PIRATES WALLOP CARDS, CUBS FLOP FIRST GAME HOME

Giants Hand Brooklyn 20-2 Defeat—Braves End Losing Streak.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 10.—(AP)—A big eighth inning which produced eight runs gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 14 to 7 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals today to increase their lead in the National League pennant race to 4 1/2 games over Chicago and Cincinnati.

The pennant-hungry Pirates fell on three Cardinal hurlers for five singles, a double by Johnny Rizzo, and a triple by Al Todd with the bases filled in rallying for the victory.

To win the Pirates overcame a 6-run advantage which the Cards piled up in the early innings before Pie Traynor called on his ace, Mac Brown, who held the St. Louisans hitless during the last four innings. Brown got credit for the victory, his 15th of the season.

Johnny Mize, who has increased his batting average from .264 to better than .330 in the last two months, hit his 25th home run of the season with two mates on in the third.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—(AP)—The Giants took revenge on their old rivals, the Brooklyn Dodgers, today by clubbing out a 20 to 2 victory for a new major league scoring record for the season.

While Cliff Melton pitched a four-hitter to chalk up his 12th win of the year, the New Yorkers landed on three pitchers for 20 hits, including Jolo Moore's 11th homer, to climb within a game of second place in the National League race.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—(AP)—After winning six straight games on the road, Chicago's Cubs came home today to take a 9 to 1 defeat at the hands of Cincinnati. The victory enabled the Reds to tie the Cubs for second place in the National League.

Dazy Dean, rejoining the Cubs on their return home, made his first appearance in two weeks in the ninth inning. He retired the Reds in order. It was the only inning in which they were held hitless.

Score: R. H. E. Cincinnati 9 15 0 Chicago 1 4 1

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—(AP)—The Boston Bees ended a four game losing streak today by coming from behind to beat the Phillies, 6 to 5.

YANKEES OUTHIT BUT WIN; INDIANS LOSE TO BROWNS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—(AP)—The New York Yankees were outbatted, six hits to 11 today, but one of their blows was Joe DiMaggio's 30th homer of the year and that gave them a 6 to 5 victory over the Senators.

The win, achieved behind Monte Pearson's sometimes unsteady pitching, left the Yanks 16 games in front of the American league pack and needing only seven more wins—or any combination of victories and losses for second-place Cleveland or Boston to make that total—to clinch the pennant.

Score: R. H. E. New York 6 6 1 Washington 5 11 0

Pearson and Dickey; Montague and Gillani.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Al Milnar was a better batsman than pitcher today as the Cleveland Indians went down to their third straight defeat, bowing to St. Louis, 4-2.

While Buck Newsom was content to do a workmanlike mound job in holding the Tribe to six hits, Milnar produced the Indians' only runs with a homer in the fifth inning with Sammy Hale on base.

Score: R. H. E. St. Louis 4 12 0 Cleveland 2 6 0

Newsom and Sullivan; Milnar and Hensley.

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—(AP)—With Sam Chapman leading the way, the Athletics today fattened their batting averages in family style each player getting at least one hit as the Boston Red Sox were hammered to a 15-7 loss.

Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 15 19 0 Boston 7 10 1

Not even the record-breaking hitting of Boston's Jimmy Pox, who belted two homers for his ninth circuit complete, could stem the tide as the A's belted out 19 hits and chased three pitchers to the showers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—(AP)—The San Francisco Seals attacked their batting averages today by scoring a 14-3 win over the Oakland A's.

RACING

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Staghead, winner of the $25,000 Narragansett handicap last Saturday, today easily won a six length victory in the $10,000 added Governor's handicap at Narragansett park before 25,000 fans.

The great three-year old Maxwell Howard colt made a show of the field and clipped one-fifth of a second off the track record, covering the mile and a furlong distance in 1:49 3/5 with Jockey Westrope coasting along the stretch.

Mrs. E. Demark's Two Bob was second and Mrs. Parker Corning's Thanksgiving was third.

