Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Ending one of the most crucial days in European history since the World war, the stock market today had shown ability to take the crisis in stride and prices, after early irregularity, showed a number of gains running to 1 to 3 points.

Steele and motors began the late morning improvement which carried through the day and was around the day's best level at the close. The season was conspicuous for the timid pace of dealings, as traders awaited the fateful speech of Chancellor Adolf Hitler which might cast the die for peace or war in Europe. However, coming as it did early at the finish of business, the news was too late to materially affect prices. Transfers approximated 500,000 shares.

LONG CRASH LIST ON TRAFFIC BOOKS DURING WEEK-END

Automobile accidents over the week-end took a considerable toll of damaged fenders, but with one exception none proved injurious to the occupants.

Three persons received treatment at Community hospital early Sunday morning from a crash occurring on East Main street in front of the East Side grocery. They were Richard Whittley, 33, of 308 Haven street; Lester Cass, 18, of 1118 South Riverside avenue; and Frank Turvey, 40, of Grants Pass. Whittley and Cass were released from the hospital after receiving treatment for bruises and minor injuries, while Turvey is still confined with several broken fingers and an injured hip.

City police stated the accident occurred when Wilfred Huffman of 330 Haven street, driving a LaSalle sedan east on Main street, struck a Studebaker coupe, operated by Lester Cass, which pulled out from a service station directly in front of the Huffman car. Whittley was a passenger in the Huffman machine, while Turvey was riding with Cass. Both machines were badly damaged.

A lamp post at the corner of Sixth street and North Riverside avenue was damaged to the extent of $14.02 Sunday afternoon, when it was struck by a Chevrolet truck operated by B. C. Wamble of Diamond Lake. The city police report stated that Vernon Holm of Grants Pass, traveling east on Sixth street, attempted to make a left-hand turn into North Riverside avenue and struck the truck, going north on Riverside and turning left into Sixth street. Following the crash, the truck caromed into the lamp post, knocking it over. Damage to the vehicles was said to be slight.

A city police car, parked in front of 318 Ashland avenue Sunday afternoon, received a smashed left rear fender when a Grover milk truck, driven by John Gillings of 23 Lincoln street, backed out of a private driveway into the police vehicle. The truck driver said he was watching children playing in the street, and failed to notice the law's auto.

Tom C. Johnston of Medford reported to city police that he hit one of five horses on a country road one-half mile east of the Brownsboro store Sunday evening.

Care driven by Bascom A. Darse of COC Headquarters Detachment and C. V. English of 117 Millstone street were involved in a slight accident at Oakdale avenue and Tenth street Saturday morning, a city police report stated today.

Machines operated by Leona Marques and Edith N. Stockstill, both of Talent, collided with minor damage on Talent's Main street Sunday morning. It was reported to city police yesterday.

The left front tire of a car driven by Nick Ross of Ashland blew out Saturday afternoon on the South Pacific highway, a city police report stated today, causing it to swerve into the path of a vehicle driven by Ludwig Christenson of Empire, Ore. Nominal damage occurred.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 12.—(Sp)—A beautiful new lighting system has been installed in the main auditorium of the Presbyterian church by the boys of the high school class, assisted by their teacher, Rev. E. Roy Martin. The system was a gift from those mentioned and adds much to the interior beauty.

On Labor day Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Sanden and daughters Eunice and Lois, also Preston and Roger Card and Mr. and Mrs. Seth L. Waters of Klamath Falls, Mrs. J. G. Viail of Phoenix and Josephine Scull of Medford, motored to the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Song in the Pilot Rock district and spent an enjoyable day. Other guests there were Mrs. Grace Sykes and three sons.

Honoring her husband on his birthday Mrs. Dewey gave a party for him on September 8 at their home on Sterling.

Miss Maude Cantrell of Los Angeles is visiting at home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cantrell.

A. T. Van Galder and family of Nevada spent a few days here last week on business.

Gage Sanden, who has been at the U. S. naval training station in San Diego for the past three months, is home on a 10-day leave. He arrived here Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Godward and granddaughters, Dorland Godward and Barbara Niedermeyer, drove to Crescent City and other coast points over Labor day. They also visited the golden jubilee at Cave City.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Niedermeyer left Tuesday morning for Salem where they are spending the week attending the state fair. During their absence their daughter Barbara, is staying at the G. W. Godward home and their son Arnold, at the Otto Niedermeyer home.

Mrs. C. A. Smith, who has been ill for the last few months, is able to be out again.

The Corlies family, who have been living on the Haight place, have moved to Medford.

Mrs. Ernie Carlson, who has been sick, is much improved.

Mrs. Alla Hanley Bush of Medford and Mrs. Dorothy Gore of Oakland, Cal. were calling on friends here on September 4.

Visiting friends here Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Royal Brown and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Brown and Mrs. Celia Holmes of Eagle Point; and Mrs. John Pernoll of Applegate.

On Wednesday Mr. Eneyart returned from Coquille whither he had taken his wife, who will make an indefinite stay with their daughter there.

Mrs. Inez Gleason and daughter Betty returned Friday from Portland where they had been on a short business trip.

