BLANKET BUSY IN

BIO APPLEGATE, Sept. 7.—The evergreen silkworms creeping in wild array over many sections of the Applegate valley are bringing a numerous pickers here from all sections. A Klamath Falls family camped here for a few days, counting 328 quarts. Although the berries are not entirely free from disease this year, the crop is said to be fairly good.

GIRL HOLDS POSSE AT BAY WITH GUN

MONTROSE, Colo., Sept. 7.—A 12-year-old girl who ran away from home because, she said, she had only overalls and badly-worn shoes to wear when school opened, held a sheriff's party at bay with a shotgun near here today.

The girl, Juanita Harrison, finally yielded to the entreaties of Sheriff Frank L. Hovey and his deputies and was brought to a hospital here for treatment for shock and exposure—resulting from 24 hours of wandering through the Spring creek foothills district west of here.

Hovey said the girl was clad in a pair of men's overalls and worn-out shoes when he and his searching party came upon her on a trail.

He said she raised the shotgun, which she had taken when she left the ranch home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrison, early yesterday morning, and threatened to shoot either him or herself.

THIRD SUCCUMBS TO MADMAN'S BULLETS

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 7.—(AP)—Raymond Becraft, Jr., 17, died at a hospital last night, raising to three victims of a blast of gunfire which killed his mother and father and three minor girls orphans yesterday.

Dead previously were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Becraft. Detective Captain John J. Keegan believed the father killed his wife, wounded his son fatally and snuffed out his own life with a bullet during an insane outburst.

Becraft, 45, a U. S. forest service employe, formerly was professor of range management in the University of Idaho's school of forestry.