SITTING THIS ONE OUT, George Selkirk (left) of the Yankees and Buddy Myer of the Senators took a rest at second base in the fourth inning of a Yankee-Senator clash won by the Senators, 4-2. Selkirk had just been put out on Joe Gordon's tap to Shortstop Travis, who threw to Second Baseman Myer. Which was plenty of work in all that heat.

JUNIOR GRIDIRON TURNOUT, RECORD

Sixty-two players, the largest squad in Medford junior high school history, have been reporting to Coach George Harrington during the past week, and although there are only five football returning for more action this season, the coach believes a strong turnout can be produced from that huge turnout.

Back for another year are R. B. Weber and Cato Wray, left halfbacks; Curt Hopkins, right halfback; and Jimmy Glenn, guard; and Bill Wall, center. With those pigskinners forming a nucleus, Coach Harrington expects his 1938 team to be slightly heavier than last season's, if not overly experienced.

Following are those turning out daily for practice: Bob Stead, Bob Leonard, Lee Hayes, Warren Holbrook, Sam Young, Lee Reynolds, Jim Parson, Stan Smith, Merwin Baglin, Buster Cannon, Hal Adams, D. O. Fawcett, Bob Mitchell, Roger Barker, Clinton Bennett, Reece Cate, Clay Higgins, Bob Dickey, John Baglin, Henry Mohr, Cliff Jones, Herb Goldsmith, Harold Brown, Phil Todd, Bill Hall, Herbert Van Rhee, Fred Rush, Warren Baglin, Don Pruitt, Ralph Hankins, Roy Casebeer.

Formation of a six-man football conference among the class B high schools of Jackson county was practically assured Friday night, when coaches and representatives from Butte Falls, Prospect, Jacksonville, Phoenix, Rogue River and Talent met at Jacksonville to discuss the proposed league and make tentative plans. Bob Woods, Jacksonville high coach, presided.

Talent, Rogue River, Phoenix, Jacksonville and Prospect representatives gave definite assurance their teams would play six-man football this season, while Butte Falls was listed as a doubtful but possible entrant in the circuit.

Woods said the conference would get under way probably the first week in October, with all games to be played on Friday afternoons. He was appointed to draw up a tentative schedule in the next two weeks.

SNEAD AHEAD ON NEW YORK COURSE

GLEN FALLS, N. Y., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Blazing home with a scorching second round 96, six under par, hard hitting Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., snared the half-way mark lead in the $4,000 Glen Falls golf open today with a 36-hole aggregate of 137.

Snead's scintillating round, coupled with his opening 71, put him three strokes in front of genial Frank Moore of Mamaroneck, N. Y., medalist in the 1938 national P.G.A. championship, who added a fine 69 to his first round 71.

Five blows behind Snead, recent Canadian open winner whose 137 is seven under par, were Tony Manero of Peabody, Mass., 1936 national open king and open round leader Jimmy Hines of Great Neck, L. I., and Gene Sarazen, "squire" of Brookfield Center, Conn.

PLAN REFUGE FOR MIGRATORY FOWL

PORTLAND, Sept. 10.—(AP)—The state game commission today discussed plans for a gigantic migratory waterfowl refuge in southern Oregon. Ira N. Gabrielsen, chief of the federal biological survey, attended the meeting.

Gabrielsen outlined the project—a vast artificial marsh—would be feasible. Funds would be supplied under the Pittman-Robertson act, a tax on guns and munitions used by sportsmen.

Three bids on the Klamath Falls hatchery ponds were held up when the commission decided to expand the program and ask government assistance. A $27,000 PWA project is contemplated at Klamath Falls for new holding ponds and pipe lines. At the Union hatchery a WPA project for $3000 worth of pipe line was approved by the government, the board was advised, as were plans for a $73,000 hatchery at Enterprise under PWA. The commission also decided the Eagle Creek falls above Estacada would be dynamited out of existence.

TEAM BRAWL WILL BE FEATURE BOUT

Strengthen the ring foundations and gas up the ambulance, for team wrestling, takes over in the Medford armory again tomorrow night.