Guests on Sunday and Monday at home of Mrs. Julia Williams and Mrs. Lulu Salsberry were Mrs. Lulu Morgan and son Ralph, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Yarborough of Rainier, Ore. Alice Smith of Rainier was also a Sunday dinner guest at their home. Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Williams are sisters.

Mrs. John Koepferk and son and daughter of Buffalo, N. Y. have been visiting for several days at the home of A. C. and Lee Hardy, who are brothers of the former.

In honor of their 55th wedding anniversary, a large number of friends and relatives gathered on Friday evening at home of Rev. and Mrs. E. N. Mallory to wish them well. The affair, which was a surprise to the guests of honor was sponsored by their son, Mr. Mallory, and wife of near Phoenix and their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton of Medford. Beautiful bouquets decorated the rooms and during the evening the guests were served a three-layer wedding cake decorated by a bride and groom, and punch. Gifts and a purse of money were given Mr. and Mrs. Mallory by their friends who wished them many happy returns of the day.

Rialto Stars

Jack Whiting, Betty Grable and Bob Hope assist Martha Raye with the laughs in M-rtha's newest laugh opus, "Give Me A Sailor," which opens a three day run tomorrow at the Rialto theatre.

"Gaiety Girls", starring Patricia Ellis and a large cast, will play as the companion feature with the Raye comedy.

Crowds Enjoy Show with Mickey Rooney Craterian Program

Crowds, crowds and more crowds! It seemed like everybody wanted to see "Love Finds Andy Hardy," which opened a three day showing yesterday at the Craterian theatre, according to George Hunt. Afternoon and evening—it made no difference—the crowds were there, coming on foot, in cars and on bicycles. There must have been at least a couple of hundred bikes parked in the alley next to the Craterian yesterday afternoon.

And, small wonder that the Craterian was the focal point of all this. For "Love Finds Andy Hardy" is grand entertainment—for every member of the family. It's the latest of the Judge Hardy series and easily the best. For in addition to the usual adventures that one expects to see happen to the Hardy-Mickey Rooney, as Andy, shows what he can do when he gets a real part with a lot of "umph" to it. This young star knows his acting, no question about that, as well he might after all the years he has spent before the camera, and the footlights before that. But he's never stood out like he does in "Love Finds Andy Hardy." Maybe it's because he's so typically all boy, and Andy Hardy is so typically all boy, that the two are one. Mickey is Andy and we can't think of any one who could play Andy now, after seeing Mickey strut his stuff.

Alternately humorous and dramatic, this new Hardy picture is full of youthful charm, exuberance, with many scintillating moments of high comedy. With Lewis Stone again playing the part of Judge Hardy with his usual finesse, Fay Holden as Mrs. Hardy, Cecilia Parker as Andy's older sister, the family is so compact as the day it first started. Like seeing old friends to see them in a new show. They're honest, American people, the sort of home folk all of us like and understand.

In addition, Judy Garland has been given a juicy role in which she not only plays an important part of Andy's love life, but also has a chance to do a little of the singing at which she excels.

"Love Finds Andy Hardy" is a picture that should be put on the "must see" list of everybody. And if you don't believe us, ask any of the hundreds who were lucky enough to get seats (and those who were willing to stand up to see it) yesterday at the Craterian.

Notice I wish to announce that I have taken over the Window Washing and house-cleaning business formerly conducted by George Seely. My many

EDUCATION BOARD FACES LONG GRIST

PORTLAND, Sept. 12.—(AP)—The board of higher education will discuss final preparations for opening the five state institutions and pass upon appointments at a regular meeting here Tuesday.

The board will also receive the report of a special committee organizing the new marketing project which was developed from the investigations of Dr. W. J. Kerr, chancellor emeritus. The committee on building grounds and capital outlays will study FVA and WPA projects which are in progress or are sought. The group will also study reports on the farm mechanics building fire at Oregon State college before making recommendations to the board.

Final approval of the biennial budget for submission to the legislature will be considered.

Visiting Here—Jack Reter is spending a few days visiting his son, Raymond Reter of Medford, and re-seeing old acquaintances in Jacksonville. Mr. Reter was at one time owner of Reter's confectionery in Jacksonville, now The Nugget.

FAST FLYING SUDS WIN EIGHTH IN ROW

Seattle's second place Suds made it eight in a row over the helpless Hollywood Stars with a double win yesterday also making it 25 victories in their last 28 starts.

A crowd of 18,000 was on deck for the double killing and watched the Suds' sensational juvenile pitcher Freddie Hutchinson register his 25th win of the year with a 7 to 2 win in the opener. Hutch drove in two runs to aid himself and limited the Stars to seven scattered hits. The Stars' Johnny Babich only allowed the Suds five hits in the second game, but three of them were good for as many runs in the fifth inning and assured Seattle a 3 to 1 win.

Care driven by Bascom A. Darse of COC Headquarters Detachment and C. V. English of 117 Millstone street were involved in a slight accident at Oakdale avenue and Tenth street Saturday morning, a city police report stated today.
