Departure

Many delightful social events have been given the past several weeks at which Mrs. R. W. Sleeter has been the honored guest.

Entertaining for Mrs. Sleeter recently was Mrs. Ben Harder who gave a luncheon affair at her home on the Old Stage road.

Mrs. William P. Holt was another recent hostess. She entertained at her Cornish Court residence with a luncheon and five tables of bridge at which Mrs. M. N. Hogan and Mrs. Fredrick Johnson received bridge prizes.

Yesterday afternoon the Tuesday Book club met at the home of Mrs. Osa Newbury on Mistletoe street.

Mrs. Sleeter is a member of the club and this event was also in her honor.

Guests and members present included Mrs. C. C. Lemmon, Mrs. E. A. Moore, Mrs. E. H. Porter, Mrs. Jonas Wold, Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Mrs. Margaret Patrick, Miss Jean Dudley, Mrs. Paul Selby, Mrs. Donald Moore and Mrs. R. B. Hammond.

Mrs. Sleeter, accompanied by her two sons, Dr. R. W. Sleeter and Dick Sleeter, will leave Medford by motorcar next Thursday morning for West Philadelphia, Penn., to reside for a year. Here Dr. Sleeter will attend the University of Pennsylvania where he will take a post graduate course in the medical school. Dick Sleeter will also attend the university and complete his final year of pre-medicine. Prior to leaving Medford next week, Mrs. Sleeter will continue to be feted at numerous other social affairs.

Maxine Langston Saturday Bride of Mr. McQuigg

At a simple, but impressive, service held Saturday evening at 7 o'clock at the First Christian church, Miss Maxine Langston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Langston of Medford, became the bride of Earl L. McQuigg. The Rev. James M. Hamilton officiated.

The bride was lovely in a traditional white satin princess style wedding dress with a finger tip tulle veil. She carried a shower bouquet of Tallman roses and bovardia.

Miss Eris Langston was her sister's maid of honor. She wore an exquisite dress of pink taffeta and carried a sheaf of pink rosebuds. Mr. Chester McQuigg acted as his brother's best man.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. McQuigg will be at home to their many friends at 821 West Tenth street.

Movie Projector Plan Is Praised

Miss Mildred T. Carlton's decision to purchase a movie projector for use in the county schools with her birthday money received from the county-wide celebration of her birthday last March 23, in which every community and school of the county participated, has caused much favorable comment in the city.

Probably the most enthusiastic group regarding Miss Carlton's purchase, is the county school superintendent's office. The office personnel, in a statement this morning, was overjoyed at the thought of having the use of such a valuable instrument and expressed their delight that so many school children will have privileges which they probably never would have had except for the thoughtfulness of Miss Carlton in selecting the movie projector.

Officer Breaks Hand ON ROCK-LIKE CHIN OF PUGNACIOUS DRUNKARD

City Policeman Clyde Fichtner is nursing a broken right hand today, the result of an altercation yesterday afternoon in which Alfred Govaert, 49, a transient fruit worker who has been living at 501 East Main street, came out second best in his short but hot fight to keep from going to jail on a charge of drunkenness.

The action took place in the police station, where Officer Fichtner had taken the pugilistic-inclined Govaert after arresting him at Main and Fir streets upon the complaint of several citizens that he was causing considerable trouble. Just as Govaert, a husky Frenchman, was being led toward the jail door, he suddenly reached out and grabbed Officer Fichtner by the neck. The latter lashed out with a right that struck Govaert on the chin, but apparently didn't do serious damage, for the prisoner hung on to the officer's neck. Things were going fast and furious when Officer Roy Stoneker stepped in and swung his Sunday punter to Govaert's rock-like jaw. The Frenchman collapsed like a punctured balloon, out cold, and when he awakened he was safely behind the bars.

This morning, City Judge Allen D. Curry sentenced Govaert to 10 days in the bastille. The Frenchman had paid a $10 fine Wednesday morning for being drunk the night before.

Officer Fichtner's hand, broken when it landed on Govaert's chin, is encased in a heavy cast.

Bride-Elect Honored Guest

The Misses Bertha and Frances Arnsperger were co-hostesses recently for a pleasant informal buffet dinner party honoring Miss Winifred Roseborough, popular bride-elect and fiancée of Mr. John Merritt Sanderson.

Guests bidden to the enjoyable event, given at the Arnsperger home on Palm street, included the following members of the young set: Artis Lindley, Carolyn Hill, Ona Dee Hendrickson, Ruth O'toman, and Mrs. Charles Taylor.

Miss Roseborough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Roseborough, will wed Mr. Sanderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Sanderson, Sunday next.

Allen-Hewett Rites Performed Tuesday

The marriage of Miss Olive Allen and Mr. Harry Hewett, both of this city, took place Tuesday morning with Judge E. B. Day performing the marriage ceremony here.

The bride wore a gray tailored suit with matching accessories, and a corsage of roses.

Mrs. Hewett was formerly of Corvallis where she attended school. Mr. Hewett attended the Medford schools.

The couple will make their home in Ashland where Mr. Hewett is associated with the Pine Box company.

Idaho Guests Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Collins of Napa, Idaho, are recent arrivals in Medford and will visit here until Friday.

The visitors are guests in this city of Mrs. Collins' sisters, Mrs. Annie Campbell of Pennsylvania avenue, and Mrs. M. Russell of North Riverside avenue.

Oakland Guests Visit Hulens

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Garrett of Oakland, Cal., were Medford visitors Thursday and were overnight guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hulens at their home on North Ivy street.

The Garrett's while in southern Oregon also spent some time in Ashland, their former home. They were traveling by motorcar.

GIRLS SCHEDULED TO ENTER PLEAS IN DANCE BATTLE

Evelyn Nichols Jett, of the Midway road district, and Jessie Nosler Marshall, of the Talent district, charged in a complaint filed by Mrs. Clara Smith of the Upper Applegate with assault and battery, appeared in justice court late Wednesday and were given until this afternoon to enter pleas. The maiden names of the accused were used when the charge was filed. The defendants are comely and less than 20 years of age.

The complaint was filed as the result of a misce Saturday night at an Upper Applegate dance in which Mrs. Smith claims she was attacked by the two women and during the progress of a battle sustained nasal injuries, facial scratches and the loss of two handfuls of hair from her head. The pair invaded the dance hall kitchen where Mrs. Smith was cooking the midnight snack. It is alleged.

Warrants charging three male combatants with disorderly conduct, two of them navy sailors, will be filed today, District Attorney F. J. Newman said.

According to Sheriff Syd I. Brown, the hectic affair started when the three men and the Marshall and Jett women appeared at the dance and the men engaged in bantering with CCC enrollees who were present. The CCC lads twitted the sailors about the navy and their uniforms. A CCC enrollee slapped a sailor, the sheriff said, and hostilities flared. The sailors, according to the authorities, freely admitted their part, and declared they were only defending their arm of the national defense.

Pleas will be made this afternoon and date of the trial, if any, set for a later date the district attorney said.

Don't Let Constipation Drag On!

Do you often have days when you wake up tired—when you feel dull, sink, "in biggest down"? It's time you did something about it. And something more than just taking a physic! You should get at the cause of the trouble!

If you eat what most people do—just bread, meat, potatoes—chances are that just this fact is responsible: you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines that helps a bowel movement.

If this is your trouble, what you need is crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast. It contains "bulk" plus Nature's great intestinal tonic, vitamin B.

Eat it every day, drink plenty of water, and see if your old sparkle doesn't come back! Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.