This time, it will be Mad Italian Pete Belcastro and Tiger Tsakoff, the brutal Bukarian, clashing with Alvin Britt and Paul Murdock, two cleanies, in a best four out of six fall match, or for one hour.

Opening the program will be Mike Strelch and Juan Sebastian. They will exhibit their scientific brand of grappling over the six-round route, or until one of them obtains two falls. The bill starts at 8:30 sharp.

It has been three weeks since the grunt and groan boys paired off in two's and figuratively tore things apart, and in matching the above huskies for the feature attraction, Promoter Mack Lillard believes he has lined up a team brawl that will top all others in spectacular action.

Belcastro and Tsakoff, who will be appearing here for the first time in three years, are both villainous and dirty workmen, while Britt and Murdock are inherently clean, although Britt gets off on the wrong foot sometimes and pours on the dirt.

GRATERS JOURNEY TO COAST TODAY

The Medford Craters, second-half champions of the Southern Oregon Baseball league, travel to Crescent City today for the first of a three-game playoff series with the coast club for the circuit pennant. Crescent City won the first-half title.

Second game of the series will be staged here next Sunday afternoon. In case the first two games are split and a third encounter becomes necessary, it will probably be played in the city drawing the larger gate in the first two battles.

AMATEUR GOLFERS OF LAND TUNE UP FOR TITLE EVENT

OAKMONT COUNTRY CLUB, Oakmont, Pa., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Over a path to glory studded with yawning traps and treacherous greens that have stopped the world's greatest masters, some 160 of the country's finest shot-makers will start trudging Monday in pursuit of the national amateur golf championship held by Omaha's famed Johnny Goodman.

The field, littered with old champs and perhaps the finest group of youngsters in a decade, is faced with a terrific task against par for the battleground is tough, old Oakmont which never has been consistently conquered. It was here the great national open field of 1935 blew up so completely that the unknown Sam Parks, Jr., a local pro, was able to win the crown with a 296 total for the 72 holes.

On such a shooting ground anything can happen. Though the title seemed sewed up by a coterie of 20 leading stars, including such Walter cup players as Goodman, Charley Yates, Johnny Fischer, Bud Ward, Reynolds Smith, Fred Hass, and Ray Billows, the race looked all over like a mad scramble for the two 18-hole qualifying tests Monday and Tuesday to the finish Saturday afternoon.

Goodman, twice a finalist before he defeated Billows 2-up to take the championship at Portland, Ore., last year, naturally was the closest thing to a favorite. Johnny always has gone well in this show since his first red letter day at Pebble Beach, 1929, when he upset the famed Bob Jones.

The "dark horse" with the largest numbers of supporters here is Roger Kelly, 22-year old law student from Loyola university, Los Angeles.

WHITMAN CANCELS COUGAR MEETING

WALLA WALLA, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Missing from the Whitman college football schedule this fall is the time-honored scrimmage season with Orin (Babe) Hollingsworth's Cougars but all other traditional rivalries are in their accustomed places on the seven-game schedule.

Simultaneously with the announcement came word the annual pre-season training camp would open at Camp Rotary on the Walla Walla river tomorrow.

At the camp, in the Blue mountains, F. D. Applegate, secretary and physical director of the Walla Walla Y. M. C. A., will give the freshmen, returning replacements and lettermen a stiff conditioning course. The camp has been operated the last few seasons and enables Coach R. V. (Big) Borjeske to have a crew of well-tanned and well set up candidates for opening practice.

With the opening game the last day of the month, actual practice will not start until September 19, later than usual. Cancellation of the Pullman scrimmage is another reason for the late start. This long afternoon usually did the Cougars far more good than the smaller Whitman squad.

Four home games are allowed, including Colorado college Armisties day. Whitman dropped a 18 to 6 decision to the mountain lads last fall.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—(AP)—The wiry old man who will be jogging along the Redwood highway for the next week or so will be Adam Ziegler and for the records it should be noted he is a pretty tough fellow to convince.

He's the one-man Bunion derby who tried to break the walking-running record from San Francisco to Grants Pass, Ore., in an official attempt last July. The best proved too much for the 55-year-old marathoner that time and he collapsed.

This time he is making an unofficial run, without benefit of control cars and check-in stations. Before leaving yesterday he announced he intended to "make Grants Pass or bust."

BOB SMITH LOOKS STRONG IN FIRST DRILL AT OREGON

EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Tex Oliver sent his 31 prospects for the University of Oregon's 1938 football team into the showers tonight, took a quick look back on the first week of practice and concluded that things "don't look so bad; I think we'll have a pretty fair ball club."

The new Webfoot boss cut his workout after to one short session today after two strenuous trials on Thursday and Friday.

"We should have a good team but it's impossible to tell how we will compare with the other conference eleven," said Oliver. "They all look pretty strong."

He made no effort to name a first string lineup and probably will not until just before the first clash with Washington State. However, Duke Hankinson, 190-pound sophomore from Seattle, looked good at left half, teaming with Dennis Donovan, Bob Smith and Frank Emmons.

Oliver has divided the squad into four elevens, alternating running plays in a two-ring practice on separate fields.

RICKEY IN FAVOR OF MORE HURLING FOR AILING ARMS

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Branch Rickey of the St. Louis Cardinals, one of the best qualified observers in baseball, expounded a theory today that lack of work between games was responsible for the epidemic of sore arms among pitchers in the major leagues.

It was customary for a pitcher to work in batting practice between starting assignments. Nowadays, a first line pitcher rarely serves them up during the pre-game hitting session.

"They pitch only when they have to bear down," Rickey said. "Their muscles are not in proper condition. They cannot stand the strain of a nine-inning performance. They get in a jam, they bear down with all they have and a sore arm develops. In my opinion, this would not happen if the pitchers took turns throwing to the hitters during batting practice between their starting assignments."

The current crop of "sore arm" pitchers includes such stars as Carl Hubbell, Dazy Dean, Lefty Grove, Schoolboy Rowe, Van Lingle Mungo and others.

FORMER CHAMPION VISITS PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Oregon golf enthusiasts get a chance tomorrow to look at the man who won the U. S. open championship two years in a row, one of the rarest performances in the game. AUSTRALIAN NET STAR WINS LONG WINDED CONTEST

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 10.—(AP)—For two sets and the better part of two hours today big, broad-shouldered Frank Shields had the secret, the strokes and the stamina with which to beat John Bromwich, the two-fisted Australian who stands at No. 1 on the foreign seeded list in the men's national singles tennis championship. But they weren't enough. Bromwich won, 1-6, 10-12, 10-8, 6-2, 6-2.

For the better part of two hours a crowd of 12,000 in the West Side Tennis club stadium thought it was about to see the upset of the year and knew it was seeing Shields play a more brilliant, more consistent game than he ever commanded as the nation's top-ranked player.

At the end of those two sets the 17-year-old former Davis cup star had a 6-1, 12-10 lead over the 19-year-old youngster every one expects to see in the final with Don Budge. He had those two sets, he still had the secret and he still had the will, but Frank no longer had either the strokes or the stamina.

With Bromwich advanced Frankie Parker, 1937 Davis cupper, who next tackles the Australian; Joe Hunt of Los Angeles; long-legged Yvon Petra of France; Franjo Puncec of Yugoslavia and Gene Mako, Budge's doubles partner, who hit a sound singles streak to upset sixth-seeded Frank Kovacs; Gill Hunt of Washington, D. C., and Bobby Riggs of Chicago. They are fifth in the order and named.

Helen Jacobs, first-seeded and seeking her fifth title, led the feminine survivors, who also included Margot Lumb of England, Helen Pedersen of Stamford, Conn., Nancy Wynne of Australia, Dorothy Mary Bundy, Mrs. H. C. Hopman of Australia, Gracyn Wheeler and Mme. Rene Mathieu of France.
